Indenture

On February 19, 2014, Netflix, Inc. (the Company or Netflix) issued $400,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 5.750% Senior Notes due 2024 (the Notes), in a private placement to qualified institutional buyers in the United States, defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and outside the United States pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act (the Notes Offering) pursuant to an indenture, dated as of February 19, 2014 (the Indenture), between the Company and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as trustee.

The Notes mature on March 1, 2024, and bear interest at a rate of 5.750% per annum, payable semi-annually on March 1 and September 1 of each year, commencing on September 1, 2014.

At any time prior to maturity, Netflix may redeem any of the Notes at any time at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes redeemed, plus an applicable premium and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, the applicable redemption date.

If Netflix experiences specified change of control triggering events, Netflix must offer to repurchase the Notes at a repurchase price equal to 101% of the principal amount of the Notes repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the applicable repurchase date.

The Indenture contains covenants that, among other things, restrict the ability of Netflix and its restricted subsidiaries to:

create certain liens and enter into sale and lease-back transactions;

create, assume, incur or guarantee certain indebtedness without such restricted subsidiary guaranteeing the Notes on a pari passu basis; and consolidate or merge with, or convey, transfer or lease all or substantially all of Netflix and its subsidiaries assets, to another person.

These covenants are subject to a number of other limitations and exceptions set forth in the Indenture.

The Indenture provides for customary events of default, including, but not limited to, cross defaults to specified other debt of Netflix and its significant subsidiaries. In the case of an event of default arising from specified events of bankruptcy or insolvency, all outstanding Notes will become due and payable immediately without further action or notice. If any other event of default under the Indenture occurs or is continuing, the trustee or holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may declare all of the Notes to be due and payable immediately.

The description of the Notes and the Indenture contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Indenture, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 4.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
