QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q. WHY AM I RECEIVING THIS PROSPECTUS?

A. On May 21, 2004, Lucent Technologies Inc. and Telica, Inc. entered into a merger agreement under which Telica will merge with a newly formed subsidiary of Lucent and thereby become a wholly owned subsidiary of Lucent. The merger has received all requisite corporate approvals of Telica's board and stockholders, and is expected to be completed on August 19, 2004. Telica stockholders will be entitled to become stockholders of Lucent, unless they properly exercise their appraisal rights. As a Telica stockholder, you have appraisal rights in connection with the merger, which means that you may seek appraisal of the fair value of your shares of Telica stock by complying with all of the Delaware law procedures explained in this prospectus, including Annex A. The information in this prospectus is being provided to you to assist you in determining whether to exercise your appraisal rights in connection with the merger. You should carefully read and consider the information included in this prospectus before making a decision.

Q. WHAT WILL TELICA STOCKHOLDERS BE ENTITLED TO RECEIVE PURSUANT TO THE MERGER?

A. Upon completion of the merger, Telica stockholders, and, upon the exercise of options to purchase Telica common stock, holders of options to purchase Telica common stock, will be entitled to receive an aggregate of up to 92,747,629 shares of Lucent common stock. The number of shares of Lucent common stock that a Telica stockholder will be entitled to receive depends on the class or series of Telica stock held by the stockholder and the number of shares held. Each Telica stockholder will be entitled to receive cash for any fractional share of Lucent common stock the stockholder would otherwise receive pursuant to the merger. All Telica stockholders will have 10% of the Lucent common stock they would otherwise be entitled to receive deposited in an escrow account that will be used to compensate Lucent if Lucent is entitled to indemnification under the merger agreement.

Q. WHAT IS THE ESCROW ACCOUNT AND HOW DOES IT WORK?

A. Upon completion of the merger, Lucent will deposit into an escrow account 10% of the Lucent common stock to be issued to each of the Telica stockholders in connection with the merger. These escrowed shares will be available to compensate Lucent if it is entitled to indemnification under the merger agreement. Any escrowed shares that, 18 months following the completion of the merger, have not been used to indemnify Lucent and that are not the subject of an unresolved claim for indemnification by Lucent, will be distributed to the Telica stockholders.

Q. WILL TELICA STOCKHOLDERS BE ABLE TO TRADE THE LUCENT COMMON STOCK THAT THEY RECEIVE PURSUANT TO THE MERGER AGREEMENT?

A. Yes. Lucent common stock is listed for trading on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "LU." All shares of Lucent common stock that you receive pursuant to the merger will be freely transferable unless you are deemed an affiliate of Telica or your Lucent common stock is subject to contractual transfer restrictions. If you are an affiliate of Telica, you will be required to comply with the applicable restrictions of Rule 145 under the Securities Act in order to resell the Lucent common stock you receive pursuant to the merger. Shares held in escrow will only become transferable when and if they are released from the escrow under the terms of the escrow agreement.

Q. WHEN IS THE MERGER EXPECTED TO BE COMPLETED?

A. We expect that the merger will be completed on August 19, 2004. The completion of the merger is subject to closing conditions and the receipt of approvals described in the merger agreement.

Q. WHAT DO TELICA STOCKHOLDERS NEED TO DO NOW?

A. Telica stockholders who elect to exercise their appraisal rights must comply with all of the Delaware law procedures by the applicable deadlines explained in this prospectus, including Annex A. Please do not send us your stock certificates at this time. Telica stockholders who choose not to exercise their appraisal rights should send in their stock certificates representing Telica shares in accordance with the stock exchange instructions that we will send to you as soon as practicable after consummation of the merger.

THE MERGER

APPROVAL AND COMPLETION OF THE MERGER (SEE PAGE 17)

On May 21, 2004, Lucent and Telica entered into a merger agreement under which a newly formed subsidiary of Lucent will merge into Telica and as a result, Telica will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Lucent. A copy of the merger agreement is included as Annex B to this prospectus. Telica stockholders, and, upon the exercise of options to purchase Telica common stock, holders of options to purchase Telica common stock, will be entitled to receive an aggregate of up to 92,747,629 shares of Lucent common stock in exchange for their Telica capital stock.

By a written consent dated May 21, 2004, the merger and an amendment to Telica's certificate of incorporation, the form of which is included as Annex C to this prospectus, were approved by:

- a majority of the votes represented by the outstanding shares of Telica common stock and preferred stock, voting together as a single class;
- two-thirds of the votes represented by the outstanding shares of the Telica preferred stock, voting together as a single class; and
- a majority of the votes represented by the outstanding shares of each series of Telica preferred stock, each series voting separately as a single class.

Telica has mailed a notice of such approvals to each of its stockholders who did not execute such consent. The completion of the merger does not require any further action by Telica's stockholders, and does not require the approval of Lucent's stockholders. The merger is expected to close on August 19, 2004.

WHAT HOLDERS OF TELICA SECURITIES WILL BE ENTITLED TO RECEIVE PURSUANT TO THE

MERGER (SEE PAGE 10)

Pursuant to the merger, you will be entitled to receive:

- 1.37703185 shares of Lucent common stock for each share of Telica Series A preferred stock that you own;
- 1.58872601 shares of Lucent common stock for each share of Telica Series B preferred stock that you own;
- 1.26936264 shares of Lucent common stock for each share of Telica Series B-1 preferred stock that you own;
- 0.86752380 of a share of Lucent common stock for each share of Telica Series C preferred stock that you own; and
- 0.45901058 of a share of Lucent common stock for each share of Telica common stock that you own, including any share of Telica common stock issued upon the exercise of a Telica stock option.

You will be entitled to receive cash for any fractional share of Lucent common stock that you would otherwise receive pursuant to the merger.

Approximately 10% of the Lucent common stock that each Telica stockholder would otherwise be entitled to receive will be deposited in an escrow account that will be used to compensate Lucent if it is entitled to indemnification under the merger agreement. The escrowed shares will be used to indemnify Lucent against damages due to:

- any inaccuracy in any representation or warranty of Telica contained in the merger agreement;
- any breach or default by Telica, a Telica stockholder or the representative of the Telica stockholders of any covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement or the related agreements;

- specified expenses of Telica in excess of $2,000,000;
- pending legal proceedings to which Telica is a party, as described in the merger agreement; and
- certain taxes imposed on Telica prior to completion of the merger.

The escrowed shares are the sole and exclusive source available to compensate Lucent for the indemnification obligations of Telica stockholders under the merger agreement, other than for any claim of fraud. The indemnification obligations will expire 18 months after closing. At that time, if Lucent does not have any unresolved claims for the property remaining in escrow, the remaining escrowed shares will be released to the former Telica stockholders.

OWNERSHIP OF LUCENT FOLLOWING THE MERGER

Telica stockholders, and, upon the exercise of options to purchase Telica common stock, holders of options to purchase Telica common stock, will be entitled to receive an aggregate of up to 92,747,629 shares of Lucent common stock pursuant to the merger, or approximately 2.16% of the total number of shares of Lucent common stock following the merger, based on the number of shares of Lucent common stock outstanding on May 21, 2004.

INTERESTS OF TELICA DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS IN THE MERGER (SEE PAGE 11)

A number of directors and executive officers of Telica have interests in the merger as directors or executive officers that may be different from, or in addition to, those of Telica stockholders generally. If Telica completes the merger, certain indemnification arrangements for current directors and executive officers of Telica will be continued. It is a condition of the merger that certain executives and employees agree to amend existing option agreements and restricted stock agreements such that a portion of the options and restricted shares will vest only upon satisfaction of performance and retention conditions. Also, certain executive officers and other employees of Telica will be eligible to participate in a $7,000,000 retention bonus pool if they remain employed by Telica through the effective time of the merger, and a limited number of Telica executive officers and other employees will be eligible to participate in a performance bonus pool of $6,500,000 to be allocated upon fulfillment of performance and retention conditions. In addition, certain executive officers of Telica are parties to executive retention agreements that will provide them with severance payments and other benefits if their employment is terminated within one year after the merger.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS (SEE PAGE 15)

We have structured the merger so that, in general, no gain or loss will be recognized by Telica stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of shares of Telica capital stock for shares of Lucent common stock. Telica stockholders, however, will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on any cash received in lieu of fractional shares. Telica must receive a legal opinion to this effect as a condition to the closing of the merger.

Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on the facts of your own situation. We urge you to read carefully the discussion in the section entitled "The Merger -- Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations" and to consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the specific tax consequences of the merger to you.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS (SEE PAGE 17)

Under Delaware law, Telica stockholders who did not vote to approve the merger and who comply with notice requirements and other procedures will have the right to receive the "fair value" of their shares in cash rather than the shares of Lucent common stock specified in the merger agreement. "Fair value" will be determined by a Delaware court and may be more than, the same as, or less than the value of the consideration to be paid to Telica stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement. Failure to follow all the steps required by Delaware law will result in the loss of your appraisal rights. The Delaware law requirements for exercising appraisal rights are described in further detail on pages 17 to 20. In addition to reviewing the information in "The Merger -- Appraisal Rights," you should read Annex A, which contains a copy of Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, which governs appraisal rights.

RISK FACTORS

In determining whether to exercise appraisal rights in connection with the merger, you should consider carefully the matters described below and the other information included and incorporated by reference in this prospectus, including the risk factors and other considerations set forth in the reports and documents filed by Lucent with the SEC. See "Information Incorporated by Reference" on page 39.

THE EXCHANGE RATIO FOR LUCENT COMMON STOCK TO BE RECEIVED PURSUANT TO THE MERGER

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

IS FIXED AND WILL NOT BE ADJUSTED IN THE EVENT OF ANY CHANGE IN STOCK PRICE.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Telica common and preferred stock will be converted into the right to receive a specified number of shares of Lucent common stock. The number of shares of Lucent common stock that a Telica stockholder will be entitled to receive depends on the class or series of Telica stock held by the stockholder and the number of shares held. The market value of Lucent common stock has varied since Lucent and Telica entered into the merger agreement and will continue to vary in the future. There will be no adjustment to the conversion ratios to reflect changes to the market price of Lucent common stock, changes in the operations of Lucent or Telica following the execution of the merger agreement or any other changes, except for any adjustment that may be necessary to reflect the effect of any stock split or other recapitalization of Lucent common stock or Telica capital stock. The dollar value of Lucent common stock that Telica stockholders will be entitled to receive upon completion of the merger will depend on the market value of Lucent common stock at the time of completion of the merger, which may be different from, and lower than, the closing price of Lucent common stock either on the last full trading day preceding the public announcement that Lucent and Telica entered into the merger agreement, or on the last full trading day prior to the date of this prospectus. Moreover, the parties do not generally have the right to terminate the merger agreement prior to October 15, 2004, based upon changes in the market price of Lucent common stock, changes in the operations of Lucent or Telica, or any other developments.

YOU MAY NOT RECEIVE ANY OR A PORTION OF THE SHARES OF LUCENT COMMON STOCK HELD IN THE ESCROW ACCOUNT IF LUCENT BRINGS INDEMNIFICATION CLAIMS UNDER THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

Ten percent of the Lucent common stock to be received by you and each other stockholder of Telica will be placed in escrow to satisfy indemnity claims made by Lucent under the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides that each Telica stockholder will remain liable and will indemnify Lucent and other specified persons after the merger for any inaccuracy in any representation or warranty in the merger agreement or in any schedule or exhibit to the merger agreement, for any breach or default by Telica, the Telica stockholder or a representative of the Telica stockholders of any covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement, specified expenses of Telica in excess of $2,000,000, pending legal proceedings to which Telica is a party, as described in the merger agreement, and certain taxes imposed on Telica prior to completion of the merger. As soon as practicable after the effective date of the merger, Lucent will cause 10% of the shares of Lucent common stock issued to Telica stockholders in connection with the merger to be deposited into an escrow account, which will be available to Lucent for claims made during a period of 18 months following the completion of the merger to satisfy the indemnification obligations of the Telica stockholders. There can be no assurance that the Telica stockholders will receive any of the shares which are deposited in the escrow account.

Because there is no established trading market for shares of any class of Telica capital stock, information with respect to the market prices of Telica stock has been omitted.

Lucent eliminated its quarterly dividend in the fourth fiscal quarter of 2001 and does not anticipate paying any dividends on Lucent common stock in the foreseeable future. Telica has never paid a cash dividend to its stockholders.

THE MERGER

MERGER CONSIDERATION

The merger consideration was determined through arm's-length discussions between Lucent and Telica. Pursuant to the merger, you will be entitled to receive:

- 1.37703185 shares of Lucent common stock for each share of Telica Series A preferred stock that you own;
- 1.58872601 shares of Lucent common stock for each share of Telica Series B preferred stock that you own;
- 1.2693264 shares of Lucent common stock for each share of Telica Series B-1 preferred stock that you own;
- 0.86752380 of a share of Lucent common stock for each share of Telica Series C preferred stock that you own; and
- 0.45901058 of a share of Lucent common stock for each share of Telica common stock that you own, which we refer to as the "common stock conversion ratio."

You will be entitled to receive cash for any fractional share of Lucent common stock that you would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to the merger.

As of the effective time of the merger, all previously outstanding shares of Telica stock will automatically be cancelled and will cease to exist. At that time, each holder of a certificate representing shares of Telica stock, other than shares as to which appraisal rights have been properly exercised, will cease to have any rights as a stockholder except the right to receive Lucent common stock and the right to receive cash for any fractional share of Lucent common stock.

STOCK OPTIONS AND RESTRICTED STOCK

Under the merger agreement, on the effective date of the merger, Lucent will assume all outstanding stock options and restricted stock awards granted under the Telica Restated 1998 Incentive and Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan. Stock options outstanding under the plan on the effective date will be converted into stock options to acquire Lucent common stock on the same terms and conditions as applied to the Telica stock options, except that certain employees of Telica may extend the vesting provisions of their stock options in connection with the performance bonus pool. The number of shares of Lucent common stock to be issued in respect of a Telica option assumed by Lucent will be equal to the number of shares of Telica common stock that would be issued in respect of that option multiplied by the common stock conversion ratio, rounded down to the nearest whole share. The exercise price per share of Lucent common stock for any Telica option assumed by Lucent will be equal to the exercise price per share of

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

Telica common stock for that option divided by the common stock conversion ratio, rounded up to the nearest one hundredth of a cent. As of June 14, 2004, the number of shares of Telica common stock reserved for issuance pursuant to outstanding Telica stock options under the plan was 8,259,858.

On the effective date of the merger, shares granted pursuant to restricted stock grants under the plan will be converted into shares of Lucent restricted stock and will be subject to the same terms and conditions as the Telica restricted stock grants, except that certain employees of Telica are expected to extend the vesting provisions of their restricted stock grants in connection with the performance bonus pool. The number of shares of Lucent restricted stock to be exchanged for each granted share of Telica restricted stock will be equal to the number of shares of granted Telica restricted stock multiplied by the common stock conversion ratio, rounded to the nearest whole share. In addition, shares granted pursuant to restricted stock grants are subject to Telica's right and option to purchase from the holder some or all of the unvested shares of restricted stock under certain circumstances. After consummation of the merger, if a restricted stockholder's employment with Lucent is terminated without cause or for good reason, this purchase option will terminate.

TELICA'S REASONS FOR THE MERGER

The Telica board of directors unanimously approved the merger and the merger agreement and believes that the terms of the merger are fair to, and in the best interests of, Telica and its stockholders. In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the Telica board consulted with Telica's management, as well as its legal, accounting and other advisors (but did not receive a valuation or opinion of a financial advisor), and considered the following material factors:

- The risks and potential rewards associated with, as an alternative to the merger, continuing to execute Telica's strategic plan as an independent entity. These risks include, among others, Telica's uncertain future profitability, potential difficulties in obtaining necessary additional financing to remain a stand-alone entity, its reliance on a limited number of customers for a substantial portion of its revenues, and its uncertain ability to compete effectively against larger and better capitalized competitors, and the rewards include, among others, the ability of existing Telica stockholders to participate in the potential future growth and profitability of Lucent after the merger.
- The possibility, as alternatives to the merger, of seeking to be acquired by a company other than Lucent, to engage in a combination with a company other than Lucent or to effect an initial public offering of Telica common stock and the Telica board's conclusion that a transaction with Lucent is expected to yield greater benefits than the likely alternatives. The Telica board concluded that the transaction with Lucent could be acceptably completed from a timing and regulatory standpoint, and would yield greater benefits than the alternatives given the dilution of equity interests that current Telica stockholders would suffer in connection with an initial public offering as well as Lucent's financial resources and its ability to fund a greater number of long-term growth projects and to compete effectively.
- The value of the consideration provided for in the merger agreement based on the then-current market price and historical trading price of Lucent shares over the past year and relative to the stock price premiums paid in mergers of comparable size and the view that the premium offered in the merger was within the range of premiums paid in comparable transactions.

- The ability to complete the merger as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes.
- The interests that certain executive officers and directors of Telica may have with respect to the merger in addition to their interests as stockholders of Telica generally. See "-- Interests of Executive Officers and Directors of Telica in the Merger."
- The merger will enable Telica stockholders to participate in, and benefit from the future growth potential of, a large, publicly held company with a greater depth of technologies, marketing opportunities and financial and operating resources that should enhance Telica's ability to bring technology to market.
- The public market for Lucent common stock will offer Telica stockholders liquidity earlier than if Telica proceeded with an initial public offering, while avoiding the risk and investment in time and expense of an initial public offering.

In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, the Telica board did not find it useful to and did not attempt to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to these factors. In addition, the Telica board did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to the Telica board's ultimate determination, but rather the Telica board conducted an overall analysis of the factors described above, including discussions with and questioning of Telica's management and legal, accounting and other advisors.

INTERESTS OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS OF TELICA IN THE MERGER

In considering whether to exercise appraisal rights in connection with the merger, Telica stockholders should be aware of the interests that directors and executive officers of Telica have in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of the stockholders of Telica generally. These interests relate to or arise from, among other things:

- potential accelerated vesting of stock options and restricted stock awards upon consummation of the merger;
- the continued indemnification of Telica directors and officers for actions taken prior to the merger;
- the extension of Telica's existing director and officer insurance policy for a period of six years to cover actions taken prior to the merger;
- employment offers being extended to some of Telica's current executive officers;
- eligibility to participate in a performance bonus pool following the completion of the merger by those executive officers of Telica who become employees of Lucent as a result of the merger and are selected by mutual agreement of Lucent and Telica; and
- eligibility to participate in an employee retention bonus pool.

Acceleration of stock options. Options to purchase an aggregate of approximately 722,084 shares of Telica common stock granted to one director and two executive officers of Telica will accelerate in connection with the merger under specified circumstances. Under the option agreements for the executive officers, if the employment relationship between Telica or its successor and the executive officer terminates without cause or for good reason at any time after the merger, the option will become exercisable in full for a period of 30 days from his termination. Under the option agreement for Nathaniel A. Davis, if the appointment of Mr. Davis to Telica's board of directors is terminated without cause at any time after the merger, the option will become exercisable in full for a period of 30 days from his termination. Under the terms of the merger agreement, following the merger, the service of Mr. Davis on Telica's board of directors will cease, and Messrs. Bowen and Stott are not expected to continue as employees of Telica.

The following table shows options held by directors and executive officers of Telica as of May 21, 2004 and assumes the merger occurs on August 19, 2004:

NAME OF OFFICER OR DIRECTOR	DATE OF OPTION GRANT	NUMBER OF SHARES OF TELICA COMMON STOCK SUBJECT TO OPTIONS	EXERCISE PRICE	NUMBER OF SHARES OF TELICA COMMON STOCK SUBJECT TO OPTIONS THAT ARE VESTED AS OF AUGUST 19, 2004
Paul I. Bowen.....	04/01/04	420,000	$0.25	0
Nathaniel A. Davis.....	01/26/04	300,000	$0.15	75,000
Gregory W. Stott.....	09/12/03	100,000	$0.05	22,916

(1) Assumes that service or employment with Telica is terminated following the merger on such terms and conditions that would result in full acceleration of the vesting of these options.

Acceleration of restricted stock awards. Since December 2001, Telica has issued and sold an aggregate of 4,985,000 shares of common stock to four of its executive officers pursuant to restricted stock agreements. The restricted stock agreements provide that, upon the termination of employment of that executive officer, Telica has an option to purchase all or a portion of his then unvested shares for a per share price of $0.01, which is equal to the original purchase price per share paid by the executive officer. If the employment relationship between Telica or its successor and the executive officer terminates without cause or for good reason at any time after the merger, Telica's or its successor's repurchase option with respect to all then unvested shares issued under that individual's restricted stock agreements will terminate.

The terms "cause" and "good reason" are generally defined in the option agreements and restricted stock agreements as follows:

- "Cause" means:
 - willful and continued failure of the executive to substantially perform his reasonably assigned duties with Telica or its successor, which failure is not cured within 30 days after the executive's receipt of a

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

written demand for substantial performance from Telica's or its successor's board of directors; or

- the executive's willful engagement in illegal or gross misconduct which is materially and demonstrably injurious to Telica or its successor.
- "Good reason" means:
 - assignment of duties inconsistent in any material respect with the executive's position or any other action or omission by Telica or its successor, which results in a material diminution in such position, authority or responsibilities;
 - reduction in the executive's annual base salary;
 - the failure by Telica or its successor to (a) continue any material compensation or benefit plan, unless an equitable arrangement has been made with respect to such plan, (b) continue the executive's participation in any material compensation or benefit plan on terms not materially less favorable than the terms of the existing plan in which the executive participates or (c) award cash bonuses to the executive in amounts and in a manner substantially consistent with past practice in light of Telica's financial performance;
 - relocation of the executive's principal place of employment by more than 35 miles from his residence and more than 20 miles from his current principal place of employment; or
 - failure of Telica or its successor to pay or provide to the executive any portion of the executive's compensation or benefits due under any benefit plan within seven days of the date such compensation or benefits are due.

The following table sets forth the aggregate number of restricted shares of Telica common stock beneficially owned by all executive officers of Telica as of May 21, 2004 and subject to Telica's right of repurchase:

NAME	AGGREGATE NUMBER OF SHARES SUBJECT TO RIGHT OF REPURCHASE
----	-----
John C. St. Amand.....	1,316,667
Charles A. Bates.....	262,501
Joseph P. Quinlivan.....	367,500
Gregory W. Stott.....	161,250

These restricted shares were not vested as of May 21, 2004, and their vesting schedule may be amended as described below under "Performance Bonus Pool".

Indemnification and insurance. The merger agreement provides that Lucent will, or will cause the surviving corporation to, fulfill and honor in all respects the obligations of Telica to indemnify each person who is or was a director or officer of Telica pursuant to any indemnification provision of Telica's certificate of incorporation or by-laws, as each was in effect on the date of the merger agreement. Telica intends to extend, for six years after the merger, directors' and officers' liability insurance for acts or omissions of each person who is or was a director or officer of Telica, which occur prior to the merger. The terms and conditions of such directors' and officers' liability insurance will be no less favorable to the indemnified parties than Telica's current policy.

Employee benefits. Lucent has agreed to provide employee benefit plans, programs and arrangements to those individuals who will continue to be employees of Telica after the merger that are the same as those made generally available to similarly situated employees of Lucent hired by Lucent after December 31, 2003 and are not represented by a union. These benefits will be made available as soon as reasonably practicable after the merger. Until these benefits are made available, Lucent has agreed that it will provide the same benefits that were provided to employees of Telica as of the date of the merger agreement. Lucent will recognize each employee's service to Telica prior to the merger solely for the purposes of determining vesting and entitlement to benefits, including severance benefits and vacation entitlement, but not for accrual of pension benefits.

Employee retention bonus pool. The merger agreement provides that, as soon as administratively practicable after the effective time of the merger, Lucent will cause Telica, as the surviving entity of the merger, to pay retention bonuses in the aggregate amount of $7,000,000 to employees, including certain executive officers, who remain employed by Telica through the effective time of the merger.

Performance bonus pool. The merger agreement provides that Lucent will cause Telica, as the surviving entity of the merger, to establish a performance bonus pool of $6,500,000 in which certain employees of Telica, including certain executive officers of Telica, will be eligible to participate. Payouts under the performance bonus pool will be made as to 30% of the pool on the first anniversary of the effective date of the merger, assuming the fulfillment of the first of two product deliverables to be agreed upon by Lucent and Telica, and as to 70% of the pool on the second anniversary of the effective date of the merger, assuming the fulfillment of the second of two product deliverables to be agreed upon by Lucent and Telica. Allocation of any payouts from the pool among eligible employees will be mutually determined by Lucent and the representative of the Telica employees, which initially will be John C. St. Amand. Any portion of the performance bonus pool that is not paid to the employees of Telica as a result of the product deliverables not being satisfied will belong to Lucent and may be used in a manner determined by Lucent in its sole discretion.

If eligible employees of Telica wish to participate in the performance bonus pool, they must agree to amend their existing stock option or restricted stock agreements in order to provide that any unvested shares at the effective time of the merger will vest as to 30% upon the fulfillment of the first product deliverable and as to 70% upon the fulfillment of the second product deliverable. If any product deliverables are not fulfilled on the third anniversary of the effective time of the merger, or the employee is terminated by Lucent without cause, then any unvested shares would vest in full.

Executive retention agreements. John C. St. Amand, Charles Bates, Paul Bowen, Joseph Quinlivan and Gregory Stott, executive officers of Telica, entered into executive retention agreements with Telica in May 2004. Each executive retention agreement provides that the officer party thereto shall receive a severance payment in the event of (1) a change in control of Telica and (2) the termination of the officer's employment with the surviving entity within 12 months following the change in control event without cause or for good reason (as those terms are defined in such retention agreement). Severance payments provided by the executive retention agreements equal 12 months' base salary in the case of Mr. St. Amand and six months' base salary in the case of the other officers. In addition, Telica would be required to provide certain medical and other benefits to the executive for 12 months following his termination date.

Other arrangements. On December 5, 2001 and February 13, 2002, in connection with his purchase of shares of restricted common stock of Telica, John C. St. Amand issued a secured promissory note payable to Telica in the aggregate principal amounts of $28,320 and $16,992, respectively. On December 5, 2001 and February 13, 2002, in connection with his purchase of shares of restricted common stock of Telica, Charles Bates issued a secured promissory note payable to Telica in the aggregate principal amounts of $7,434 and $1,770, respectively. These notes had an interest rate of 4.75% per year, compounded quarterly. The notes were to become due on the earliest of (1) the fourth anniversary of the date of the note, (2) the date on which the shares to which the notes relate become publicly tradable and (3) an event of default. An event of default, as defined in the notes, included, among other things, the termination of the employment of the executive officer with Telica, for any reason or no reason, with or without cause. Each note was secured by the shares of restricted stock to which the note related pursuant to the terms of a collateral assignment and pledge agreement between the executive officer and Telica. In connection with the merger, these notes, and any interest owed thereunder, have been cancelled without any penalty to or payment by these executive officers to Telica or Lucent and the related collateral assignment and pledge agreements have been terminated.

RESELLER AGREEMENT BETWEEN LUCENT AND TELICA

Lucent and Telica entered into a non-exclusive reseller agreement on March 22, 2004. Under the terms of that agreement, Telica will provide and Lucent will purchase and/or license hardware, software and/or services for resale by Lucent to service-providers as well as enterprise and governmental entities. The Telica products may be purchased and sold and/or sublicensed to Lucent end-user customers by Lucent and/or Lucent's affiliates as well as through Lucent's distributors. As of June 15, 2004, Telica had not received significant revenue from the reseller agreement.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT OF THE MERGER

The merger will be accounted for under the "purchase" method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Lucent expects a significant portion of the purchase price to be allocated to goodwill and identifiable intangible assets. The merger is expected to result in a charge against earnings for in-process research and development.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

Generally. The following discussion is a general summary of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. The discussion is based on and subject to the Internal Revenue Code, which we refer to as the Code, Treasury Regulations under the Code, existing administrative interpretations and court decisions as of the date of this prospectus, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, and all of which are subject to differing interpretation. The discussion does not address the effects of the merger under any state, local or foreign tax laws, or any federal tax law other than federal income tax law. There can be no assurance that future legislative, administrative, or judicial changes or interpretations will not affect the accuracy of this discussion. This discussion is predicated upon facts, assumptions, and representations of factual statements and covenants contained in officer's certificates of Lucent and Telica. If any of such facts, assumptions, and representations are, or later become, inaccurate, then this summary may be correspondingly inaccurate. In addition, this summary assumes the absence of changes in facts or in law between the date of this prospectus and the effective time of the merger and that no transactions effectuated prior or subsequent to or concurrently with the merger or undertaken in connection with the merger, will be treated by the Internal Revenue Service in a manner that adversely affects treatment of the merger as a "reorganization," as described in Section 368(a) of the Code.

The discussion does not purport to deal with all aspects of federal income taxation that may affect particular stockholders in light of their individual circumstances, and it does not address any tax consequences for stockholders subject to special treatment under the federal income tax law, including insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, financial institutions, broker-dealers, foreign individuals or entities, traders in securities that elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting, certain United States expatriates, stockholders who hold their stock as part of a straddle, hedge, conversion transaction, or other integrated investment, stockholders who do not hold their stock as capital assets and stockholders who have acquired their stock upon the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation.

EACH TELICA STOCKHOLDER IS URGED TO CONSULT HIS, HER OR ITS TAX ADVISOR WITH RESPECT TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO HIM, HER OR IT, INCLUDING THE EFFECT OF UNITED STATES FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL, AND FOREIGN AND OTHER TAX RULES, AND THE EFFECT OF POSSIBLE CHANGES IN TAX LAWS.

Subject to the limitations and qualifications set forth above and below, and the limitations and qualifications set forth in the opinions of counsel included as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, which will result in the following federal income tax consequences:

Tax consequences to Lucent and Telica. For federal income tax purposes, no gain or loss will be recognized by Lucent or Telica solely as a result of the merger.

Tax consequences to Telica stockholders. For federal income tax purposes:

- no gain or loss will be recognized by the stockholders of Telica upon the exchange of their shares of Telica stock for shares of Lucent common stock pursuant to the merger, except with respect to cash, if any, received in lieu of fractional shares of Lucent common stock;
- the aggregate tax basis of the shares of Lucent common stock received in exchange for shares of Telica stock pursuant to the merger (including a fractional share of Lucent common stock for which cash is received) will be the same as the aggregate tax basis of such shares of Telica stock surrendered pursuant to the merger;
- the holding period of the shares of Lucent common stock received in exchange for shares of Telica stock will include the holder's holding period for such shares of Telica stock; and
- a stockholder of Telica who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Lucent common stock will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference, if any, between such stockholder's basis in the fractional share (determined under the second bullet above) and the amount of cash received.

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

Taxation of escrowed shares. Under the merger agreement, each Telica stockholder (other than a stockholder validly asserting appraisal rights) will be entitled to receive outright, upon due surrender of its certificate formerly representing shares of Telica stock, shares of Lucent common stock equal to 90% of the whole number of shares of Lucent common stock into which the shares of Telica stock surrendered by the stockholder are to be converted into the right to receive. The remaining 10% of the whole number of shares of Lucent common stock into which the shares of Telica stock are to be converted into the right to receive will be placed in escrow as security for indemnification obligations of the Telica stockholders, pursuant to the merger agreement. Each Telica stockholder will be credited with the number of shares placed in escrow on its behalf. See "-- Indemnification and Escrow."

Each Telica stockholder will allocate its basis in its shares of Telica stock among all of the shares of Lucent common stock received by or credited to the stockholder as a result of the merger, including both shares of Lucent common stock received outright and shares of Lucent common stock placed in escrow on the stockholder's behalf. No gain or loss will be recognized by a Telica stockholder upon the distribution of escrowed shares to the stockholder upon termination of the escrow or upon the distribution of escrowed shares to Lucent in satisfaction of indemnification claims. In the event that some or all of the escrowed shares are distributed to Lucent in satisfaction of an indemnification claim, the tax basis of that stockholder's allocable portion of the escrowed shares that have been returned to Lucent will be added to and allocated among the stockholder's aggregate tax basis in the stockholder's remaining shares of Lucent common stock (including any remaining escrowed shares allocable to the stockholder).

Each Telica stockholder will be required to include in gross income all amounts earned on property held in escrow and credited to that stockholder. Any dividends paid on the escrowed Lucent common stock will be distributed currently to the Telica stockholders, subject to limited exceptions.

Under the escrow agreement, the stockholder representative has the right to sell some or all of the escrowed shares, subject to the provisions of that agreement. In the event that any escrowed shares are sold, each Telica stockholder will recognize capital gain or loss in an amount equal to the pro-rata portion of the proceeds from such sale over his, her or its basis allocable to the shares sold notwithstanding that the escrow agent will retain the proceeds of such sale. This capital gain or loss will be long-term if the shares are treated as held for more than one year at the time of sale and otherwise will be short-term.

THE TAXATION OF ESCROWS IS COMPLEX. EACH TELICA STOCKHOLDER IS ENCOURAGED TO CONSULT HIS, HER OR ITS TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE ESCROW, INCLUDING THE RETURN OF ANY ESCROWED SHARES TO LUCENT, THE SALE OF ANY SHARES HELD IN ESCROW AND THE RELEASE OF THE SHARES FROM THE ESCROW.

Reporting requirements. Telica stockholders will be required to attach a statement to their tax returns for the year of the merger describing the facts pertinent to the non-recognition of gain or loss upon the exchange of shares pursuant to the merger. Such statement must include the holder's tax basis in the holder's

Telica stock and a description of the Lucent common stock received therefor. TELICA STOCKHOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO ANY TAX REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

Consequences to stockholders exercising appraisal rights. The above description does not apply to stockholders who exercise appraisal rights. A holder of Telica stock who exercises appraisal rights with respect to the merger and receives cash in exchange for shares of Telica stock generally will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the stockholder's basis in those shares, unless the payment is treated as a dividend pursuant to Section 302 of the Code or otherwise. A sale of shares based on the exercise of appraisal rights generally will not be treated as a dividend if the stockholder exercising appraisal rights owns no shares of Lucent stock immediately after the merger, after giving effect to the constructive ownership rules of the Code. The capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holder's holding period in the shares is more than one year. Any payment in respect of an exercise of appraisal rights may be subject to backup withholding where required by the Code.

Consequences if the merger does not qualify as a reorganization. The opinions described above will neither bind the Internal Revenue Service nor preclude the Internal Revenue Service from adopting positions contrary to those expressed above, and no assurance can be given that contrary positions will not be asserted successfully by the Internal Revenue Service or adopted by a court if the issues are litigated. Neither Lucent nor Telica intends to obtain a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service with respect to the tax consequences of the merger.

If the IRS were to succeed in challenging the reorganization status of the merger, each Telica stockholder would recognize capital gain or loss, equal to the difference between (1) the fair market value, as of the time of the merger, of the Lucent common stock received pursuant to the merger and (2) the stockholder's tax basis in the Telica stock surrendered therefor pursuant to the merger. The capital gain or loss would be long-term capital gain or loss if the holder's holding period in the Telica stock is more than one year at the time of the merger. In such event, a stockholder's aggregate basis in the Lucent common stock so received would equal its fair market value as of the time of the merger and the holding period for such stock would begin on the day after the merger.

Backup Withholding. Non-corporate stockholders of Telica may be subject to backup withholding on cash payments that they receive. Backup withholding can be avoided, however, if the stockholder:

- furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies that he, she or it is not subject to backup withholding on a substitute IRS Form W-9 or any successor form included in the letter of transmittal that is delivered following the completion of the merger;
- provides certification of foreign status on IRS Form W-8BEN or any successor form; or
- is otherwise exempt from backup withholding.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax and any amounts withheld may be allowed as a refund or credit against a Telica stockholder's U.S. federal income tax liability provided that the required information is delivered to the IRS.

WE INTEND THIS DISCUSSION TO PROVIDE ONLY A SUMMARY OF THE MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER. WE DO NOT INTEND THAT IT BE A COMPLETE ANALYSIS OR DESCRIPTION OF ALL POTENTIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER. WE DO NOT ADDRESS CERTAIN CATEGORIES OF STOCKHOLDERS, AND WE DO NOT ADDRESS STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES. IN ADDITION, AS NOTED ABOVE, WE DO NOT ADDRESS TAX CONSEQUENCES THAT MAY VARY WITH, OR ARE CONTINGENT UPON, INDIVIDUAL CIRCUMSTANCES. WE STRONGLY URGE YOU TO CONSULT YOUR TAX ADVISOR TO DETERMINE YOUR PARTICULAR UNITED STATES FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN INCOME OR OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES RESULTING FROM THE MERGER, IN LIGHT OF YOUR INDIVIDUAL CIRCUMSTANCES.

