On December 15, 2010, George H. Glatfelter II tendered his resignation as Chairman and as a member of the Board of Directors of P. H. Glatfelter Company (the "Company"). As previously reported, Mr. Glatfelter is retiring as Chief Executive Officer of the Company on December 31, 2010 and the Company's Governance Principles require that a director who retires from his principal position of employment tender his resignation. Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On December 15, 2010, the Board of Directors of the Company adopted an amendment to the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws. The amendment increases the mandatory retirement age from 72 years of age to 75 years of age. Pursuant to this amendment, when the term of any director extends beyond the date when the director reaches 75 years of age, such director must resign from the Board of Directors effective at the annual meeting of shareholders next following his 75th birthday. The Board has the discretion to determine not to accept the director's resignation on a case-by-case basis, if the director's continued service is in the best interest of the Company.
