- 2) Amendment to article 4 of the Company's Bylaws as a result of the share conversion exercised by a minority shareholder of class "B" preferred shares; and

Shareholder's Participation

Shareholders may participate in person or by a duly appointed attorney-in-fact, with the detailed guidelines regarding the documentation required for representation being set forth in the Call Notice and in the Company's Management Proposal, both made available under the applicable legislation and regulation, and in item 12.2 of the Company's Reference Form. Forwarding of Documentation

With the purpose of expediting the works of the General Meeting, the required documents in the items above, which allow for the participation or representation of the Shareholder in General Meetings, are requested to be forwarded with at least 72 hours prior to the date scheduled for the General Meeting, to:

The Company shall not accept powers of attorney granted by Shareholders through electronic means.

Vote obstructions

Pursuant to the Joint-Stock Companies Law (n° 6.404/1976), a shareholder may not vote on resolutions of the general meeting related to the appraisal report of assets which he contributed to form the company's capital stock and to the approval of his management accounts, or on any other resolutions which may specifically benefit him or in which he and the company have conflicting interests.

If any of the attending shareholders claims an alleged conflict of interests of a shareholder, which prevents him from voting in the meeting, or, in another legal event of vote obstruction (including, as the case may be, separated voting for the election of a Board of Directors or Fiscal Council member), and if the shareholder himself has not declared his obstruction, the chairman or the secretary of the general meeting shall suspend the resolution to listen to and receive such allegation, together with any counterclaims of such shareholder, before voting on the matter. The chairman of the meeting himself may, if he verifies a vote obstruction, request a clarification on the situation from the shareholder before voting the matter.

In line with the understanding of the CVM, in situations in which the vote obstruction is unequivocal and the shareholder does not abstain from voting, the chairman of the meeting has the power to declare such obstruction, and he is not allowed to obstruct the vote in other situations, without prejudice to the legal provisions on the possible annulment of the vote cast.
