Quad City Bancard, Inc. has a wholly owned subsidiary, Allied Merchant Services, which generates merchant credit card processing business. We also own all of the common stock of QCR Holdings Capital Trust I, a Delaware business trust. We created this business trust to issue trust preferred securities to the public. When we refer to our subsidiaries in this proxy statement, we are collectively referring to Quad City Bank & Trust, Cedar Rapids Bank & Trust, Quad City Bancard, Allied and the business trust.

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the board of directors of QCR Holdings of proxies to be voted at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held at The Lodge (formerly Jumer's Castle Lodge), 900

Edgar Filing: QCR HOLDINGS INC - Form DEF 14A

Spruce Hills Drive, Bettendorf, Iowa, on October 23, 2002, at 10:00 a.m., local time, and at any adjournments or postponements of the meeting. Our 2002 annual report, which includes consolidated financial statements of QCR Holdings and our subsidiaries, is also enclosed.

The following is information regarding the meeting and the voting process, and is presented in a question and answer format.

Why am I receiving this proxy statement and proxy card?

You are receiving a proxy statement and proxy card from us because on September 4, 2002, you owned shares of QCR Holdings' common stock. This proxy statement describes the matters that will be presented for consideration by the stockholders at the annual meeting. It also gives you information concerning the matters to assist you in making an informed decision.

When you sign the enclosed proxy card, you appoint the proxy holder as your representative at the meeting. The proxy holder will vote your shares as you have instructed in the proxy card, thereby ensuring that your shares will be voted whether or not you attend the meeting. Even if you plan to attend the meeting, you should complete, sign and return your proxy card in advance of the meeting just in case your plans change.

If you have signed and returned the proxy card and an issue comes up for a vote at the meeting that is not identified on the card, the proxy holder will vote your shares, pursuant to your proxy, in accordance with his or her judgment.

What matters will be voted on at the meeting?

You are being asked to vote on the election of three Class III directors, to approve the QCR Holdings, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan and on to approve two amendments to the certificate of incorporation. These matters are more fully described in this proxy statement.

How do I vote?

You may vote either by mail or in person at the meeting. To vote by mail, complete and sign the enclosed proxy card and mail it in the enclosed pre-addressed envelope. No postage is required if mailed in the United States. If you mark your proxy card to indicate how you want your shares voted, your shares will be voted as you instruct.

If you sign and return your proxy card but do not mark the card to provide voting instructions, the shares represented by your proxy card will be voted "for" all nominees named in this proxy statement, "for" the approval of the QCR Holdings, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan and "for" each of the proposed amendments to the certificate of incorporation.

If you want to vote in person, please come to the meeting. We will distribute written ballots to anyone who wants to vote at the meeting. Please note, however, that if your shares are held in the name of your broker (or in what is usually referred to as "street name"), you will need to arrange to obtain a legal proxy from your broker in order to vote in person at the meeting. Even if you plan to attend the meeting, you should complete, sign and return your proxy card in advance of the meeting just in case your plans change.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

It means that you have multiple holdings reflected in our stock transfer records and/or in accounts with stockbrokers. Please sign and return ALL proxy forms to ensure that all your shares are voted. If you received more than one proxy card but only one copy of the proxy statement and annual report, you may request additional copies from us at any time.

If I hold shares in the name of a broker, who votes my shares?

If you received this proxy statement from your broker, your broker should have given you instructions for directing how your broker should vote your shares. It will then be your broker's responsibility to vote your shares for you in the manner you direct.

Under the rules of various national and regional securities exchanges, brokers may generally vote on routine matters, such as the election of directors and the ratification of independent auditors, but cannot vote on non-routine matters, such as an amendment to the certificate of incorporation, unless they have received voting instructions from the person for whom they are holding shares. If your broker does not receive instructions from you on how to vote particular shares on such non-routine matters and your broker does not have discretionary authority to vote on these matters, the broker will return the proxy card to us, indicating that he or she does not have the authority to vote on these matters. This is generally referred to as a "broker non-vote" and will affect the outcome of the voting as described below, under "How many votes are needed for approval of each proposal?" Therefore, we encourage you to provide directions to your broker as to how you want your shares voted on the matters to be brought before the meeting. You should do this by carefully following the instructions your broker gives you concerning its procedures. This ensures that your shares will be voted at the meeting.

