Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation

OVERVIEW AND OUTLOOK

As of March 31, 2007, we were a publicly-traded holding company with two operating subsidiaries: (i) Dial-A-Cup, which has developed a hot-water dispensing system that will brew one fresh cup of coffee, tea, hot chocolate, soup, etc. on demand; and (ii) Rubicon Financial Insurance Services (RFIS), a full service insurance agency offering personal lines, life and commercial insurance products to individuals and companies primarily in the State of California. In addition, we expanded our business plan to locating potential acquisitions of private companies in the financial services industry, as demonstrated by the recent merger with RFIS and the subsequent merger with Rubicon Real Estate and Mortgage, Inc (RREM). In addition to the RFIS and RREM merger, we have entered into several other non-binding letters of intent to acquire additional businesses in the financial services industry. We intend to continue to acquire other financial service companies to eventually become a single-source provider of financial services to our clientele, with Rubicon being the holding company of these various financial services entities.

CURRENT OPERATIONS

As mentioned above, during the first quarter of 2007, we acquired our first financial services company with RFIS and entered into a new line of business of an independent boutique firm offering multiple financial services. Further, on May 11, 2007, we acquired RREM, another wholly-owned subsidiary, focused on the real estate and mortgage industries.

We expect future acquisitions of private financial service companies in the upcoming quarters and through these entities intend to utilize a cross-marketing strategy to provide various product offerings to clients with the ability to gather all the assets and financial services of clients specific and customized to their needs.

RFIS has established relationships with larger preferred insurance carriers as well as general insurance agents in an effort to offer insurance products from a vast array of providers, both preferred and non-standard. RFIS currently is licensed in California and is in the process of obtaining non-resident licensing for Nevada and Arizona.

RFIS currently works with Hartford, Travelers, Safeco and First American in an effort to provide personal lines and commercial property and liability policies. RFIS also has multiple relationships with other Property and Casualty Insurers in an effort to diversify its palate of services in the personal and commercial lines of property casualty insurance.

With regards to the life and annuity products, RFIS works with a majority of the largest and most reputable Life Insurance and Annuity companies in the United States. RFIS also provides long-term care insurance, workers compensation as well as disability and group health insurance. RFIS believes it has positioned itself to facilitate the needs of any business or individual needing risk management services.

Subsequent Events

In April 2007, we acquired 24.9% of Maximum Securities, a NASD licensed broker/ dealer for $50,000 in cash. We anticipate moving towards the acquisition of the remaining 75.1% during fiscal 2007.

On May 11, 2007, we completed a merger by and among DeeSound, Inc., a Nevada corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary, and Rubicon Real Estate and Mortgages, Inc. (RREM). The agreement and plan of merger provided that DeeSound, Inc. merged with and into RREM, with RREM as the surviving corporation. Pursuant to the merger agreement we agreed to issue one share of restricted common stock for each share of RREM common stock issued and outstanding at the time of closing. As a result of the merger agreement, we issued 1,159,000 shares in connection with the merger. Upon the closing of the Merger, RREM became another wholly-owned subsidiary.

RREM provides professional assistance in the fields of residential and commercial real estate sales and mortgage loans in California. Mr. Joel Newman is the President of RREM and offers 26 years of experience in the real estate field. RREM has designed its business plan to act as modular units that can focus on different aspects of the real estate and mortgage industry. Currently, RREM has two modular units of real estate sales and mortgage origination.

Results of Operations for the period ended March 31, 2007.

We are in the early stage of developing our financial services platform and currently have minimal revenues from RFIS, our insurance services division. Our operations to date have been limited to the expansion of insurance services and evaluation of prospective acquisitions. We are seeking financing opportunities to acquire additional businesses in order to enhance the design of our development plans thereby expanding the financial services we are able to provide to our clientele.

Revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2007 were $20,798 compared to $0 in 2006. We anticipate continued growth in revenue as a result of our merger with RFIS and subsequent RREM merger. We are continuing to expand insurance product availability as well as extending our marketing area throughout the southwest. We will not have any significant revenue from additional services unless we are able to complete additional acquisitions or successfully develop new services in connection with the development activities planned for 2007. Accordingly, the insurance operations reflected in the quarter ended March 31, 2007, are not indicative of future operations.

