Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Common Stock and Units Offerings

On November 25, 2014, Kindred Healthcare, Inc. (Kindred or the Company) completed its previously announced public offering and sale of 5,000,000 shares of its common stock, par value $0.25 per share (Common Stock), at a public offering price of $19.75 per share pursuant to an underwriting agreement, dated November 19, 2014 (the Common Stock Underwriting Agreement), among the Company and Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, as representatives of the several Underwriters named therein (the Common Stock Underwriters). Pursuant to the Common Stock Underwriting Agreement, Kindred granted the Common Stock Underwriters a 30-day over-allotment option to purchase up to an additional 750,000 shares of Common Stock.

In addition, on November 25, 2014, the Company completed its previously announced public offering and sale of 150,000 7.50% tangible equity units (the Units) at a public offering price of $1,000 per Unit, pursuant to an underwriting agreement, dated November 19, 2014 (the Units Underwriting Agreement), among the Company and Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, as representatives of the several Underwriters named therein (the Units Underwriters). Pursuant to the Units Underwriting Agreement, Kindred granted the Units Underwriters a 13-day over-allotment option to purchase up to an additional 22,500 Units.

The sale of Common Stock and the Units was made pursuant to the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-3 (Registration No. 333-196804), as amended, including the respective prospectus supplements each dated November 19, 2014 to the prospectus contained therein dated November 17, 2014, filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), pursuant to Rule 424(b)(5) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act).

The descriptions of the Common Stock Underwriting Agreement and the Units Underwriting Agreement do not purport to be complete, and are qualified in their entirety by the full text thereof, attached hereto as Exhibits 1.1 and 1.2, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

Units

Kindred issued the Units under a purchase contract agreement, dated as of November 25, 2014 (the Purchase Contract Agreement), between the Company and U.S. Bank National Association, as purchase contract agent and attorney-in-fact for holders of Purchase Contracts (as defined below). Kindred issued the Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock (as defined below) pursuant to the Certificate of Designations dated as of November 24, 2014 (the Certificate of Designations).

Each Unit has a stated amount of $1,000, and is comprised of (i) a prepaid stock purchase contract issued by the Company (a Purchase Contract) and (ii) one share of Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock, Series A of the Company (the Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock).

Each Unit may be separated into its constituent Purchase Contract and its constituent share of Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock on any business day during the period beginning on, and including, the business day immediately following the date of initial issuance of the Units to, but excluding, the third scheduled trading day immediately preceding (i) December 1, 2017, (ii) any early mandatory settlement date (as defined below) or (iii) any merger redemption settlement date (as defined in the Purchase Contract Agreement), and also excluding the business day immediately preceding any preferred stock installment payment date (as defined below), after the initial issuance date of the Units, and the separate components may be combined to create a Unit, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Contract Agreement.

Purchase Contracts

Unless earlier redeemed by the Company in connection with a merger termination redemption (as defined below) or settled earlier at the holder's option or the Company's option, each Purchase Contract will, subject to postponement in certain limited circumstances, automatically settle on December 1, 2017, and the Company will deliver not more than 50.6329 shares of Common Stock and not less than 43.0918 shares of Common Stock per Purchase Contract, subject to adjustment, based upon the applicable settlement rate, which will be determined through reference to the applicable market value of Common Stock as follows:

If the applicable market value is greater than $23.21 (the threshold appreciation price), a holder of a Purchase Contract will receive 43.0918 shares of Common Stock per Purchase Contract (the minimum settlement rate).

If the applicable market value is greater than or equal to $19.75 (the reference price) but less than or equal to the threshold appreciation price, a holder of a Purchase Contract will receive a number of shares of Common Stock (and any cash in lieu of fractional shares) per Purchase Contract equal to $1,000, divided by the applicable market value.

If the applicable market value is less than the reference price, the holder of a Purchase Contract will receive 50.6329 shares of Common Stock per Purchase Contract (the maximum settlement rate).

The applicable market value means the average of the daily volume-weighted average prices of Common Stock for the 20 consecutive trading days beginning on, and including, the 23rd scheduled trading day immediately preceding December 1, 2017. Each of the maximum settlement rate, the minimum settlement rate, the reference price and the threshold appreciation price is subject to adjustment as set forth in the Purchase Contract Agreement.

At any time prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the third scheduled trading day immediately preceding December 1, 2017, a holder of Purchase Contracts may elect early settlement of any or all of Purchase Contracts, in which case the Company will deliver a number of shares of Common Stock per Purchase Contract equal to the minimum settlement rate, which is subject to adjustment as set forth in the Purchase Contract Agreement. In addition, at any time prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the third scheduled trading day immediately preceding December 1, 2017, if a fundamental change (as defined in the Purchase Contract Agreement) occurs, holders of Purchase Contract may settle any or all of Purchase Contracts early. If a holder elects to settle its Purchase Contracts early in connection with such fundamental change, it will receive a number of shares of Common Stock based on the fundamental change early settlement rate as defined in, and in accordance with, the Purchase Contract Agreement. In either case, upon early settlement at a holder's election of a Purchase Contract that is a component of a Unit, the corresponding share of Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock will remain outstanding and beneficially owned by or registered in the name of, as the case may be, the holder who elected to settle the related Purchase Contract early.

The Company may elect to settle all, but not less than all, outstanding Purchase Contracts on or after May 1, 2015 at the early mandatory settlement rate (as defined below) upon a date fixed by the Company upon not less than five business days notice (the early mandatory settlement date). The early mandatory settlement rate will be the maximum settlement rate, unless the daily volume-weighted average prices of Common Stock for 20 or more trading days in a period of 30 consecutive trading days ending on, and including, the trading day immediately preceding a specified notice date exceeds 130% of the threshold appreciation price in effect on each such trading day, in which case the early mandatory settlement rate will be the minimum settlement rate. If the Company elect to settle all the Purchase Contracts early, holders will have the right to require the Company to redeem their shares of Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock on the terms set forth in the Certificate of Designations.

If the agreement and plan of merger for the acquisition of the Gentiva Health Services, Inc. (Gentiva) has been terminated, the Company may elect to redeem all, but not less than all, of the outstanding Purchase Contracts for the applicable redemption amount, as set forth in the Purchase Contract Agreement, by delivering notice within the five business days immediately following May 1, 2015 (the merger termination redemption). In that case, holders will have the right to require the Company to redeem their Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock on the terms set forth in the Certificate of Designations.

Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock

Each share of Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock has an initial liquidation preference of $201.58, is entitled to dividends, when, as and if declared by the Company's board of directors (or an authorized committee thereof), to the extent that the Company has funds lawfully available for such purpose with respect to any such payments in cash, at the rate of 7.25% per annum on the liquidation preference of the Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock, and has a final preferred stock installment payment date (as defined below) of December 1, 2017. On each quarterly preferred stock installment payment date, the Company will partially reduce the liquidation preference of the Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock (a Partial Redemption) until no liquidation preference remains. All shares of Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock will be fully redeemed on the last preferred stock installment payment date.

On each March 1, June 1, September 1 and December 1 of each year, commencing on March 1, 2015 (each, a preferred stock installment payment date), in each case, to the extent that the Company has funds lawfully available for such purpose with respect to any such payments in cash and, with respect to the dividend portion of such payment, such dividend is declared by the Company's board of directors (or an authorized committee thereof), the Company will make equal quarterly preferred stock installment payments of $18.75 per share of Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock (except for the March 1, 2015 preferred stock installment payment, which will be $20.00 per share), which in the aggregate per year will be equivalent to a 7.50% cash payment per year with respect to each $1,000 stated amount of Units. However, the Company may elect to deliver shares of Common Stock in lieu of all or any portion of such cash payments, as set forth in the Certificate of Designations. Each preferred stock installment payment will constitute a payment of dividends and a payment of consideration for a Partial Redemption, allocated as set forth on a schedule set forth in the Certificate of Designations.

Dividends on the Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock will be cumulative from the date of original issuance, and will accumulate at a rate of 7.25% per annum on the outstanding liquidation preference (after giving effect to any prior Partial Redemptions) of the Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock. Dividends will be payable when, as and if declared by the Company's board of directors (or an authorized committee thereof), to the extent that the Company has funds lawfully available for such purpose with respect to any such payments in cash, provided that any undeclared and unpaid dividends with respect to outstanding liquidation preference (after giving effect to any prior Partial Redemptions) will continue to accumulate. Dividends that are declared will be payable on the preferred stock installment payment dates as part of preferred stock installment payments to holders of record of the shares of Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock on the immediately preceding February 15, May 15, August 15 or November 15. Accumulations of dividends on shares of the Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock will not bear interest.

If the Company elects to settle all the Purchase Contracts early or a merger termination redemption occurs as described above, holders of Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock will have the right to require the Company to redeem their Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock for cash, shares of Common Stock or a combination thereof, at the Company's election, at the redemption price set forth in the Certificate of Designations.

General

The Company does not intend to apply to list the Units, the separate Purchase Contracts or the separate shares of Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock on any securities exchange or automated inter-dealer quotation system.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds of these offerings, combined with proceeds from additional financing transactions, to fund the previously announced acquisition of Gentiva. If for any reason the acquisition of Gentiva is not completed, the Company may use the net proceeds of these offerings to finance other potential acquisitions or for general corporate purposes, including paying down its existing indebtedness, or, in the case of the net proceeds of the Units offering, to redeem the Purchase Contracts and (if required) the Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock.

The Certificate of Designations (including the form of Mandatory Redeemable Preferred Stock) and the Purchase Contract Agreement (including the forms of Unit and Purchase Contract) are filed as Exhibits 3.1 and 4.1, respectively, to this report and are incorporated herein by reference. The descriptions of the Certificate of Designations, the Purchase Contract Agreement and the related instruments and transactions associated therewith do not purport to be complete, and are qualified in entirety by the full text of the agreements and instruments, each of which is attached hereto as an exhibit.
