PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Hertz Global Holdings, Inc. (the Company) is unable to timely file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2014 (the Quarterly Report) because additional work is required to complete the closing procedures associated with the first quarter primarily related to evaluating the Company's conclusions regarding the capitalization and timing of depreciation for certain non-fleet expenditures in prior periods. As a result, the Company was unable to complete the Quarterly Report by the prescribed May 12, 2014 due date without undue effort and expense. The Company currently expects to file the Form 10-Q within the 5 day extension period, on or before May 19, 2014, however, there can be no assurance that the Company will meet that deadline.

During the course of its preparation of the Quarterly Report, the Company identified certain errors relating to prior periods which may require it to restate its previously issued financial statements for 2011. The Company does not believe that the adjustments to the 2013 and 2012 periods are material and does not expect that these errors will require the Company to restate its previously issued financial statements for those two years.

Management is continuing to review these matters to determine if it needs to make any changes to its internal control over financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures. The Company will consider the effect of these errors on its prior conclusions regarding the Company's internal control over financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures.

Certain statements contained in this Form 12b-25 include forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements often include words such as believe, expect, project, anticipate, intend, plan, estimate, seek, will, may, would, should, could, forecasts or similar expressions. These statements are not guarantees of results, and our actual results could differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements due to a variety of important factors, both positive and negative, including the results of the additional work required to complete the closing procedures for the Quarterly Report. The Company therefore cautions you against relying on these forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements attributable to the Company or persons acting on the Company's behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the foregoing cautionary statements. All such statements speak only as of the date made, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