Our expenses to date have consisted principally of executive compensation and professional fees. Executive compensation totaled $351,528 for the period ended March 31, 2007. This consisted primarily of shares issued and grants of options given in order to secure our executive management team. The amounts relating to the fair value of shares issued pursuant to executive employment agreements was $190,398 and the fair value of options granted was $108,277. Our executive compensation paid in cash per employment agreements was $52,500. We expect these costs to increase as we proceed with our acquisition and development plans.

In connection with the RFIS merger we recorded goodwill because the liabilities assumed exceeded assets acquired. Goodwill was impaired and recorded as an expense at March 31, 2007. Total operating expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2007 and 2006 were $780,632 and $63,294, respectively. We had a net loss for the same periods of $748,444 and $67,675 or $0.06 and $0.01 per share, respectively.

Operation Plan

During the next twelve months we plan to seek financing opportunities to commence our development and growth plan that will include the acquisition of private companies in the financial services industry.

On February 13, 2007, we formed a wholly-owned subsidiary, Rubicon Securities, Inc. for the purpose of developing a securities trading business. We have entered into a consulting agreement for assistance in the development of this business line and anticipate operations within the next twelve months.

In April 2007, we acquired 24.9% of Maximum Securities, a NASD licensed broker/ dealer for $50,000 in cash. We anticipate moving towards the acquisition of the remaining 75.1% during fiscal 2007.

On May 11, 2007, we completed a merger by and among DeeSound, Inc., a Nevada corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary, and Rubicon Real Estate and Mortgages, Inc. (RREM). The agreement and plan of merger provided that DeeSound, Inc. merged with and into RREM, with RREM as the surviving corporation. As a result of the merger agreement, we issued 1,159,000 shares in connection with the merger. Upon the closing of the Merger, RREM became another wholly-owned subsidiary.

We have several other planned acquisitions that are in various stages of discussions and due diligence. We are continually evaluating our development opportunities and financing opportunities in order to maintain our overall development plan. To accelerate the development program we plan to enhance our business relationships by building our client base through cross referrals. This economic strategy may allow us to utilize our own financial assets toward the growth of our current holdings, pursue the acquisition of strategic assets or companies and generally expand our existing operations.

Because of our limited operating history we have yet to generate any significant revenues from our financial service platform (only $20,798 through March 31, 2007). Our activities have been limited to the development of insurance services and the negotiation of various acquisitions. Consequently, we have incurred the expenses of a start-up.

Our future financial results will depend primarily on: (i) the ability to continue to source and screen potential acquisitions; (ii) the ability to develop existing services and (iii) the ability to fully implement our development program, which is dependent on the availability of capital resources. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in any of these respects, or that we will be able to obtain additional funding to increase our current capital resources.

Satisfaction of our cash obligations for the next 12 months.

Historically, our plan of operation has been stalled by a lack of adequate working capital. During the second half of 2006 we raised approximately $2,200,000 through two private placement offerings. We believe these funds will help progress our move into the financial services industry and will assist in potential mergers and acquisitions of financial services entities.

In the past, in order to obtain cash resources, we entered into two business lines of credit with a bank for a maximum of $50,000, plus an additional $10,000 overdraft protection for our checking account. The interest rate for borrowings is the prime rate plus 0.5% per annum. A small annual fee is required to keep the credit facility available. As of March 31, 2007, we owed $48,600 under the lines of credit.

Summary of any product research and development that we will perform for the term of our plan of operation.

We do not anticipate performing any additional significant product research and development under our plan of operation with Dial-A-Cup, RFIS, RREM or in the financial services industry.

Expected purchase or sale of plant and significant equipment.

We do not anticipate the purchase or sale of any plant or significant equipment; as such items are not required by us at this time.

Significant changes in the number of employees.