What if I change my mind after I return my proxy?

If you hold your shares in your own name, you may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the polls close at the meeting. You may do this by:

- o signing another proxy with a later date and returning that proxy to us;
- o sending notice to us that you are revoking your proxy; or
- o voting in person at the meeting.

If you hold your shares in the name of your broker and desire to revoke your proxy, you will need to contact your broker to revoke your proxy.

How many votes do we need to hold the annual meeting?

A majority of the shares that are outstanding and entitled to vote as of the record date must be present in person or by proxy at the meeting in order to hold the meeting and conduct business.

Shares are counted as present at the meeting if the stockholder either:

- o is present and votes in person at the meeting; or
- o has properly submitted a signed proxy card or other proxy.

On September 4, 2002, the record date, there were 2,749,672 shares of common stock outstanding. Therefore, at least 1,374,837 shares need to be present at the annual meeting in order to hold the meeting and conduct business.

What happens if a nominee is unable to stand for re-election?

The board may, by resolution, provide for a lesser number of directors or designate a substitute nominee. In the latter case, shares represented by proxies may be voted for a substitute nominee. Proxies cannot be voted for more than the number of nominees presented for election at the meeting. The board has no reason to believe any nominee will be unable to stand for re-election.

What options do I have in voting on each of the proposals?

You may vote "for" or "withhold authority to vote for" each nominee for director. You may vote "for," "against" or "abstain" on any other proposal that may properly be brought before the meeting. Abstentions will be considered in determining the presence of a quorum but will not affect the vote required for the election of directors and are votes against the proposed amendments to the certificate of incorporation.

How many votes may I cast?

Generally, you are entitled to cast one vote for each share of stock you owned on the record date. The proxy card included with this proxy statement indicates the number of shares owned by an account attributable to you.

How many votes are needed for each proposal?

The three individuals receiving the highest number of votes cast "for" their election will be elected as directors of QCR Holdings. Broker non-votes and abstentions will not be counted as entitled to vote, but will count for purposes of determining whether or not a quorum is present on the matter.

All other proposals must receive the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote. Broker non-votes and abstentions will not be counted as entitled to vote, but will count for purposes of determining whether or not a quorum is present on the matter.

Where do I find the voting results of the meeting?

We will announce voting results at the meeting. The voting results will also be disclosed in a future filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Who bears the cost of soliciting proxies?

We will bear the cost of soliciting proxies. In addition to solicitations by mail, officers, directors or employees of QCR Holdings or our subsidiaries may solicit proxies in person or by telephone. These persons will not receive any special or additional compensation for soliciting proxies. We may reimburse brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding proxy and solicitation materials to stockholders.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Our directors are divided into three classes having staggered terms of three years. Stockholders will be entitled to elect three (3) Class III directors for a term expiring in 2005. The board has nominated Patrick S. Baird, John K. Lawson and Ronald G. Peterson to serve as Class III directors.

Other than as described above, we have no knowledge that the nominees will refuse or be unable to serve, but if any of the nominees becomes unavailable for election, the holders of the proxies reserve the right to substitute another person of their choice as a nominee when voting at the meeting. Set forth below is information concerning the nominees for election and for each of the other persons whose terms of office will continue after the meeting, including age, year first elected a director and business experience during the previous five years. The nominees, if elected at the annual meeting of stockholders, will serve as Class III directors for a three year term expiring in 2005. Edgar Filing: QCR HOLDINGS INC - Form DEF 14A for attendance at each meeting of the board of directors. In addition, non-employee directors receive fees of $200 per committee meeting attended. All directors of Quad City Bank & Trust received quarterly fees of $1,000 in September and December 2001 and $1,250 in March and June 2002. APPROVE EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN

In August 2002, our board of directors adopted the QCR Holdings, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan, subject to stockholder approval. There are 100,000 shares of our common stock reserved for issuance under the Purchase Plan, subject to adjustment as set forth in the Purchase Plan and described below. Currently, there are approximately 2.8 million shares outstanding. We have attached a copy of the Purchase Plan to this proxy statement as Exhibit A.