NYSE LISTING

It is a condition to completion of the merger that the Lucent common stock issued to Telica stockholders pursuant to the merger be authorized for listing on the New York Stock Exchange, subject to official notice of issuance.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

OVERVIEW

By written consent dated May 21, 2004, the merger and an amendment to Telica's certificate of incorporation, the form of which is included as Annex C to this prospectus, were approved by (1) a majority of the votes represented by the outstanding shares of Telica common stock and preferred stock, voting together as a single class, (2) two-thirds of the votes represented by the outstanding shares of Telica preferred stock, voting together as a single class and (3) a majority of the votes represented by the outstanding shares of each series of Telica preferred stock, each series voting separately as a single class. Under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, any holder of Telica capital stock who does not wish to accept the merger consideration in respect of his, her or its shares of common stock has the right to seek an appraisal of, and to be paid the fair value (exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger) for, his, her or its shares of stock, judicially determined, in cash, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, provided that the stockholder fully complies with the provisions of Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

Ensuring the perfection of your appraisal rights can be complicated. The procedural rules are specific and must be followed precisely. Lucent will not be required to complete the merger if appraisal rights have been exercised with respect to more than 10% of the outstanding Telica common stock, 10% of the outstanding Telica preferred stock (on an as-converted basis) or 5% of the outstanding Telica capital stock (on an as-converted basis), not including any shares beneficially owned by Tekelec.

The holders of Lucent common stock do not have any appraisal rights in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

If you voted for approval of the merger, your appraisal rights have terminated. If you voted to approve or provided a written consent in favor of the merger agreement, your right to appraisal with respect to Telica shares owned by you has terminated.

You must continuously hold your Telica shares. You must continuously hold your shares of Telica capital stock, from the date you make the demand for appraisal through the closing of the merger. If you are the record holder of Telica capital stock on the date the written demand for appraisal is made but thereafter transfer the shares prior to the merger, you will lose any right to appraisal in respect of those shares. You should read the paragraphs below for more details on making a demand for appraisal.

A written demand for appraisal of Telica stock is only effective if it is signed by, or for, the stockholder of record who owns such shares at the time the demand is made. The demand must be signed as the stockholder's name appears on the Telica stock certificate(s). If you are the beneficial owner of Telica capital stock, but not the stockholder of record, you must have the stockholder of record sign a demand for appraisal.

If you own Telica capital stock in a fiduciary capacity, such as a trustee, guardian or custodian, you must disclose the fact that you are signing the demand for appraisal in that capacity.

If you own Telica capital stock with more than one person, such as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, all the owners must sign, or have signed for them, the demand for appraisal. An authorized agent, which could include one or more of the joint owners, may sign the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must expressly disclose who the stockholder of record is and that the agent is signing the demand as that stockholder's agent.

If you are a record owner, such as a broker, who holds Telica capital stock as a nominee for others, you may exercise a right of appraisal with respect to the shares held for one or more beneficial owners, while not exercising such right for other beneficial owners. In such a case, you should specify in the written demand the number of shares as to which you wish to demand appraisal. If you do not expressly specify the number of shares, it will be assumed that your written demand covers all the shares of Telica capital stock that are in your name.

If you are a Telica stockholder who elects to exercise appraisal rights, you should mail or deliver a written demand to:

Telica, Inc.
734 Forest Street, Building G
Marlborough, Massachusetts 01752
Attention: Treasurer

As explained above, this written demand should be signed by, or on behalf of, the stockholder of record. The written demand for appraisal should specify the stockholder's name and mailing address, the number of shares of stock owned, and that the stockholder is thereby demanding appraisal of that stockholder's shares.

If you fail to comply with any of these conditions and the merger becomes effective, you will only be entitled to receive the merger consideration provided in the merger agreement.

Written notice. Within ten days after the closing of the merger, the surviving corporation must give written notice that the merger has become effective to each stockholder of Telica, except that if such notice is sent more than 20 days following the mailing of this prospectus, such second notice must be sent only to those stockholders of Telica who have fully complied with the conditions of Section 262.

Petition with the chancery court. Within 120 days after the merger, either the surviving corporation or any stockholder who has complied with the conditions of Section 262, may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery. This petition should request that the chancery court determine the value of the shares of stock held by all the stockholders who are entitled to appraisal rights. A dissenting stockholder must serve a copy of the petition on the surviving corporation. If no petition is filed by either the surviving corporation or any stockholder within the 120-day period, the rights of all dissenting stockholders will cease. Stockholders seeking appraisal rights should not assume that the surviving corporation will file a petition with respect to the fair value of their shares. Because the surviving corporation has no obligation and no present intention to file this petition, if you do not file this petition within 120 days after the closing, you will lose your rights of appraisal.

Withdrawal of demand. If you change your mind and decide you no longer want appraisal rights, you may withdraw your demand for appraisal rights at any time within 60 days after the closing of the merger. You may also withdraw your demand for appraisal rights after the 60-day period, but only with the written consent of the surviving corporation. If you effectively withdraw your demand for appraisal rights, you will receive only the merger consideration provided in the merger agreement.

Request for appraisal rights statement. If you comply with the conditions of Section 262, you will be entitled to receive a statement from the surviving corporation. This statement will set forth the number of shares for which appraisal rights have been demanded, and the number of stockholders who own those shares. In order to receive this statement, you must send a written request to the surviving corporation within 120 days after the merger. Telica, as the surviving entity of the merger, must mail you the statement within 10 days after your request has been received by Telica or within 10 days after the expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal, whichever is later.

Chancery court procedures. If you properly file a petition for appraisal in the Delaware Court of Chancery and deliver a copy to the surviving corporation, the surviving corporation will then have 20 days to provide the chancery court with a list of the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded appraisal rights and have not reached an agreement with the surviving corporation as to the value of their shares. If the chancery court thinks it is appropriate, the chancery court has the power to conduct a hearing to determine the stockholders who have fully complied with Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and whether they are entitled to appraisal rights under that section. The chancery court may also require you to submit your stock certificates to the Registry in Chancery so that it can note on the certificates that an appraisal proceeding is pending. If you do not follow the chancery court's directions, you may be dismissed from the proceeding.

