On October 30, 2014, Palo Duro Wind Portfolio, LLC, an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of NextEra Energy US Partners Holdings, LLC (the Palo Duro purchaser), entered into a purchase and sale agreement (the Palo Duro purchase and sale agreement) with Palo Duro Wind Holdings SellCo, LLC (the seller), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of NextEra Energy Resources, LLC (NEER), which is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of NextEra Energy, Inc. NextEra Energy US Partners Holdings, LLC is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of NextEra Energy Partners, LP (NEP). Pursuant to the terms of the Palo Duro purchase and sale agreement, the Palo Duro purchaser agreed to acquire at closing (the Palo Duro closing) 100% of the membership interests of Palo Duro Wind Project Holdings, LLC, which immediately prior to the Palo Duro closing will own 100% of the Class A membership interests in Palo Duro Wind Energy, LLC, a project company that owns the development rights and facilities under construction of an approximately 250 megawatt wind energy generating facility located in Hansford and Ochiltree Counties, Texas (the transaction), for approximately $227 million, subject to customary working capital and other adjustments. As a condition to the Palo Duro closing, one or more tax equity investors are expected to make certain upfront capital contributions and acquire 100% of the Class B membership interests in Palo Duro Wind Energy, LLC. As Class B members, the tax equity investors will make ongoing deferred contingent capital contributions based on the production and sale of electricity that generates production tax credits under Section 45 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Immediately following the Palo Duro closing, Palo Duro Wind Project Holdings, LLC will hold 100% of the Class A membership interests in Palo Duro Wind Energy, LLC, and the tax equity investors will hold 100% of the Class B membership interests in Palo Duro Wind Energy, LLC.

The Palo Duro purchase and sale agreement contains customary representations and warranties and covenants by the parties. The Palo Duro purchaser and the seller are obligated, subject to certain limitations, to indemnify the other for certain customary and other specified matters, including breaches of representations and warranties, nonfulfillment or breaches of covenants and for certain liabilities and third-party claims. The transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, consummation of the tax equity financing and the receipt of certain regulatory approvals. The Palo Duro purchaser expects the transaction to close in January 2015, and intends to fund the purchase price through a combination of cash on hand and draws by NextEra Energy US Partners Holdings, LLC on the existing revolving credit facility.
