Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Asset Purchase Agreement

On May 2, 2012, Albany International Corp., a Delaware corporation (“Albany” or the “Company”) entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the “Agreement”) with PrimaLoft Holding Company, LLC (the “Parent”) and PrimaLoft, Inc. (the “Buyer”) for the sale of the Company’s global PrimaLoft® Products business. The following description of the Agreement does not purport to be a complete description and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement, a copy of which is filed herewith.

Under the terms of the Agreement, the Buyer will acquire all of the PrimaLoft® Products business assets, which are located in the United States, Italy and Germany.

Under the Agreement, Albany will receive a purchase price of $37,950,000, subject to post-closing adjustments based on working capital. The transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, including, among others (i) the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting periods or receipt of any required antitrust clearances under applicable laws; (ii) the absence of any law or order prohibiting the transaction; (iii) the accuracy of the parties’ representations and warranties, subject to customary materiality limits and (iv) the performance by each of the parties of covenants under the Agreement in all material respects.

Albany and the Buyer have made customary representations and warranties, and covenants in the Agreement, which will generally survive for a period of 18 months following Closing. The covenants require, among other things, that (i) Albany conduct the PrimaLoft® Products business in the ordinary course in all material respects consistent with past practice during the interim period between the execution of the Agreement and the closing of the transaction and not engage in certain kinds of transactions or take certain actions during such interim period, and (ii) Albany, subject to certain limitations, use reasonable best efforts, with the cooperation of Buyer, to obtain any required approvals or consents. The parties have rights to indemnification for breaches of representations and warranties, subject to customary caps and deductibles, and for non-performance of their respective covenants.

The Agreement contains customary termination rights for both the Company and the Buyer. These include, subject to certain conditions, termination by (i) mutual consent of Albany and the Buyer; (ii) either party if the transaction has not closed by July 31, 2012, subject to certain limited exceptions, which such date may be extended by the Buyer for up to 180 days under certain circumstances; and (iii) either party if the other party has breached or failed to perform in any material respects any of its representations or covenants, as a result of which a condition to such non-breaching party’s obligation to complete the transaction will not be met, and the breach or failure is not or cannot be cured within 30 days.

The Agreement has been summarized to provide security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Albany or the PrimaLoft® Products business. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Agreement were made solely for purposes of such agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Agreement, may be subject to qualifications and limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to security holders. Security holders are not third-party beneficiaries under the Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Albany or its subsidiaries or the PrimaLoft® Products business. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Albany’s public disclosures.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

The Company issued a news release on May 2, 2012 announcing its agreement to sell its global PrimaLoft® Products business to the Buyer for $37,950,000, subject to contractual closing adjustments. The news release is attached hereto.
