Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On June 17, 2014, the stockholders of Freeport-McMoRan Copper & Gold Inc. (the Company) approved the Freeport-McMoRan Copper & Gold Inc. Annual Incentive Plan (the AIP), which will replace the current annual incentive plan for fiscal years 2014 through 2018. The AIP was previously approved by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the Compensation Committee) on February 27, 2014 and the structure of the Company's new annual incentive program was described in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on March 3, 2014.

The purpose of the AIP is to provide annual cash incentive award opportunities for the Company's senior executives based on the achievement of pre-established performance goals. The AIP, which will be administered by the Compensation Committee, will be used in fiscal years 2014 through 2018, unless terminated earlier by the Compensation Committee or the Board of Directors. Any officer may be designated by the Compensation Committee as a participant in the AIP for any year in which the AIP is in place.

Under the AIP, participants will earn annual cash awards based on the Company's performance relative to defined goals established by the Compensation Committee each year. No later than 90 days after the beginning of a plan year, the Compensation Committee must establish the performance goals applicable for the plan year and determine each participant's target award. If the minimum performance goals established by the Compensation Committee are not achieved, then no payment will be made under the AIP, and the Compensation Committee has the right to reduce or eliminate a participant's award even if the applicable performance goals are achieved. The AIP provides that no participant may receive an annual award exceeding $5 million for a given year. The AIP was presented to the Company's stockholders for approval in order to protect the Company's tax deductions under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code for amounts paid under the AIP.

As previously disclosed, our five executive officers are participants in the AIP for 2014. A more detailed description of the terms of the AIP, including the potential payments to our executive officers, can be found in the Company's definitive proxy statement for its 2014 annual meeting of stockholders, which was filed with the SEC on April 29, 2014, in the section of the proxy statement entitled, "Proposal No. 4: Approval of the Freeport-McMoRan Copper & Gold Inc. Annual Incentive Plan," and is incorporated by reference herein. The foregoing summary and the summary incorporated by reference from the proxy statement are in their entirety by the full text of the AIP, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1.

Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

The Company held its 2014 annual meeting of stockholders on June 17, 2014 in Wilmington, Delaware. At the annual meeting, the Company's stockholders (1) elected each of the sixteen director nominees listed below to serve as a director of the Company for a term that will continue until the next annual meeting of stockholders, (2) approved, on an advisory basis, the compensation of the Company's named executive officers, (3) ratified the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the 2014 fiscal year, (4) approved the Freeport-McMoRan Copper & Gold Inc. Annual Incentive Plan, and (5) failed to approve a stockholder proposal regarding the selection of a candidate with environmental expertise to be recommended for election to the Company's board of directors.

Of the 1,038,713,778 shares of the Company's common stock outstanding as of the record date, 860,382,397 shares were represented at the annual meeting. The Company's independent inspector of elections reported the vote of stockholders as follows:
