On March 17, 2003, the Registrant announced that it had discovered apparent discrepancies relating to previously reported financial information for the Registrant's fiscal years ended January 31, 2001 and 2002 and the first two quarters of its fiscal year ended January 31, 2003. The Registrant further announced that it was continuing to review those and other matters. On May 22, 2003, the Registrant announced that it had substantially completed its review of the discrepancies in its previously reported financial information concerning inventory accounting and revenue recognition and the resulting overstatements of its inventory and revenue for its fiscal years ended January 31, 2001 and 2002 and the first three quarters of its fiscal year ended January 31, 2003. As reported on May 22, 2003, in confirming the overstatement of revenue of approximately $0.8 million and overstatement of inventory of approximately $2.2 million announced on March 17, 2003, the Registrant also identified as of May 22, 2003, approximately $3.2 million of additional changes that should be made to its financial statements. Additionally, on June 3, 2003, the Registrant announced that it had received notice of a formal order of non-public investigation from the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the accounting issues reported by the Registrant in its March 17 and May 22, 2003 press releases. The Registrant is continuing to work toward resolving the issues in its previously reported financial statements.

As a result of the foregoing, the Registrant has been unable to complete and file its annual report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended January 31, 2003, which was required to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by May 1, 2003, and the Registrant is unable to complete and file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended April 30, 2003, which was required to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by June 16, 2003, without unreasonable expense. The Registrant intends to file such annual report on Form 10-K and such quarterly report on Form 10-Q as soon as reasonably practicable.

The statements above regarding matters which may require adjustment, the Registrant's review of discrepancies in its previously reported financial information and other matters, adjustments to financial information, and the filing of the Registrant's annual report on Form 10-K and quarterly report on Form 10-Q are forward looking within the meaning of the securities laws and regulations. Such forward looking statements involve a number of risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results to differ materially.

The Registrant is unable to provide a reasonable estimate of the anticipated change in results of operations from the fiscal quarter ended April 30, 2002 for the reasons enumerated below.

As stated in Part III above and as previously announced, the Registrant has discovered overstatements in its previously reported results of operations, and the Registrant is continuing to work toward resolving such issues. Among the overstatements that the Registrant has identified are overstatements in the previously reported results of operations for the fiscal quarter ended April 30, 2002. Furthermore, as a result of such discoveries and the subsequent and continuing examination of its financial statements, the Registrant's audit for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2003 and the related financial statements have not been completed, nor have the financial statements for the quarter ended April 30, 2003, which are dependent upon the January 31, 2003 financial statements.
