Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On May 6, 2005, we entered into separate $125 million 3-Year Letter of Credit Agreements and $100 million 364-Day Letter of Credit Agreements (collectively, the New LC Agreements) with each of Citibank, N.A., Bank of America, N.A., HSBC Bank USA, National Association and JPMorgan Chase Bank. The New LC Agreements replace the existing Letter of Credit Agreements, dated as of June 23, 2003, among the Company and the LC Subsidiaries named therein on the one hand and each of Citibank, N.A., Bank of America, N.A., HSBC Bank USA, National Association and JPMorgan Chase Bank on the other hand (as amended, the Existing LC Agreements), respectively. All letters of credit outstanding under the Existing LC Agreements are now deemed and will be treated as if issued under the New LC Agreements.

Unlike the Existing LC Agreements, the New LC Agreements are unsecured. However, the New LC Agreements contain financial and other covenants substantially similar to those included in our $750 million five-year unsecured revolving credit facility dated August 30, 2004, including, but not limited to, limitations on liens and subsidiary debt as well as the maintenance of two financial ratios a fixed charge coverage ratio and a leverage ratio. A violation of these covenants could result in a default under the New LC Agreements, which would permit the participating banks to terminate our ability to request letters of credit and require the immediate posting of cash collateral in support of any outstanding letters of credit. In addition, such a default could, under certain circumstances, permit the holders of our outstanding unsecured debt to accelerate payment of such obligations.

Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

Please see the discussion set forth in response to Item 1.01 above.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

Please see the discussion set forth in response to Item 1.01 above.
