Item 4. Description of Securities

Not Applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel

Not Applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Division 5 of Part 5 of the Business Corporations Act of British Columbia (the "BCBCA") consists of Sections 159 through 165. Section 160 provides that a corporation may: (i) indemnify an eligible party (these consist of the corporation's or an affiliate of the corporation's directors, officers, former directors and former officers and their respective heirs and personal or other legal representatives) against judgments, penalties or fines awarded or imposed in, or an amount paid in settlement of an eligible proceeding (consisting of any proceeding in which any eligible party is or may be joined as a party or may be liable in the proceeding by reason of being or having been a director or officer, or the equivalent of a director or officer, of the corporation or an associated corporation); and/or (ii) pay the expenses of an eligible party reasonably incurred by that party in respect of such an eligible proceeding after its final disposition. Section 161 provides that a British Columbia corporation must pay the expenses incurred by an eligible party in respect of an eligible proceeding if the eligible party has not been reimbursed for those expenses and is ultimately successful in defending any such proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Section 163 prohibits a British Columbia corporation from granting such an indemnity to an eligible party if:

- (a) at the time the agreement to give indemnity was made the corporation was prohibited from agreeing to grant it by its memorandum or articles;
- (b) at the time the indemnity or payment is made the corporation is prohibited from giving the indemnity or paying the expenses by its memorandum or articles;
- (c) if, in relation to the subject matter of the proceeding, the eligible party did not act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the corporation or the associated corporation; or
- (d) in the case of an eligible proceeding other than a civil proceeding, the eligible party did not have reasonable grounds for believing his or her conduct in respect of which the proceeding was brought was lawful.

Section 164 of the BCBCA provides that, regardless of whether the payment of expenses or an indemnity is otherwise sought, authorized or declined under Division 5 of Part 5 of the BCBCA, a court, on the application of a corporation or an eligible party, may:

- (a) order a corporation to indemnify an eligible party against any liability incurred in respect of an eligible proceeding;
- (b) order a corporation to pay some or all of the expenses incurred by an eligible party in respect of an eligible proceeding;
- (c) order the enforcement of, or a payment under, an agreement of indemnity entered into by a corporation;
- (d) order payment of some or all expenses incurred by any eligible person in obtaining a court order under Section 164 of the BCBCA; or
- (e) make any other order that the court deems appropriate.

In accordance with the BCBCA, the Articles of the Registrant provide that to the extent the Registrant is not so prohibited under the BCBCA, the Registrant must indemnify each eligible party (consisting under the Articles of current and former directors, alternate directors, officers, and each of their respective heirs and representatives), against all judgements, penalties or fines awarded or imposed in, or an amount paid in settlement of, an eligible proceeding to which each eligible party may be liable, and the Registrant must, after the final disposition of an eligible proceeding pay the expenses actually and reasonably incurred by each eligible party in respect of that proceeding. The failure of an eligible party of the Registrant to comply with the provisions of the BCBCA or the Registrant's Articles does not invalidate any indemnity to which he or she is entitled.

Unless prohibited by applicable law or court order, the Registrant must pay, as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of an eligible proceeding, the expenses actually and reasonably incurred by an eligible party in respect of the eligible proceeding provided that the Registrant will not make such payments unless the Registrant first receives from the eligible party a written undertaking that, if it is ultimately determined that the payment of expenses is prohibited by applicable law, the eligible party must repay the amounts advanced.

The Registrant maintains a policy of directors' and officers' liability insurance that insures directors and officers for losses as a result of claims against the directors and officers of the Registrant under the indemnity provisions under the Articles and the BCBCA.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act") may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
