Based upon feedback from stockholders as well as a review of competitive best practices, the Compensation Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Owens Corning (the "Company") has approved the following changes, to be implemented and made effective in 2015, to the Company's executive compensation program in order to further align executive pay and performance:

Introduction of a long term return on capital metric for performance share units awarded under the Company's long term incentive plans;

Reallocation of the mix of long term incentive compensation awarded to our named executive officers to consist of:

40% time based restricted stock;

35% performance share units based upon absolute return on capital performance over a three year period; and

25% performance share units based upon relative total shareholder return over a three year period;

Discontinuation of annual grants of stock options to our named executive officers; and Voluntary elimination of the tax gross-up provision from the Chief Executive Officer's employment agreement. The Company plans to provide enhanced disclosure regarding its executive compensation program, including further details on the above referenced changes, in its annual proxy statement for the year ending December 31, 2014.

The Board also plans to submit a management proposal for stockholder approval at the 2016 Annual Meeting to amend the Company's bylaws to adopt a majority voting standard for uncontested director elections concurrent with the full declassification of the Board in 2017.