During the first quarter, we entered into full-time employment agreements with three of our executive officers; Joseph Mangiapane, Jr. (CEO), Michael Sederoff (COO/CFO), and Thomas Jandt (EVP of Business Development). As a result of the recent merger with RFIS, we entered into an employment agreement with RFIS President, Todd Torneo. Furthermore, as a result of the recent merger with RFIS, RFIS has 4 full time agents and 1 administrative person.

Subsequent to the quarter ended and upon completion of the merger with RREM, RREM entered into an employment agreement with Joel Newman, to serve as its President. Additionally, RREM has 3 full time personnel assisting in the mortgage and real estate units of RREM. We anticipate as we expand in the financial services industry, we will continue to hire additional technical, operational, and administrative personnel as appropriate.

Edgar Filing: RUBICON FINANCIAL INC - Form 10QSB

We may need to hire full time operational staff, if and when, operations commence under Dial-A-Cup. In the interim, we intend to use the services of independent consultants and contractors to perform various professional services when appropriate. We believe the use of third-party service providers may enhance our ability to contain general and administrative expenses.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

A critical component of our operating plan impacting our continued existence is the ability to obtain additional capital through additional equity and/or debt financing. We do not anticipate generating sufficient positive internal operating cash flow until such time as we can deliver our product to market, complete additional financial service company acquisitions and generate substantial revenues, which may take the next few years to fully realize. In the event we cannot obtain the necessary capital to pursue our strategic plan, we may have to cease or significantly curtail our operations. This would materially impact our ability to continue operations.

The following table summarizes our current assets, liabilities and working capital at March 31, 2007 compared to December 31, 2006.

	March 31, 2007	December 31, 2006	Increase / (Decrease)
Current Assets	$1,653,669	$1,921,450	$(267,781)	(14%)
Current Liabilities	$378,220	$365,138	$13,082	4%
Working Capital (Deficit)	$1,275,449	$1,556,312	$(280,863)	(18%)

Prior to the private placements at the end of 2006, the sole officer of Dial-A-Cup primarily funded our operations. As of March 31, 2007, total amounts owed in principal and interest to this officer was $156,014. The proceeds loaned have been used to fund operations and for the development of a prototype of our beverage dispenser. The note bears interest at 10% per annum and is due on demand. For the quarter ended March 31, 2007, we recorded $5,529 of interest expense related to the note. As we expand our activities, we may continue to experience net negative cash flows from operations, pending receipt of additional revenues.

During the last half of 2006, we conducted two private placements and raised approximately $2,200,000. We believe the capital raised and anticipated funds from recently acquired operations will be sufficient to sustain operations for fiscal 2007. However, we may need to seek additional funding for operations through equity offerings and may need to further do so in the future through additional financing, acquisitions, joint ventures or other means available to us. There can be no assurance that we will be able to complete a transaction or complete a transaction on terms favorable to our stockholders or us.

Edgar Filing: RUBICON FINANCIAL INC - Form 10QSB

As we continue to expand in the financial services industry, we anticipate incurring operating losses over the next twelve months. Our lack of operating history makes predictions of future operating results difficult to ascertain. Our prospects must be considered in light of the risks, expenses and difficulties frequently encountered by companies in their early stage of development.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We do not have any off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on our financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results or operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources that is material to investors.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Revenue Recognition: We recognize revenue from product sales once all of the following criteria for revenue recognition have been met: pervasive evidence that an agreement exists; the services have been rendered; the fee is fixed and determinable and not subject to refund or adjustment; and collection of the amount due is reasonable assured. We will primarily derive our revenues from anticipated financial service related fees, such as commissions.

RFIS currently earns commissions paid by insurance companies which are based on a percentage of the premium charged to the policyholder and considered earned over the term of the policy. Deferred commissions are related to the unexpired terms of the policies in force. The Company recognizes revenue net of expected cancellations in accordance with Staff Accounting Bulletin (SAB) 13A.

Fair Value of Officer and Stockholder Transactions: In accordance with Staff Accounting Bulletin (SAB) No. 79, Accounting for Expenses or Liabilities Paid by Principal Stockholder, we estimate and record the fair value of expenses contributed to us by our officers and stockholders. Significant expenses contributed by officers and stockholders during the periods presented in this report consist of office space and services. We assess the fair value of these services and record an expense to operations with a corresponding credit to additional paid-in capital.

