Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships With Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

Stockholders Agreement

The Stockholders Agreement requires a Reporting Person to offer the shares of Class B Common beneficially owned by such Reporting Person to all of the other Reporting Persons upon the occurrence of either of the following: (a) the proposed conversion of shares of Class B Common by such Reporting Person into shares of Class A Common and (b) the proposed sale, transfer or other disposition of Class B Common by such Reporting Person to any permitted transferee (under the terms of the Class B Common) who is not a signatory to the Stockholders Agreement. In either of these cases, the Reporting Person proposing to enter into one of these transactions must notify all of the other Reporting Persons and then must allow each such other Reporting Person the opportunity to purchase such Person's pro rata portion of the shares of Class B Common which are subject to the proposed transaction in accordance with the procedures described below. The Stockholders Agreement, however, does not restrict transfers of Class B Common among the Reporting Persons or any other permitted transferee who becomes a signatory to the Stockholders Agreement.

A Reporting Person proposing to engage in a transaction triggering a right of first refusal must first give written notice of the proposed transaction by registered mail to the Issuer, which acts as depository under the Stockholders Agreement. The depository, in turn, is required to send such notice promptly to all of the other Reporting Persons. Following receipt of such notice, each other Reporting Person will have seven (7) business days to elect whether or not to purchase his, her or its pro rata portion of the shares of the Class B Common which have triggered right of first refusal. A Reporting Person's pro rata portion will be determined by dividing the number of shares of Class B Common which such person owns by the number of shares of Class B Common which are owned by all of the other Reporting Persons who similarly may elect to purchase the shares of Class B Common which have triggered the right of first refusal. A notice electing to purchase a pro rata portion of the shares of Class B Common must be sent to the depository by the end of the seven (7) business day period. If the Reporting Persons electing to purchase do not elect to purchase all of the shares of Class B Common, then such Reporting Persons have an additional five (5) business days to agree among themselves how to allocate the shares not purchased. If they cannot reach any agreement, the allocation shall be pro rata. If there are still shares of Class B Common which are not purchased following such allocation, then the Issuer shall have an additional three (3) business days to decide whether or not to purchase the remaining shares. The Issuer, however, is under no obligation to purchase any such shares.

Following the completion of such procedures, the Reporting Person who has triggered the right of first refusal is free, for a period of thirty (30) business days, to convert the shares of Class B Common, if any, which remain, into shares of Class A Common. If the Reporting Person had originally proposed to transfer the shares, such Reporting Person would be free to transfer shares of Class A Common in accordance with the originally proposed transaction.

Reporting Persons who elect to exercise the right of first refusal and purchase shares of Class B Common may pay for such shares in cash, an equivalent number of shares of Class A Common, or in a combination of cash and shares of Class A Common. The purchase price to be paid is the higher of what is specified in the notice sent by the Reporting Person who has triggered the right of first refusal and the average of the last sales price of Class A Common on the New York Stock Exchange for the five (5) days prior to the date of such notice.

The Stockholders Agreement only restricts the conversion, or the sales or other disposition outside of the Stockholders Agreement, of shares of Class B Common held by each Reporting Person. The Stockholders Agreement does not restrict in any respect how a Reporting Person may vote the shares of Class B Common which are subject to the terms of the Stockholders Agreement.

Rankin Associates I, L.P.

Under the terms of the Partnership Agreement of Rankin I, dated as of March 27, 2002 (the Rankin I Partnership Agreement), filed as Exhibit 2 hereto and incorporated herein by reference, the general partners of Rankin I (the Rankin I General Partners) share the power to vote the NACCO Class B Common held by the partnership.