The Purchase Plan provides a means for our employees to authorize payroll deductions on a voluntary basis to be used for the periodic purchase of our common stock. All employees participating in the Purchase Plan will have equal rights and privileges. We believe that the Purchase Plan will encourage broader stock ownership by our employees and thereby provide an incentive for employees to contribute to our success. We have relied on our stock option plans in the past to increase our employees' stock ownership. We have issued most of the options available under these plans, and we do not intend to issue any additional broad based options in the near future. We intend that the Purchase Plan will offer a convenient means for employees who might not otherwise purchase and hold our common stock to do so and that the discounted purchase price feature of the Purchase Plan provides a meaningful inducement to participate. We further believe that employees' continuing economic interest, as stockholders, in our performance and success will enhance our entrepreneurial spirit, which we believe will greatly contribute to our long-term success.

Purpose

The purpose of the Purchase Plan is to provide a means by which our employees and each subsidiary may be given an opportunity to purchase shares of our common stock, to assist us in retaining the services of our employees, to secure and retain the services of new employees and to provide incentives for such persons to exert maximum efforts for our success. Substantially all of our approximately 210 employees are eligible to participate in the Purchase Plan. The rights to purchase common stock granted under the Purchase Plan are intended to qualify as options issued under an "employee stock purchase plan" as that term is defined in Section 423(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code.

Administration

The board administers the Purchase Plan and has the final power to construe and interpret both the Purchase Plan and the rights granted under it. The board has the power, subject to the provisions of the Purchase Plan, to determine when and how rights to purchase common stock will be granted and the provisions of each offering of such rights, which need not be identical. The board has the power to delegate administration of the Purchase Plan to a committee composed solely of not fewer than two non-employee members of the board. The board may revoke the authority of the committee at any time and reconstitute the board the administration of the Purchase Plan. As used herein with respect to the Purchase Plan, the board refers to any committee the board appoints and to the board.

Edgar Filing: QCR HOLDINGS INC - Form DEF 14A

Stock Subject to Purchase Plan

We have initially reserved an aggregate of 100,000 shares of common stock for issuance under the Purchase Plan. The number of shares available under the Purchase Plan will be subject to adjustment as described below in the paragraph entitled "Adjustment Provisions." If rights granted under the Purchase Plan expire, lapse or otherwise terminate without being exercised, the shares of common stock not purchased under such rights will again become available for issuance under the Purchase Plan.

Offerings

The Purchase Plan is implemented by offerings of rights to all eligible employees from time to time by the board. If approved by stockholders, the first offering under the Purchase Plan will begin on January 1, 2003 and will end on June 30, 2003. After June 30, 2003, offerings are planned to begin each January 1st and July 1st. The provisions of separate offerings need not be identical, but each offering will conform to the Purchase Plan.

Eligibility

Any person who is employed by QCR Holdings or a subsidiary on the first day of an offering may participate in that offering. However, no employee is eligible to participate in the Purchase Plan if, immediately after the grant of purchase rights, the employee would own, directly or indirectly, stock possessing 5% or more of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of stock of QCR Holdings or of any subsidiary of QCR Holdings, including any stock which such employee may purchase under all outstanding rights and options.

Participation in the Plan

All eligible employees are considered to be participants in each offering under the Purchase Plan. For a participant to purchase shares during an offering, the participant must deliver an agreement authorizing payroll deductions of up to the maximum set by the board of directors (which maximum shall be no greater than 15%) of such employees' total compensation during the purchase period.

Purchase Price

The purchase price per share at which shares of stock are sold in an offering under the Purchase Plan will be determined by the board of directors and will be not less than the lesser of 85% of the fair market value of a share of our common stock on the offering date or the purchase date.

Payment of Purchase Price; Payroll Deductions

The purchase price of the shares is accumulated by payroll deductions over the period of the offering. At any time during the offering, a participant may terminate his or her payroll deductions. However, a participant may reduce or increase his or her participation percentage only once each calendar quarter during any offering. Any decrease or increase in a participant's payroll deductions will take effect as of the beginning of the next payroll period in that offering. All payroll deductions made for a participant are credited to his or her account under the Purchase Plan and deposited with our general funds. A participant may not make additional payments into such account unless specifically provided for in the offering and only if the participant has not had the maximum amount withheld during the purchase period.

