BLOCKBUSTER INC. AND CEO ENTER INTO AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

Dallas, March 20, 2007 In an 8-K filed today with the Securities and Exchange Commission, Blockbuster Inc. (NYSE: BBI, BBI.B) announced that the Company and John Antioco, Blockbuster Chairman and CEO, have entered into an amended and restated employment agreement that sets forth terms under which Mr. Antioco will leave the company by the end of 2007.

I am pleased that we were able to reach this agreement, said John Antioco, Blockbuster Chairman and CEO. This revised employment agreement allows for management continuity and ample opportunity for an orderly succession by the end of the year. In the meantime, the board of directors, our management team and I remain focused on continuing to improve the business, most notably through BLOCKBUSTER Total Access .

John and the company have reached terms that are clearly in the best interests of the stockholders, said Carl C. Iahn, a member of the Blockbuster Board of Directors. I and the rest of the board remain committed to working with our dedicated management team to deliver on the company's financial goals for the year and to continue positioning Blockbuster for improved success now and into the future.

Under the amended and restated employment agreement, Antioco will receive a 2006 bonus of $3.0525 million, which reflects a compromise between the $2.28 million bonus previously conditionally offered by the board and $7.65 million, which is the amount Antioco was entitled to receive under his previous employment agreement and Blockbuster's 2006 Senior Bonus Plan if negative discretion was not invoked. Additionally, at the conclusion of his employment, Antioco will receive a lump sum payment of $4.9875 million as compared to a lump sum payment of $13.5 million that he would have been entitled to receive if he had been terminated without cause or had resigned for good reason on Dec. 31, 2007, under his previous employment agreement.

Details of the amended and restated employment agreement are included in the 8-K filing.

In addition, at a meeting of the Blockbuster board of directors on March 19, 2007, the board voted to recommend that Blockbuster's stockholders approve at its annual meeting an amendment to Blockbuster's certificate of incorporation to eliminate the classification of the board of directors and to provide for the annual election of all directors. The board believes that the de-classification of the board is consistent with best corporate governance practices.
