Item 4.02 (a) Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review.

Blockbuster Inc. (the Company) has been engaged in discussions over the past few months with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) with respect to its accounting practices surrounding its rental library and rental library activities. The Company has historically classified rental library purchases as an investing cash outflow in its Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows and rental library assets as a non-current asset in its Consolidated Balance Sheets. As a result of these discussions, the Company has determined that rental library purchases should be classified as an operating cash outflow in its Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows and that rental library assets should be classified as a current asset in its Consolidated Balance Sheet. The adjustments do not affect the Company's reported revenues, net income, total assets, shareholders' equity, total cash flows, current cash or liquidity position. The adjustments also do not affect the Company's compliance with the financial covenants under its debt facilities.

Also as a result of these discussions and adjustments, on March 8, 2006, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of management, concluded that the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 and for each of the first three quarters of 2005 and 2004 should no longer be relied upon because of the aforementioned presentation and classification errors in those financial statements. The Audit Committee also concluded that these consolidated financial statements should be restated to reflect these presentation changes.

The restated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 will be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, which the Company expects to file with the SEC on or before March 16, 2006. A description of the planned restatements, and a summary presentation of their financial effect, is presented below.

As a result of these matters, management is currently evaluating the impact of this restatement on the Company's internal control over financial reporting and will appropriately disclose its conclusion in Item 9A of the Company's 2005 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

The Audit Committee and management have discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Company's independent registered public accountants, the matters disclosed in this Current Report on Form 8-K.