FACTORS THAT MAY AFFECT OUR RESULTS OF OPERATION

Risks Relating To Our Business and Marketplace

During the period ended March 31, 2007 we are no longer considered to be in the development stage. We have emerged from the development stage through our acquisition of RFIS but continue to have a minimal operating history, which raises substantial doubt as to our ability to successfully develop profitable business operations.

Edgar Filing: RUBICON FINANCIAL INC - Form 10QSB

We were previously in the business of designing and developing a hot beverage dispenser, but we have recently focused on developing a business in the financial services industry. We have yet to generate significant revenues from operations and have been focused on acquiring financial services companies. Although we have completed two acquisitions, received two patents and one additional patent pending, there is nothing at this time on which to base an assumption that our business operations will prove to be successful or that we will ever be able to operate profitably. In addition to the hot beverage dispenser, we are pursuing the financial services industry, which is a completely new line of business and there is no guarantee that our business operations will prove to be successful or that it will be profitable.

We have limited operating history in the financial services industry and there can be no assurance that we will be successful in this industry.

Our proposed operations are subject to all of the risks inherent in the establishment of a new business, including licensing risks, insufficient capital, unforeseen problems, and expenses and complications encountered with the early phases of operations in a business. Moreover, our lack of an operating history in the financial services industry makes it impossible to predict whether or not we will operate profitably in the industry. While we have brought on management that is familiar with this industry, there can be no assurances that we will be able to locate, hire and retain the necessary personnel to initiate, manage and operate this new line of business, develop and implement necessary systems, obtain contracts and obtain financing as contemplated in our business strategy.

We may not complete all of our proposed acquisitions, and even if we do, these acquired companies have not operated as a combined entity and are not fully integrated, and we may not be able to integrate them successfully.

During the first quarter of 2007, we completed one merger with Rubicon Financial Insurance Services, Inc. and subsequently on May 11, 2007, completed a merger with Rubicon Real Estate and Mortgages, Inc. Additionally, we have executed non-binding letters of intent to acquire businesses involved in the financial services industry. Each acquisition is subject to customary closing conditions; including the completion of due diligence reasonably satisfactory to us, the negotiation and execution of a definitive agreement, required regulatory approvals, and the acquired company providing audited financial statements as required by SEC rules and regulations. We may not be able to complete all of these acquisitions if we are not satisfied with our due diligence investigation, if we are unable to negotiate definitive agreements, if we cannot obtain the required regulatory approvals, or if the companies to be acquired cannot provide the required audited financial statements.

Further, even if we are able to successfully complete all of these proposed acquisitions, the companies to be acquired have been operated as separate independent entities to date, and we may not be able to integrate the operations of these businesses successfully or institute the necessary systems and procedures, including accounting and financial reporting systems, to manage the combined enterprise on a profitable basis. Our management group has only recently been assembled and may not be able to manage the combined entity effectively or to successfully implement our operating strategies. Any inability to integrate acquired companies successfully would have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

An inability to access capital readily or on terms favorable to us could impair our ability to fund operations and could jeopardize our financial condition.

Access to funds is essential to our anticipated business of financial services. In the future we may need to incur debt or issue equity in order to fund our working capital requirements, as well as to make acquisitions and other investments. Our access to funding sources could be hindered by many factors. Those factors that are specific to our anticipated line of business include the possibility that lenders could develop a negative perception of our long-term or short-term financial prospects if we incur large trading losses or legal liabilities or if the level of our business activity decreases due to a market downturn. Similarly, our access may be impaired if regulatory authorities take significant action against us, or if our employees engage in material unauthorized or illegal activity.

We may not be able to retain our key personnel or hire the personnel we need to sustain and grow our business.

We face intense competition for qualified employees from businesses in the financial services industry. Our performance is highly dependent upon our ability to attract, retain, and motivate highly skilled, talented employees. These professionals are regularly recruited by other firms and may choose to change firms, in which case their clients may choose to move their clients and assets. Given our relatively small size compared to some of our anticipated competitors, the performance of our business may be more adversely affected than our competitors would be if we lose well-performing employees and are unable to attract new ones.

