Dear Fellow Shareholder:

I believe that from the moment that management learned of my ownership in PBIP, a prime focus of theirs has been to scheme to award themselves multi-million dollar stock options and grants by silencing the public shareholders and denying us a meaningful vote. They're afraid that if we decide, we'd vote down their lucrative package -- unless they earned it by, for example, pursuing an intelligent capital allocation plan. Let's look at the insiders' shenanigans:

Ø In June 2005, within days after I informed them of my ownership, the Company's Washington D.C. lawyer secretly lobbied the FDIC to allow the insiders to silence the public shareholders and approve their own package.

Ø

A few weeks later, the FDIC gave the Company a green-light but the Company deliberately concealed the existence of this letter for nine months. The FDIC told the Company they would have to wait until March 30, 2006. So they waited.

Ø The directors delayed the vote in order to intentionally deprive the public shareholders of having a meaningful vote on their package. But they could hardly wait!

Ø Just 7 days after the deadline, the Company announced a special meeting for May 2006 where the public shareholders would be automatically outvoted by the director/management controlled MHC. But they jumped the gun!

Edgar Filing: PRUDENTIAL BANCORP INC OF PENNSYLVANIA - Form DFAN14A

- Ø After we alerted the Federal Reserve that the Company was planning to fund the plans without their approval (management was in a big rush to get their options), the Company was forced to apply for permission from the Federal Reserve. Their beltway lawyers lobbied long and hard so that the insiders could get their big payday without public shareholder input.

- Ø Just days after the September 2006 Federal Reserve approval came through, the insiders announced that their MHC would be fully entitled to outvote the public shareholders at any meeting called on the plans.

We then immediately started a federal lawsuit to stop them from silencing the public shareholders and grabbing their big payday. The Company responded by hiring a 650 lawyer national law firm to help them get restricted stock and stock options without a democratic vote.

I only wish that the insiders would put the same amount of attention and time into understanding capital allocation as they've devoted, and continue to devote, to feathering their own nests.

If you agree that the actions of the insiders have been deplorable, WITHHOLD your vote from the election of directors, which is Proposal 1 on the enclosed proxy card, by marking the box WITHHOLD. If you receive a card from the Company, THROW IT IN THE GARBAGE.

If you've already returned the Company's card, you can still change your vote and vote for our slate by returning the GREEN card to us.

Thank you for your time and support.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joseph Stilwell
