Filing by: Horizon Pharma Public Limited Company

Subject Company: Depomed, Inc.

SEC File No. of Depomed, Inc.: 001-13111

Horizon Pharma plc (Horizon Pharma) has filed a definitive solicitation statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission and accompanying WHITE and BLUE proxy cards to be used to solicit requests that Depomed, Inc. call two related special meetings of shareholders.

This Schedule 14A filing consists of a press release which contains information regarding such special meetings.

Horizon Pharma issued the press release on September 28, 2015.

Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) Recommends Depomed Shareholders Provide Consent FOR the Two Special Meeting Requests

ISS Notes that Depomed's Recently Adopted Poison Pill and Unilateral Bylaw Amendments Materially Impact Shareholder Rights and Potentially Restrict Shareholders' Ability to Voice Their Opinions Regarding Future Acquisition Offers

Proposals to be Considered at the Special Meetings Would Include Removal and Replacement of Entire Depomed Board of Directors and Repeal of Depomed's Recently Adopted Bylaw Amendments

DUBLIN, IRELAND September 28, 2015 Horizon Pharma plc (NASDAQ: HZNP) (Horizon Pharma), a biopharmaceutical company focused on improving patients' lives by identifying, developing, acquiring and commercializing differentiated and accessible medicines that address unmet medical needs, today commented on Institutional Shareholder Services' (ISS) recommendation in support of Horizon Pharma's efforts to call two related special meetings of Depomed shareholders to remove and replace all of the current Depomed, Inc. (Depomed) directors and to repeal a series of recent amendments to Depomed's bylaws.

In a published report, ISS unequivocally recommended that shareholders of Depomed PROVIDE CONSENT FOR Horizon Pharma's solicitation for the calling of the special meetings, by submitting their WHITE and BLUE proxy cards to Horizon Pharma's proxy solicitor, MacKenzie Partners, Inc. In reaching its recommendation, ISS spoke with representatives of Horizon Pharma and Depomed and thoroughly analyzed both companies' respective filings and other publicly available materials.

ISS concluded that:

Given that the poison pill and unilateral bylaw amendments adopted by the Depomed board materially impact shareholder rights, shareholders should provide consent FOR the special meetings.

The new bylaws adopted by the board do not appear to strike an appropriate balance between the board's need for more time to evaluate hostile bids and shareholders' ability to voice their views on strategic and governance decisions.

In particular, ISS highlighted Depomed's unilateral bylaw amendments, questionable assertions and motives, noting that:

Depomed's special meeting timeframe appears overly protracted and clearly not optimal for shareholders seeking to exercise their legitimate right to call a special meeting.

[T]he Depomed board availed itself of almost every possible day allowable under the new bylaws beg[ging] the question of whether such a lengthy delay is necessary or whether shareholders could, in fact, make the right decision for themselves. This would appear to be especially true if, as the company asserts, its shareholders have shown little interest in the Horizon offer, making any additional delay irrelevant.

Prior to the amendments, the company's bylaws mirrored California corporate law and when ISS asked Depomed to provide specific examples of companies that have similar special meeting provisions, Depomed pointed to Cisco, when in fact Cisco's bylaws are silent in regard to exactly when the record date must be set, whereas Depomed's bylaws explicitly provide the board two additional months to do so.

Five to six months appears far too long for shareholders to have to wait to opine on potential transactions, much less to express discontent with or attempt to remediate unilateral actions by the board that may adversely impact shareholder rights.

The board's decision to deny Horizon the ability to amend its original solicitation potentially forced the company to bear the unnecessary costs of holding two special meetings a mere two weeks apart.

We are pleased that, despite Depomed's repeated efforts to stifle shareholders' ability to consider and vote on our proposals, ISS has affirmed that Depomed shareholders deserve the opportunity to have their voices heard and support the calling of the two related special meetings, said Timothy P. Walbert, chairman, president and chief executive officer of Horizon Pharma plc. With the strong support of ISS and other like-minded parties, we look forward to calling the special meetings so that the true owners of Depomed are empowered to protect their best interests at a time when the current Depomed directors and management have obviously lost sight of their fiduciary roles.

As expected, ISS did not at this juncture take a position on how shareholders should vote at the special meetings.

As previously noted in an open letter to Depomed shareholders, filed by Horizon Pharma on September 25, 2015 with the Securities and Exchange Commission, Horizon Pharma has established September 30, 2015 as an informal target date for Depomed shareholders to submit proxy cards and/or voting instruction forms for the calling of special meetings to remove and replace the current Depomed board and amend the Depomed bylaws. September 30, 2015 is an informal target date as Depomed shareholders will be able to submit proxies/voting instruction forms and/or revoke proxies/voting instruction forms until Horizon Pharma submits special meeting requests to Depomed and exercises the proxies it receives to do so.

Horizon Pharma's solicitation statement for calling the two related special meetings and the letter to Depomed shareholders from Horizon Pharma describing the reasons Depomed shareholders should support the solicitation to call the special meetings, along with the documents related to Horizon Pharma's exchange offer for all of the outstanding shares of Depomed common stock, are viewable at: www.HorizonAndDepomed.com, a website that Horizon Pharma launched to provide details and other relevant information regarding its proposals for the special meetings and its proposed acquisition of Depomed via the exchange offer.

Special Note Regarding Litigation

As described in the Exchange Offer Documents and the Special Meetings Solicitation Statement, Horizon Pharma is currently challenging Depomed's bylaw-mandated process for calling a special meeting of shareholders as contrary to California law in a judicial proceeding seeking to protect Depomed shareholders' franchise rights. With that judicial challenge pending, the Special Meetings Solicitation Statement and accompanying WHITE and BLUE proxy cards that have been distributed to Depomed shareholders reflect Horizon Pharma's good faith effort to nevertheless comply with what we believe is an onerous process for calling a special meeting of shareholders imposed by the Depomed board of directors. The Superior Court of the State of California, County of Santa Clara, where our judicial challenge is pending, has calendared for November 5, 2015 a hearing on a preliminary injunction motion by a subsidiary of Horizon Pharma to enjoin, among other things, the enforcement of Depomed's bylaws that mandate what we believe to be the onerous process for calling a special meeting of shareholders. On that same date, the Court is also scheduled to hold a hearing on a preliminary injunction motion by Depomed for its claims against Horizon Pharma and its subsidiary.