Risks Relating To Our Common Stock

Because our common stock is deemed a low-priced Penny stock, an investment in our common stock should be considered high risk and subject to marketability restrictions.

Since our common stock is a penny stock, as defined in Rule 3a51-1 under the Securities Exchange Act, it will be more difficult for investors to liquidate their investment even if and when a market develops for the common stock. Until the trading price of the common stock rises above $5.00 per share, if ever, trading in the common stock is subject to the penny stock rules of the Securities Exchange Act specified in rules 15g-1 through 15g-10. Those rules require broker-dealers, before effecting transactions in any penny stock, to:

- Deliver to the customer, and obtain a written receipt for, a disclosure document;
- Disclose certain price information about the stock;
- Disclose the amount of compensation received by the broker-dealer or any associated person of the broker-dealer;
- Send monthly statements to customers with market and price information about the penny stock; and

In some circumstances, approve the purchaser's account under certain standards and deliver written statements to the customer with information specified in the rules.

Consequently, the penny stock rules may restrict the ability or willingness of broker-dealers to sell the common stock and may affect the ability of holders to sell their common stock in the secondary market and the price at which such holders can sell any such securities. These additional procedures could also limit our ability to raise additional capital in the future.

If we fail to remain current on our reporting requirements, we could be removed from the OTC Bulletin Board, which would limit the ability of broker-dealers to sell our securities and the ability of stockholders to sell their securities in the secondary market.

Companies trading on the OTC Bulletin Board, such as us, must be reporting issuers under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and must be current in their reports under Section 13, in order to maintain price quotation privileges on the OTC Bulletin Board. More specifically, NASD has enacted Rule 6530, which determines eligibility of issuers quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board by requiring an issuer to be current in its filings with the Commission. Pursuant to Rule 6530(e), if we file our reports late with the Commission three times in a two-year period or our securities are removed from the OTC Bulletin Board for failure to timely file twice in a two-year period then we will be ineligible for quotation on the OTC Bulletin Board. As a result, the market liquidity for our securities could be severely adversely affected by limiting the ability of broker-dealers to sell our securities and the ability of stockholders to sell their securities in the secondary market.

NASD sales practice requirements may also limit a stockholder's ability to buy and sell our stock.

In addition to the penny stock rules described above, the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD) has adopted rules that require that in recommending an investment to a customer, a broker-dealer must have reasonable grounds for believing that the investment is suitable for that customer. Prior to recommending speculative low priced securities to their non-institutional customers, broker-dealers must make reasonable efforts to obtain information about the customer's financial status, tax status, investment objectives and other information. Under interpretations of these rules, the NASD believes that there is a high probability that speculative low priced securities will not be suitable for at least some customers. The NASD requirements make it more difficult for broker-dealers to recommend that their customers buy our common stock, which may limit your ability to buy and sell our stock and have an adverse effect on the market for our shares.

Item 3. Controls and Procedures

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in reports filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the specified time periods. As of the end of the period covered by this report, Joseph Mangiapane, Jr., our chief executive officer, and

Edgar Filing: RUBICON FINANCIAL INC - Form 10QSB

Michael Sederoff, our chief financial officer, evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 13a-15. Mr. Mangiapane and Mr. Sederoff, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective in timely alerting them to material information required to be included in our periodic SEC filings. There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during our most recent fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

It should be noted, however, that no matter how well designed and operated, a control system can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. In addition, the design of any control system is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events. Because of these and other inherent limitations of control systems (including faulty judgments in decision making or breakdowns resulting from simple errors or mistakes), there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential conditions. Additionally, controls can be circumvented by individual acts, collusion or by management override of the controls in place.

