BT REACHES AGREEMENT WITH UK GOVERNMENT

BT today announced it has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the UK Government following discussions led by Cabinet Office minister Francis Maude. All of BT's central Government contracts were covered by these discussions and remain in place.

Talks focused on new arrangements designed to deliver efficiencies, many of them achieved by changes which will enable wider economies of scale while yielding genuine benefits to government.

Jeff Kelly, CEO of BT Global Services, said: "This agreement means BT will continue to play a central role in the transformation of public services which make a real difference to the lives of people in the UK every day. Having found efficiencies in our own business, we have considerable experience which can help the Government meet its efficiency objectives.

"We are very proud of our long-standing relationship with the UK Government. With today's agreement, we will continue to be one of its largest suppliers of networked IT services. Many of BT's existing contracts have already delivered financial savings and operational efficiencies, demonstrating the benefits of public-private partnerships."

. There is no change to our overall outlook as a result of this agreement.

About BT

BT is one of the world's leading providers of communications solutions and services operating in more than 170 countries. Its principal activities include the provision of networked IT services globally; local, national and international telecommunications services to our customers for use at home, at work and on the move; broadband and internet products and services and converged fixed/mobile products and services. BT consists principally of four lines of business: BT Global Services, Openreach, BT Retail and BT Wholesale. In the year ended 31 March 2010, BT Group's revenue was £20,911 million. British Telecommunications plc (BT) is a wholly-owned subsidiary of BT Group plc and encompasses virtually all businesses and assets of the BT Group. BT Group plc is listed on stock exchanges in London and New York. For more information, visit www.bt.com/aboutbt

Enclosure 10

Tuesday 19 October 2010

BT GROUP PLC

TRANSACTION IN OWN SHARES - VOTING RIGHTS AND CAPITAL

BT Group plc announces that it has today transferred in connection with its employee share plans 7,612 ordinary shares at the price of 61 pence per share.

The transferred shares were all formerly held as treasury shares.

BT Group plc's capital consists of 8,151,227,029 ordinary shares with voting rights. Following the above transfer, BT Group plc holds 391,648,270 ordinary shares as treasury shares. Therefore, the total number of voting rights in BT Group plc is 7,759,578,759.

The above figure (7,759,578,759) may be used by shareholders as the denominator for the calculations by which they will determine if they are required to notify their interest in, or a change to their interest in, BT Group plc under the FSA's Disclosure and Transparency Rules.

Enclosure 11

BT Group plc
Court judgment on the Crown Guarantee

Judgment has today been given in the Royal Courts of Justice on the scope and extent of the Government's obligations in respect of the Crown Guarantee.

The key point in the judgment is confirmation that, in the unlikely event of BT becoming insolvent, the Crown Guarantee can cover members who joined the BT Pension Scheme both before and after privatisation. A further hearing is expected to resolve some outstanding points of detail¹.

Additionally, the extent of the Crown Guarantee should be calculated on a "buyout" basis (i.e. the cost of buying annuities to fund the liability) rather than the outstanding deficiency contribution payments under the recovery plan.

BT welcomes the fact that the judgment provides our employees and members of the BT Pension Scheme with further clarity regarding the extent of the Government's obligations.

The judgment, whilst welcome, has no impact on our agreed payments to the Scheme.

Notes to editors:

¹There are still some issues outstanding as to whether certain classes of members and benefits are covered. However, the judge has made clear that scheme members employed by participating employers other than BT, who were not originally employed by BT, are not covered by the Crown Guarantee.

²This is a case which BT has fully supported and was only a defendant as a technicality