Purchase of Stock

By authorizing payroll deductions during the period, the employee is entitled to purchase shares under the Purchase Plan. In connection with offerings made under the Purchase Plan, the board specifies a maximum number of shares a participant may be granted the right to purchase, the maximum number of shares each participant may purchase and the maximum aggregate number of shares that may be purchased pursuant to such offering by all participants. If the aggregate number of shares to be purchased upon exercise of rights granted in the offering will exceed the maximum aggregate number of shares available, the committee will make a pro rata allocation of available shares in a uniform and equitable manner. Currently, no participant may purchase more than 500 shares of common stock during any calendar year. In addition, no employee may purchase more than $25,000 worth of such stock, determined at the fair market value of the shares at the time such rights are granted, under all of our employee stock purchase plans in any calendar year.

Withdrawal

Each participant may withdraw from a given offering by delivering to us a notice of withdrawal from the Purchase Plan. Such withdrawal may be elected at any time prior to the end of the applicable purchase period, except as provided by the board of directors in the offering. Upon any withdrawal, we will distribute to the employee his or her accumulated payroll deductions without interest. The employee is not entitled to again participate in that offering. However, an employee's withdrawal from an offering will not have any effect upon such employee's ability to participate in other offerings under the Purchase Plan, but such employee will be required to deliver a new payroll deduction authorization in order to participate in other offerings under the Purchase Plan.

Termination of Employment

Rights granted pursuant to any offering under the Purchase Plan terminate immediately upon cessation of an employee's employment with QCR Holdings and any of our subsidiaries for any reason, and we will distribute to such employee all of his or her accumulated payroll deductions, without interest.

Restrictions on Transfer

Rights granted under the Purchase Plan are not transferable and may be exercised only by the person to whom such rights are granted. Employees will not be permitted to sell or transfer common stock purchased pursuant to the Purchase Plan during the one year period immediately following the date of purchase.

Adjustment Provisions

Each January 1st beginning January 1, 2004 and ending on January 1, 2012, the number of shares of our common stock reserved for issuance under the Purchase Plan shall be automatically increased in an amount equal to the least of: (a) one percent (1%) of the shares of common stock outstanding on each January 1 (calculated on a fully diluted basis assuming the exercise of all outstanding Purchase Rights, stock options and warrants to purchase shares of common stock); (b) five hundred thousand (500,000) shares of common stock; or (c) such number of shares of common stock as determined by the board, provided that such number shall be less than (a) and (b). In addition, if any change is made in the shares of our common stock subject to the Purchase Plan, or subject to any rights granted under the Purchase Plan, without receipt of consideration by QCR Holdings, through merger, consolidation, reorganization, recapitalization, stock dividend, dividend in property other than cash, stock split, liquidating dividend, combination of shares, exchange of shares, change in corporate structure or other transaction not involving the receipt of consideration by QCR

Edgar Filing: QCR HOLDINGS INC - Form DEF 14A

Holdings, the Purchase Plan and outstanding rights will be appropriately adjusted in the types, classes and maximum number of shares subject to the Purchase Plan and the types, classes and number of shares and price per share of stock subject to outstanding rights.

Duration, Amendment and Termination

The board may suspend or terminate the Purchase Plan at any time. Unless terminated earlier, the Purchase Plan will automatically terminate on the date on which the shares available under the Purchase Plan, as adjusted from time to time, are exhausted. No rights may be granted under this Purchase Plan while it is suspended or after it is terminated. The board may amend the Purchase Plan at any time. To the extent determined necessary and desirable by the board, amendments to the Purchase Plan will be submitted to the stockholders for approval. Rights granted before amendment or termination of the Purchase Plan will not be altered or impaired by any amendment or termination of the Purchase Plan without consent of the employee to whom such rights were granted, except as necessary to comply with any laws or government regulations or as otherwise specifically provided in the Purchase Plan.

Federal Income Tax Information

Rights granted under the Purchase Plan are intended to qualify for favorable federal income tax treatment associated with rights granted under an employee stock purchase plan which qualifies under provisions of Section 423 of the Code. A participant will be taxed on amounts withheld for the purchase of shares of common stock as if such amounts were actually received. Other than this, no income will be taxable to a participant until disposition of the acquired shares, and the method of taxation will depend upon the holding period of the acquired shares.

If the stock is sold by the participant more than two years after the beginning of the offering period and more than one year after the stock is transferred to the participant, then the lesser of (a) the excess of the fair market value of our common stock at the time of such sale over the purchase price or (b) the excess of the fair market value of the stock as of the beginning of the offering period over the purchase price, determined as of the beginning of the offering period will be treated as ordinary income. Any further gain or any loss will be taxed as a long-term capital gain or loss. At present, such capital gains generally are subject to lower tax rates than ordinary income.

If the stock is sold by the participant for more than its fair market value on the purchase date and such sale is before the expiration of either of the holding periods described above, then the excess of the fair market value of the common stock on the purchase date over the purchase price will be treated as ordinary income at the time of such sale. The balance of any gain will be treated as capital gain. If the stock is sold by the participant for less than its fair market value on the purchase date, the same amount of ordinary income is recognized by the participant, and a capital loss is recognized by the participant equal to the difference between the fair market value of the common stock on such purchase date and the sales price. Any capital gain or loss will be short-term or long-term, depending on how long the stock has been held. There are no federal income tax consequences to QCR Holdings by reason of the grant or exercise of purchase rights under the Purchase Plan. We are entitled to a deduction to the extent amounts are taxed as ordinary income to a participant, subject to the requirement of reasonableness and the satisfaction of tax reporting obligations.

Stockholder Vote Necessary For Approval

Edgar Filing: QCR HOLDINGS INC - Form DEF 14A

To be approved by our stockholders, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the meeting must vote for the Purchase Plan. Abstentions will be counted toward the tabulation of votes cast on proposals presented to the stockholders and will have the same effect as negative votes. Broker non-votes are counted towards a quorum, but are not counted for any purpose in determining whether this matter has been approved. We believe that the adoption of the Purchase Plan is in the best interests of our stockholders and recommend that you vote your shares FOR the Purchase Plan.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION INCREASING THE RANGE OF THE NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

General

The board of directors has approved an amendment to Article XII of our certificate of incorporation that would change the range of the number of directors from three to nine to three to twelve. The board of directors believes that the proposed amendment is in the best interests of QCR Holdings and its stockholders. Unless instructed to the contrary, the persons acting as proxies under the proxy solicited hereby will vote in favor of the adoption of the amendment.

Proposed Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation

If this amendment is approved by the stockholders, the certificate of incorporation will be amended by replacing the first sentence of Article XII with the following:

"The number of directors constituting the entire board of directors shall not be less than three nor more than twelve as fixed from time to time by resolution of not less than 80% of the number of directors which immediately prior to such proposed change had been fixed, in the manner prescribed herein, by the board of directors of the corporation, provided, however, that the number of directors shall not be reduced as to shorten the term of any director at the time in office, and provided further, that the number of directors constituting the entire board of directors shall be five until otherwise fixed as described immediately above. "

Reasons for the Proposed Amendment

We currently have nine directors. In the opinion of our management, the increase in the range will allow for the election of additional directors who could provide additional business experience and/or knowledge of and contacts in QCR Holdings' market areas, all of which would be expected to enhance our growth.

Stockholder Vote Necessary For Approval of the Amendment

To be approved by stockholders, the amendment must receive the affirmative vote of the majority of the outstanding shares of common stock. We believe that the adoption of the amendment is in the best interests of our stockholders and recommend that you vote your shares FOR the amendment.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION REGARDING CONSIDERATION OF NON-STOCKHOLDER INTERESTS

Our board of directors has approved, and recommends to our stockholders for their approval and adoption, an amendment to the certificate of incorporation that permits our board of directors to consider non-stockholder factors when considering a change of control proposal.

Our board of directors believes that this proposed amendment is in the best interests of QCR Holdings and its stockholders. Unless instructed to the contrary, all shares represented by proxy cards signed and returned to us will be voted in favor of the adoption of this amendment.