PART II--OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

From time to time, we may become involved in various lawsuits and legal proceedings, which arise in the ordinary course of business. However, litigation is subject to inherent uncertainties, and an adverse result in these or other matters may arise from time to time that may harm our business. We are not presently a party to any material litigation, nor to the knowledge of management is any litigation threatened against us, which may materially affect us.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

On March 1, 2007, we authorized the issuance of 50,000 shares of our restricted common stock to Stoecklein Law Group (legal services) and 50,000 shares of our restricted common stock to Accuity Financial Services (accounting services) pursuant to engagement letters for services.

On March 6, 2007, we authorized the issuance of 2,500 shares of our restricted common stock to our recently appointed director, Suzanne Herring as compensation for her services.

We believe that the issuance of shares was exempt from registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 by virtue of Section 4(2). The shares were issued directly by us and did not involve a public offering or general solicitation. The recipients of the shares were afforded an opportunity for effective access to files and records of our company that contained the relevant information needed to make their investment decision, including our financial statements and 34 Act reports. We reasonably believed that the recipients, who are our consultants, employees, officers and/or directors, immediately prior to receiving the shares, had such knowledge and experience in our financial and business matters that they were capable of evaluating the merits and risks of their investment. The recipients had the opportunity to speak with our management on several occasions prior to their investment decision.

Options Granted

On January 1, 2007, we granted options to purchase 500,000 shares of our common stock pursuant to the employment agreement with Joseph Mangiapane, Jr., our chief executive officer. The options have an exercise price of $1.00 and exercisable for a period of 5 years. Further, the options vested and became exercisable immediately.

On February 1, 2007, we authorized the issuance of up to 300,000 options pursuant to the employment agreement between RFIS, our newly acquired wholly-owned subsidiary, and Todd Torneo over a three year period. The options will vest at the rate of one option for every $0.50 of EBITDA generated by RFIS at the end of each fiscal year, based upon RFIS's audited financial statements. The options have an exercise price of $2.45 and are exercisable for a five-year period.

We believe that the grant of options was exempt from registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 by virtue of Section 4(2). The options were issued directly by us and did not involve a public offering or general solicitation. The recipients of the options were afforded an opportunity for effective access to files and records of our company that contained the relevant information needed to make their investment decision, including our financial statements and 34 Act reports. We reasonably believed that the recipients, immediately prior to receiving the options, had such knowledge and experience in our financial and business matters that they were capable of evaluating the merits and risks of their investment. The recipients had the opportunity to speak with our management on several occasions prior to their investment decision.

Subsequent Issuances

On April 20, 2007, we issued 5,000 shares of our common stock to an individual for payment of consulting fees.

We believe that the issuance of shares described above was exempt from registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 by virtue of Section 4(2). The shares were issued directly by us and did not involve a public offering or general solicitation. The recipient of the shares was afforded an opportunity for effective access to files and records of our company that contained the relevant information needed to make his investment decision, including our financial statements and 34 Act reports. We reasonably believed that the recipient, immediately prior to receiving the shares, had such knowledge and experience in our financial and business matters that he was capable of evaluating the merits and risks of his investment. The recipient had the opportunity to speak with our management on several occasions prior to his investment decision.

On May 11, 2007, we issued 1,159,000 shares of our common stock to 9 accredited shareholders of RREM in exchange for 100% of the outstanding securities of RREM as of the date of closing.

On May 11, 2007, we granted stock options to purchase up to 200,000 common shares pursuant to the employment agreement between RREM, our newly acquired wholly-owned subsidiary, and Joel Newman. The options have an exercise price of $1.00 and are exercisable for a period of five years from the grant date. The options will vest at the rate of one option for every $2.00 of EBITDA earned by RREM.

We believe that the issuance of shares and options described above were exempt from registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 by virtue of Section 4(2) and/or Regulation D, Rule 506. The shares and options were issued directly by us and did not involve a public offering or general solicitation. The recipients of the shares and options were afforded an opportunity for effective access to files and records of our company that contained the relevant information needed to make their investment decision, including our financial statements and 34 Act reports. We reasonably believed that the recipients, immediately prior to receiving the shares and options, had such knowledge and experience in our financial and business matters that they were capable of evaluating the merits and risks of their investment. The recipients had the opportunity to speak with our management on several occasions prior to their investment decision.
