ITEM 7.01. REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE.

On December 18, 2014, American Airlines Group Inc.'s wholly owned subsidiary, American Airlines, Inc. (American), reached a joint collective bargaining agreement (the new agreement) with the Association of Professional Flight Attendants (APFA), the union that represents American's more than 24,000 flight attendants. The new agreement is based on the terms and conditions established on December 13, 2014 by an arbitration process undertaken pursuant to prior agreements between American and APFA and the wage scales included in the tentative joint collective bargaining agreement previously announced on September 19, 2014. The new agreement does not require ratification and is effective immediately with the wage increases being effective January 1, 2015.

The information in this Item 7.01 is being furnished and shall not be deemed to be filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section and shall not be deemed incorporated by reference into any registration statement or other document filed pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.