Proposed Amendment to Certificate of Incorporation

If this amendment is approved by our stockholders, the certificate of incorporation will be amended by adding a new Article to read in its entirety as follows:

"In connection with the exercise of its judgment in determining what is in the best interests of the Corporation and its stockholders when evaluating a proposal by another person or persons to make a tender or exchange offer for any equity security of the Corporation or any subsidiary, to merge or consolidate with the Corporation or any subsidiary or to purchase or otherwise acquire all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation or any subsidiary, the board of directors of the Corporation may consider all of the following factors and any other factors which it deems relevant: (A) the adequacy of the amount to be paid in connection with any such transaction; (B) the social and economic effects of the transaction on the Corporation and its subsidiaries and the other elements of the communities in which the Corporation or its subsidiaries operate or are located; (C) the business and financial condition and earnings prospects of the acquiring person or persons, including, but not limited to, debt service and other existing or likely financial obligations of the acquiring person or persons, and the possible effect of such conditions upon the Corporation and its subsidiaries and the other elements of the communities in which the Corporation and its subsidiaries operate or are located; (D) the competence, experience, and integrity of the acquiring person or persons and its or their management; and (E) any antitrust or other legal or regulatory issues which may be raised by any such transaction."

Reasons for the Proposed Amendment

This proposed amendment grants to our board of directors the express authority to consider the interest of constituencies other than our stockholders when considering transactions such as a tender or exchange offer or a proposal for the merger of QCR Holdings or the sale of all, or substantially all, of our assets. This amendment would provide that in discharging the duties of their respective positions, directors and officers would be allowed to consider the effects of any action upon employees, customers and creditors of QCR Holdings and communities where we do business, and other societal issues, as well as the long and short term interests of QCR Holdings and our stockholders.

This provision is permissive, not mandatory, and could be used to justify defensive tactics to resist hostile takeovers. It may provide some protection against stockholders who claim that only considerations of price are appropriate, and could provide a signal to potential acquirors as to what will be considered in evaluating their bid. Subject to our directors' fiduciary duties to our stockholders, this amendment may also have the effect under unusual circumstances of allowing our board of directors to reject an offer at a price above market price causing our stockholders to forego an immediate profit.

Stockholder Vote Necessary For Approval of the Amendment

Edgar Filing: QCR HOLDINGS INC - Form DEF 14A

To be approved by our stockholders, this amendment must receive the affirmative vote of the majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock. Our board of directors believes that the adoption of this amendment is in the best interests of our stockholders and recommends that you vote your shares FOR this amendment.

Employment Agreements. We entered into employment agreements with Messrs. Bauer and Hultquist dated July 1, 2000. These agreements each have a three year term and in the absence of notice from either party to the contrary, the employment term under each agreement extends for an additional one year on the anniversary of each agreement. Pursuant to these agreements, beginning on July 1, 2000 Messrs. Bauer and Hultquist will each receive minimum salaries of $170,000. The agreements include provisions for the increase of compensation on an annual basis, performance bonuses, membership in a Quad Cities country club, an automobile allowance and participation in our benefit plans. Messrs. Bauer and Hultquist have also entered into deferred compensation agreements, allowing each to defer up to $15,000 of their salary. The deferred compensation agreements provide for us to match the amounts deferred by each and contribute an amount for the benefit of Messrs. Bauer and Hultquist. In the case of Mr. Hultquist, the amount we may contribute is limited to $15,000, and for Mr. Bauer we may contribute up to $20,000. Full benefits under the agreements will be payable to Messrs. Bauer and Hultquist when they reach 65 years of age.

We have also entered into employment agreements with Todd A. Gipple and Larry J. Helling. Mr. Gipple's employment agreement, dated January 5, 2000, provides that Mr. Gipple is to receive a minimum salary of $110,000. The agreement includes a provision for the increase in compensation on an annual basis, performance bonuses, membership in a Quad Cities country club and participation in our benefit plans. Mr. Gipple entered into a deferred compensation agreement with us on January 1, 2002 under which he may defer up to $10,000 ($5,000 in the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002) of his salary and we will match the amount deferred by him. Mr. Helling entered into an employment agreement dated April 11, 2001. Under the agreement, Mr. Helling receives a base annual salary of $160,000 and is eligible to participate in a deferred compensation agreement under which he may defer up to $12,000 of his salary and we will match the amount deferred by him. The agreement also includes a provision for the increase in compensation on an annual basis, performance bonuses, membership in two Cedar Rapids country clubs, an automobile allowance and participation in our benefit plans.

