Restrictions on Dividends and Retirement and Issue of Shares

So long as any of the Series 17 Shares are outstanding, the Company will not, without the approval of the holders of the Series 17 Shares:

- (a) declare, pay or set apart for payment any dividends (other than stock dividends payable in shares of the Company ranking as to capital and dividends junior to the Series 17 Shares) on shares of the Company ranking as to dividends junior to the Series 17 Shares;
- (b) except out of the net cash proceeds of a substantially concurrent issue of shares of the Company ranking as to return of capital and dividends junior to the Series 17 Shares, redeem or call for redemption, purchase or otherwise pay off, retire or make any return of capital in respect of any shares of the Company ranking as to capital junior to the Series 17 Shares;
- (c) except pursuant to any purchase obligation, sinking fund, retraction privilege or mandatory redemption provisions attaching thereto, redeem or call for redemption, purchase or otherwise pay off, retire or make any return of capital in respect of any Class A Preference Shares, ranking as to the payment of dividends or return of capital on a parity with the Series 17 Shares; or
- (d) issue any additional Series 17 Shares or any shares ranking as to the payment of dividends or the return of capital prior to or on a parity with the Series 17 Shares;

unless, in each such case, all accrued and unpaid dividends up to and including the dividend payable for the last completed period for which dividends were payable on the Series 17 Shares and on all other shares of the Company ranking prior to or on a parity with the Series 17 Shares with respect to the payment of dividends have been declared and paid or set apart for payment.

Shareholder Approvals

In addition to any other approvals required by law, the approval of all amendments to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Series 17 Shares as a series and any other approval to be given by the holders of the Series 17 Shares may be given by a resolution carried by an affirmative vote of at least 66 2/3% of the votes cast at a meeting at which the holders of a majority of the outstanding Series 17 Shares are present or represented by proxy or, if no quorum is present at such meeting, at an adjourned meeting at which the holders of Series 17 Shares then present would form the necessary quorum. At any meeting of holders of Series 17 Shares as a series, each such holder shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each Series 17 Share held.

Voting Rights

The holders of the Series 17 Shares will not (except as otherwise provided by law and except for meetings of the holders of Class A Preference Shares as a class and meetings of all holders of Series 17 Shares as a series) be entitled to receive notice of, attend, or vote at, any meeting of shareholders of the Company unless and until the Company shall have failed to pay eight quarterly dividends on the Series 17 Shares, whether or not consecutive and whether or not such dividends have been declared and whether or not there are any monies of the Company properly applicable to the payment of dividends. In the event of such non-payment, and for only so long as any such dividends remain in arrears, the holders of the Series 17 Shares will be entitled to receive notice of and to attend each meeting of the Company's shareholders (other than any meetings at which only holders of another specified class or series are entitled to vote), and to one vote for each Series 17 Share held, provided that in respect of the election of directors, the holders of Series 17 Shares will vote with holders of Class A Shares and, in certain circumstances, with the holders of certain other series of the Class A Preference Shares in the election of one-half of the board of directors (less the number of directors which the holders of the Class A Preference Shares, Series 2 may be entitled to elect if dividends on such shares are in arrears). Upon payment of the entire amount of all Series 17 Share dividends in arrears, the voting rights of the holders of the Series 17 Shares shall forthwith cease.

The Company's articles provide that each holder of shares entitled to vote in an election of directors has the right to cast a number of votes equal to the number of votes attached to the shares held by the holder of shares multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. The holder of shares may cast all such votes in favour of the candidate or distribute them among the candidates in any manner the holder of shares sees fit. Where the holder of shares has voted for more than one candidate without specifying the distribution of votes among such candidates, the holder of shares shall be deemed to have divided his votes equally among the candidates for whom the holder of shares voted.

Subject to applicable law and in addition to any other required shareholder approvals, the Company's articles also require that all matters to be approved by shareholders (other than the election of directors) must be approved separately by the holders of the Company's Class A Shares and by the holders of the Company's Class B Limited Voting Shares.

Tax on Dividends

The Company will elect, in the manner and within the time provided under Part VI.1 of the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the Tax Act), to pay or cause payment of the tax, under Part VI.1 at a rate such that the corporate holders of Series 17 Shares will not be required to pay tax under Part IV.1 of the Tax Act on dividends received on such shares.

BOOK ENTRY ONLY SYSTEM

Registration of interests in and transfers of the Series 17 Shares will be made only through a book entry only system administered by CDS. On or about November 20, 2006, the expected closing date of the Offering, but no later than November 27, 2006, the Company will deliver to CDS certificates evidencing the aggregate number of Series 17 Shares subscribed for under this Offering. Series 17 Shares must be purchased, transferred and surrendered for conversion or redemption through a participant in CDS (a CDS Participant). All rights of an owner of Series 17 Shares must be exercised through, and all payments or other property to which such owner is entitled will be made or delivered by, CDS or the CDS Participant through which the owner holds Series 17 Shares. Upon purchase of any Series 17 Shares, the owner will receive only the customary confirmation. References in this Prospectus Supplement to a holder of or Series 17 Shares means, unless the context otherwise requires, the owner of the beneficial interest in such shares.

