ACTION — REMOVAL OF DIRECTOR

General

Under Section 141 of the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL"), members of our board of directors may be removed by a vote of stockholders representing not less than a majority of the voting power of the issued and outstanding stock entitled to vote. Section 3.13 of our Bylaws also permits the removal of directors by a vote of stockholders.

James Garner's engagement with us was terminated. In connection with that termination, Mr. Garner was asked to resign from our board of directors, which he refused.

This action is to remove Mr. Garner from our board of directors and was proposed and submitted to us by certain stockholders who own, in the aggregate, approximately 52% of our issued and outstanding voting stock on the record date. Following the removal of Mr. Garner from our board of directors, Mr. Garner will no longer hold any positions with us.

Director Removed

Mr. Garner has served on our board of directors since March 2006. Mr. Garner was considered an independent director as defined under the SEC rules.

Vote Required; Manner of Approval

Under Section 141 of the DGCL and Section 3.13 of our Bylaws, a director may be removed from our board of directors by stockholders representing not less than a majority of the voting power of our issued and outstanding stock entitled to vote. Section 2.13 of our Bylaws and Section 228 of the DGCL permit any corporate action, upon which a vote of stockholders is required or permitted, to be taken without a meeting, provided that written consents are received from stockholders having at least the requisite number of shares that would be necessary to authorize or take such action if a meeting was held at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Accordingly, the removal of a director from our board of directors may be effected by a written consent executed by stockholders representing at least a majority of our outstanding stock entitled to vote. Since the approving stockholders represent approximately 52% of our outstanding voting stock on the record date, the written consent that it delivered on July 11, is sufficient to remove Mr. Garner from our board of directors and no further vote, approval or consent of stockholders is required to approve or authorize this action.

Effective Date

Mr. Garner will be removed from our board of directors effective 20 days following the initial mailing of this Information Statement, or August 3, 2008.