All of the employment agreements are terminable at any time by either our board of directors or the respective officer. We may terminate these agreements at any time for cause without incurring any post-termination obligation to the terminated officer. Each agreement provides severance benefits in the event the officer is terminated without cause, including severance compensation equal to one year of the officer's salary for Messrs. Bauer and Hultquist, and six months for Messrs. Helling and Gipple. We must also pay the officer all accrued salary, vested deferred compensation and other benefits then due the officer. If the officer is terminated upon a change in control, the officer is to be paid severance compensation equal to three times his salary for Messrs. Bauer and Hultquist, and two times salary for Messrs. Helling and Gipple, at the rate then in effect at the time of termination. Each of Messrs. Hultquist and Bauer is prohibited from competing with us or our subsidiaries within a 20-mile radius of the main office for a period of two years following the termination of his employment agreement. In the case of Mr. Helling, the radius is 60 miles from the center of Cedar Rapids and the term is two years. In the case of Mr. Gipple, the radius is 30 miles from the main office and the term is two years.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During the last fiscal year, the compensation and benefits committee consisted of Messrs. Bauer, Hultquist, Helling, Lawson, Christofferson and Harris and Ms. Bawden. Messrs. Bauer, Hultquist and Helling are executive officers and do not participate in any decisions involving their own compensation. They do, however, participate in evaluating and establishing the salaries of other executive officers.

Board Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The incorporation by reference of this proxy statement into any document filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by QCR Holdings shall not be deemed to include the following report unless the report is specifically stated to be incorporated by reference into such document.

The compensation and benefits committee of our board of directors is comprised of four directors of QCR Holdings, one director of Cedar Rapids Bank & Trust and two directors of Quad City Bank & Trust. The committee is responsible for recommendations to the board of directors for compensation of executive officers of our subsidiaries and QCR Holdings. In determining compensation, the following factors are generally taken into consideration:

Edgar Filing: QCR HOLDINGS INC - Form DEF 14A

- o the performance of the executive officers in achieving our short and long term goals;
- o payment of compensation commensurate with the ability and expertise of the executive officers; and
- o an attempt to structure compensation packages so that they are competitive with similar companies.

The committee considers the foregoing factors, as well as others, in determining compensation. There is no assigned weight given to any of these factors.

Additionally, the compensation committee considers various benefits, such as our 401(k) plan and the stock option plan, together with perquisites in determining compensation. The committee believes that the benefits provided through the stock based plans more closely tie the compensation of the officers to the interests of the stockholders and provide significant additional performance incentives for the officers which directly benefit the stockholders through an increase in the stock value.

Annually, the compensation committee evaluates four primary areas of performance in determining the chief executive officer's level of compensation. These areas are:

- o our long-range strategic planning and implementation;
- o our financial performance;
- o our compliance with regulatory requirements and relations with regulatory agencies; and
- o the individual's effectiveness of managing relationships with stockholders and the board of directors.

When evaluating our financial performance to determine the compensation package for our chief executive officer, the committee considered profitability, asset growth and risk management. The primary evaluation criteria are considered to be essential to our long-term viability and were given equal weight in the evaluation. Finally, the committee considered the provisions of the chief executive officer's current employment agreement and reviewed compensation packages of peer institutions, as well as compensation surveys provided by independent third parties, to ensure that the chief executive officer's compensation is competitive and commensurate with his level of performance. Based on the evaluation of all of these factors, the committee determined that the chief executive officer's primary compensation would be the minimum salary provided under his employment agreement and a bonus of $85,000.

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act requires that our executive officers and directors and persons who own more than 10% of our common stock file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission and with the exchange on which our shares of common stock are traded. Such persons are also required to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on our review of the copies of such forms, we are not aware that any of its directors, executive officers or 10% stockholders failed to comply with the filing requirements of Section 16(a) during the last fiscal year.

TRANSACTIONS WITH MANAGEMENT

Our directors and officers and their associates were customers of and had transactions with QCR Holdings, Quad City Bank & Trust and Cedar Rapids Bank & Trust during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002. Additional transactions are expected to take place in the future. All outstanding loans, commitments to loan, and certificates of deposit and depository relationships, in the opinion of management, were made in the ordinary course of business, on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons and did not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features. From July 1, 2001 through June 30, 2002, Quad City Bancard paid approximately $2,008,303 to Nobel Electronic Transfer, LLC, for merchant credit card processing services. John W. Schricker, a director of QCR Holdings and the President and a director of Quad City Bancard, is a principal of Nobel. Our management believes that the terms on which the above described transaction was conducted are no less favorable to us than would have been obtained from an unaffiliated third party.