The ability of a beneficial owner of Series 17 Shares to pledge the Series 17 Share or otherwise take action with respect to such owner's interest in such shares (other than through a CDS Participant) may be limited due to the lack of a physical certificate.

The Company has the option to terminate registration of the Series 17 Shares through the book entry only system in which case certificates for Series 17 Shares in fully registered form will be issued to beneficial owners of such shares or their nominees.

This summary does not take into account the mark-to-market rules applicable to a financial institution within the meaning of section 142.2 of the Tax Act and such financial institutions are advised to consult with their own tax advisors.

This summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any particular purchaser. Accordingly, prospective purchasers should consult their own tax advisors with respect to their particular circumstances.

This summary is based upon the current provisions of the Tax Act, the regulations thereunder (the Regulations), all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act and the Regulations publicly announced by the Minister of Finance prior to the date hereof and counsel's understanding of the current published administrative and assessing policies and practices of the Canada Revenue Agency (the CRA). This summary does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any change in law, whether by legislative, governmental or judicial action, nor does it take into account or consider any provincial, territorial or foreign income tax legislation or considerations.

Dividends

Dividends (including deemed dividends) received on the Series 17 Shares by an individual will be included in the individual's income and generally will be subject to the gross-up and dividend tax credit rules normally applicable to taxable dividends received from taxable Canadian corporations. Draft legislation released by the Minister of Finance (Canada) on June 29, 2006 proposes to enhance such gross-up and dividend tax credit for eligible dividends received after 2005 from taxable Canadian corporations. Eligible dividends will generally include dividends paid after 2005 by taxable Canadian corporations, which dividends have been designated as eligible dividends by the dividend-paying corporations.

Dividends (including deemed dividends) received on the Series 17 Shares by a corporation will be included in computing the corporation's income and will generally be deductible in computing the taxable income of the corporation.

The Series 17 Shares are taxable preferred shares as defined in the Tax Act. The terms of the Series 17 Shares require the Company to make the necessary election under Part VI.1 of the Tax Act so that corporate Holders will not be subject to tax under Part IV.1 of the Tax Act on dividends received (or deemed to be received) on the Series 17 Shares.

A private corporation, as defined in the Tax Act, or any other corporation controlled by or for the benefit of an individual (other than a trust) or a related group of individuals (other than trusts), will generally be liable to pay refundable tax under Part IV of the Tax Act of 33 1/3% on dividends received (or deemed to be received) on the Series 17 Shares to the extent such dividends are deductible in computing its taxable income.

Dispositions

A Holder who disposes of or is deemed to dispose of Series 17 Shares (either on redemption or otherwise) will generally realize a capital gain (or sustain a capital loss) to the extent that the proceeds of disposition, net of any reasonable costs of disposition, exceed (or are less than) the adjusted cost base of such shares to such Holder. The amount of any deemed dividend arising on the redemption or acquisition by the Company of Series 17 Shares will not generally be included in computing the proceeds of disposition to a Holder for purposes of computing the capital gain or capital loss arising on the disposition of the Series 17 Shares. If the Holder is a corporation, any capital loss arising on the disposition of a Series 17 Share may in certain circumstances be reduced by the amount of any dividends, including deemed dividends, which have been received on the Series 17 Share. Analogous rules apply to a partnership or trust of which a corporation, trust or partnership is a member or beneficiary.

One-half of any capital gain will be included in computing the Holder's income as a taxable capital gain. One-half of any capital loss may be deducted from the Holder's taxable capital gains in accordance with the rules contained in the Tax Act. Capital gains realized by an individual may give rise to minimum tax under the Tax Act.

Taxable capital gains of a Canadian-controlled private corporation may be subject to an additional refundable tax of 6 2/3% on such taxable capital gains.

Redemption

If the Company redeems or otherwise acquires Series 17 Shares, other than by a purchase in the open market in the manner in which shares are normally purchased by a member of the public in the open market, the Holder will be deemed to have received a dividend equal to the amount, if any, paid by the Company in excess of the paid-up capital (as determined for purposes of the Tax Act) of such shares at such time. Generally, the difference between the amount paid by the Company and the amount of the deemed dividend will be treated as proceeds of disposition for the purposes of computing the capital gain or capital loss arising on the disposition of such shares. In the case of a corporate shareholder, it is possible that in certain circumstances all or part of the deemed dividend may be treated as proceeds of disposition and not a dividend.

Conversion

The conversion of the Series 17 Shares of a Holder into Class A Shares at the option of the Company will be deemed not to constitute a disposition of such Series 17 Shares and will not give rise to a capital gain or capital loss. The cost to the Holder of the Class A Shares issued on such conversion will, subject to averaging rules contained in the Tax Act, be the adjusted cost base to such Holder of such Series 17 Shares immediately before such conversion.

Pursuant to counsel's understanding of the CRA's current administrative practice, a Holder of Series 17 Shares who receives cash not exceeding $200 in lieu of a fractional share will have the option of recognizing the capital gain or capital loss arising on the disposition of the fractional share in computing the Holder's income for the taxation year in which the conversion occurs or, alternatively, of reducing the adjusted cost base of the Class A Shares received at the time of the conversion by the amount of cash received by the Holder.
