ITEM 1. Security and Issuer

Common stock of P&F Industires, Inc., 445 Broadhollow Road, Suite 100, Melville, NY 11747.

ITEM 2. Identity and Background

Timothy Stabosz, of 1307 Monroe Street, LaPorte, IN 46350, a natural person and United States citizen, is engaged as a private investor. He has not been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or other similar misdemeanors) in the last 5 years, and has not been a party to any proceedings, or subject to any judgements or enjoiments, related to violations of state or federal securities laws in his lifetime.

ITEM 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

Personal funds in the aggregate amount of $450,420.37 have been used to effect the purchases. No part of the purchase price represents borrowed funds.

ITEM 4. Purpose of Transaction

As a long-time shareholder of P&F, respondent has maintained ownership in the company for predominantly the last 13 years (going back to 1996).
Respondent has acquired the shares for investment purposes, and believes that P&F stock is significantly undervalued in the marketplace, from a long-term perspective. Respondent believes the underlying value of P&F is evidenced in the fact that the company, despite being a "cyclical" business, was continuously profitable for the 17 consecutive fiscal years 1992-2008 (absent an accounting change in 2002, and goodwill write-offs in 2007 and 2008).

However, respondent also notes that P&F evidences a number of issues and concerns that have festered, which he believes have caused the common stock to be assigned a considerably lower valuation by the marketplace than it otherwise would be. Some of these issues are "deeply troubling" or even "grave" in their essence, and it is the respondent's intention to bring these issues to the attention of the board of directors, and seek to have them addressed and rectified.

Respondent believes that he possesses the credibility to effectively represent and bring to the board's attention the important issues that P&F must face, with his being now the largest individual shareholder of P&F, other than the CEO, and having a lengthy 13 year interest and involvement in the company. The issues include, but are not limited to, executive compensation, board independence, and overall corporate governance issues (poison pill, staggered board, need to separate the chairman and CEO's position, et al.).

Respondent intends to engage with the board of directors and management, individually and collectively, to discuss these issues in a discrete, appropriate, and professional fashion, and is hopeful that the board will be responsive. Respondent further intends to present himself, or his representative, to the nominating committee for consideration for appointment to the board of directors. In the meantime, respondent intends to ask the board for consideration in placing respondent, or his representative, on the board as a "board observer."

Respondent believes it is absolutely imperative for the board to reach out to the entire outside shareholder base, and to establish trust and good faith reassurance, which respondent believes, at this time, is critically lacking. Respondent believes that it is through such efforts that P&F stock might realize a larger and much more diverse shareholder base, and that, if it would have had such a base, would not have suffered the kind of drastic decline in price it did, over the last couple years.

Respondent does not explicitly seek a change of management, or a change of control of PFIN, however, respondent believes that outside shareholders are entitled to have a board of directors that more actively focuses on maximizing shareholder value, and that selling the company at the peak of the current economic cycle, or having the CEO take the company private (since his compensation arrangement strongly suggests that he sees P&F as "his" company, anyway) are two scenarios that should be explored, in order that the CEO may honor both his moral, and fiduciary, obligations, to the other 2/3 of the shareholders.

Respondent intends to report back to the entire shareholder base, in 13d amended filings, and, as should be necessary, in press releases, over the success of his efforts to "right the ship" at P&F.

Respondent may, from time to time and at any time, acquire additional shares in the open market or otherwise, and reserves the right to dispose of any or all of his shares in the open market or otherwise, at any time and from time to time.

Other than as set forth above in this Item 4, the respondent has no plans or proposals which relate to, or could result in, any other matters referred to in subsections (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

ITEM 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

As of the close of business on September 17, 2009, respondent has sole voting and dispositive power over 258,209 shares of P&F Industries, Inc.'s common stock. According to the company's latest Form 10-Q filing, as of August 17, 2009, there were 3,614,562 common shares outstanding. Respondent is therefore deemed to own 7.1% of the company's common stock. Transactions effected by the respondent in the 60 days prior to the September 9, 2009 "trigger" date, through September 17, 2009, were performed in ordinary brokerage transactions, and are indicated as follows:
