Press Release

CVRD and Antofagasta Announce Joint Venture

Rio de Janeiro, July 19, 2002 - Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD), the largest diversified mining company of the Americas, and Antofagasta Plc (Antofagasta), one of the largest Chilean copper producers, formed a joint venture called Cordillera de las Minas S.A (Cordillera), incorporated to develop mineral exploration activities near Cuzco in southern Peru. The mentioned area, considered promising, has approximately 60 thousand square kilometers. Other important mining investments are located there. This joint venture is originated from the Memorandum of Understanding signed between CVRD and Antofagasta,

Edgar Filing: VALLEY OF THE RIO DOCE CO - Form 6-K

publicly announced on June 6, 2002.

According to corporate documents signed on July 18, 2002, (i) Anaconda Peru S.A. (Anaconda), Antofagasta's subsidiary, transferred mining rights to Cordillera, retaining a total participation of 99.9%; (ii) CVRD established a company, called Compania Minera Andino-Brasileira (CMAB), which holds a participation of 0.1% in Cordillera; (iii) CVRD/CMAB has the option to acquire a 50% stake in Cordillera, after having invested US$ 6,700,000.00 during a period of three years, in mineral exploration at Cordillera.

The Investment Agreement celebrated between CVRD, CMAB, Antofagasta, Anaconda and Cordillera, allows the participation, influence and rights of CVRD/CMAB in Cordillera management, specially with respect to the investments to be made and in the exercise of the option agreed.

This transaction is a strategic movement for CVRD, in line with the internationalization of its activities, and reaffirms the Company's emphasis on copper mining, following the recent acquisitions of the total capital of Mineracao Serra do Sossego S.A and Salobo Metais S.A., and the beginning of the Sossego project construction, in Carajas, Para.

This press release may contain statements that express management's expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates. For additional information on factors that could cause CVRD's actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see CVRD's reports filed with the Brazilian Comissao de Valores Mobiliarios and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
