Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Effective February 8, 2013, Del Toro Silver Corp. (the "Company") entered into a letter agreement with Moody Capital Solutions, Inc. in connection with the proposed joint venture agreement for the Natchez Pass gold mine. The initial term of the letter agreement is 60 days from February 8, 2013, the date of execution, in which Moody Capital shall make best efforts to raise a minimum of $500,000. The second term is at Company's sole discretion and runs for 60 days in which Moody Capital shall make best efforts to raise the remaining $500,000. No disbursements shall be made to the Company until $500,000 has been raised.

Moody Capital will assist in the creation of the entire joint venture offering, assist the Company in structuring a joint venture agreement, identify, contact and evaluate potential joint venture partners.

Compensation to Moody Capital under the letter agreement will include the following:

- (a) a 5% net smelter return ("NSR") in kind or in cash, at Moody Capital's election, for raising and disbursing a minimum of $500,000 to the Company. The NSR shall terminate upon termination of the joint venture agreement and be recorded against claims until all sums due under the letter agreement have been repaid;
- (b) a 5% commission to Moody Capital upon closing of an asset sale brought by Moody Capital;
- (c) a 5% termination fee on a minimum $500,000 in raised funds in the event of an asset sale by another broker after the mine is in production, which fee is payable upon closing of such asset sale; return of 100% of disbursed investor funds (minimum raised $500,000) plus a 10% joint venture agreement termination fee in the event of an asset sale through another broker after mine is in production, which fee is payable upon closing of such an asset sale.