Appraisal of shares. After the chancery court determines which stockholders are entitled to appraisal rights, the chancery court will appraise the shares of stock. To determine the fair value of the shares, the chancery court will consider all relevant factors except for any appreciation or depreciation due to the anticipation or accomplishment of the merger. After the chancery court determines the fair value of the shares, it will direct the surviving corporation to pay that value to the stockholders who are entitled to appraisal rights. The chancery court can also direct the surviving corporation to pay interest, simple or compound, on that value if the chancery court determines that interest is appropriate. In order to receive payment for your shares, you must then surrender your stock certificates to the surviving corporation.

The chancery court could determine that the fair value of shares of stock is more than, the same as, or less than the merger consideration. In other words, if you demand appraisal rights, you could receive less consideration than you would under the merger agreement.

Costs and expenses of appraisal proceeding. The costs of the appraisal proceeding may be assessed against the surviving corporation and the stockholders participating in the appraisal proceeding, as the chancery court deems equitable under the circumstances. You may request that the chancery court determine the amount of interest, if any, the surviving corporation should pay on the value of stock owned by stockholders entitled to the payment of interest. You may also request that the chancery court allocate the expenses of the appraisal action incurred by any stockholder pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to appraisal.

Loss of stockholder's rights. If you demand appraisal rights, after the closing of the merger you will not be entitled to:

- vote the shares of stock for which you have demanded appraisal rights for any purpose;
- receive payment of dividends or any other distribution with respect to the shares of stock for which you have demanded appraisal, except for dividends or distributions, if any, that are payable to holders of record as of a record date prior to the effective time of the merger; or
- receive the shares of Lucent common stock provided for in the merger agreement (unless you properly withdraw your demand for appraisal).

If no petition for an appraisal is filed within 120 days after the closing of the merger, your right to an appraisal will cease. You may withdraw your demand for appraisal and accept the merger consideration by delivering to the surviving corporation a written withdrawal of your demand, except that (1) any attempt to withdraw made more than 60 days after the closing of the merger will require the written approval of the surviving corporation, and (2) an appraisal proceeding in the chancery court cannot be dismissed unless the chancery court approves.

IF YOU FAIL TO COMPLY STRICTLY WITH THE PROCEDURES DESCRIBED ABOVE, YOU WILL LOSE YOUR APPRAISAL RIGHTS. CONSEQUENTLY, IF YOU WISH TO EXERCISE YOUR APPRAISAL RIGHTS, WE STRONGLY URGE YOU TO CONSULT A LEGAL ADVISOR BEFORE ATTEMPTING TO EXERCISE YOUR APPRAISAL RIGHTS.

RESALE OF LUCENT COMMON STOCK ISSUED IN CONNECTION WITH THE MERGER

The shares of Lucent common stock you receive in connection with the merger will be listed for trading on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "LU." Such shares will be freely tradable without restriction by those former Telica stockholders who are not deemed to be "affiliates" of Lucent or Telica, as that term is defined under the Securities Act.

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

Shares of Lucent common stock received by those stockholders of Telica who are deemed to be affiliates of Telica may be resold without registration under the Securities Act only as permitted by Rule 145 under the Securities Act or as otherwise permitted under the Securities Act. Each person or entity deemed to be an affiliate of Telica will execute and deliver a representation letter to Lucent in which he, she or it agrees not to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any shares of Lucent common stock distributed to them pursuant to the merger, except in compliance with Rule 145 under the Securities Act, or in a transaction that is otherwise exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and provided an opinion of counsel, satisfactory to Lucent, has been provided to Lucent to the effect that no such registration is required in connection with the proposed transaction, or in an offering that is registered under the Securities Act.

This prospectus does not cover any resales of Lucent common stock received by persons or entities who are deemed to be affiliates of Telica.

INDEMNIFICATION AND ESCROW

The merger agreement provides that 10% of the shares of Lucent common stock to be issued to each of the Telica stockholders pursuant to the merger will be placed in escrow with an escrow agent as soon as practicable after the merger is completed. The number of shares of Lucent common stock to be received by each of the Telica stockholders will be reduced by approximately 10% of the shares of Lucent common stock the stockholder would otherwise be entitled to receive. The escrow account will be the sole and exclusive source available to compensate Lucent for the indemnification obligations of each Telica stockholder under the merger agreement, other than for any claim of fraud if Lucent so elects.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, each Telica stockholder will jointly and severally indemnify Lucent, its affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents and advisors, from and against any and all damages (including reasonable legal fees) arising out of:

- any inaccuracy in any representation or warranty made by Telica in the merger agreement;
- any breach or default by Telica, a Telica stockholder or the representative of the Telica stockholders of any covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement, a copy of which is included as Annex B to this prospectus, or the escrow agreement, the form of which is included as Annex D to this prospectus;
- specified expenses incurred by Telica in excess of $2,000,000;
- pending legal proceedings to which Telica is a party, as described in the merger agreement; and
- certain taxes imposed on Telica prior to completion of the merger.

Lucent may not seek indemnification for any inaccuracy in any representation or warranty made by Telica in the merger agreement until the aggregate amount of all damages for which Lucent is seeking indemnification equals or exceeds $1,500,000, in which case Lucent may seek indemnification for the aggregate amount of all damages, including the initial $1,500,000 of damages. Claims made by Lucent under the merger agreement relating to the tax indemnity provided by Telica stockholders or for any inaccuracy in any representation or warranty by Telica relating to capitalization, corporate authority, stockholder approval or intellectual property are not subject to this limitation on indemnification.

The escrow fund will expire on the date that is 18 months after the closing date of the merger. At that time, the Lucent common stock remaining in the escrow fund will be distributed by the escrow agent to the former Telica stockholders in accordance with each stockholder's percentage of the escrow fund, except that escrowed shares as to which Lucent has made a claim before the escrow termination date will not be released until the claim is resolved. No shares may be released from the escrow fund to any stockholder until that stockholder has delivered his certificates formerly representing Telica stock to the exchange agent in accordance with the merger agreement.

The escrow agreement provides that the stockholders' representative, as described below, may instruct the escrow agent to sell all, but not less than all, of the Lucent common stock remaining in escrow. The proceeds of such a sale would become part of the escrow fund and subject to the terms of the escrow agreement.

The merger agreement provides that Sean Dalton will be the initial representative for and on behalf of the Telica stockholders to take all actions necessary or appropriate in his judgment for the accomplishment of the terms of the merger agreement. Mr. Dalton is a director of Telica and a general partner of Highland Capital Partners, which beneficially owns 55.2% of Telica common stock, on an as-converted basis, and 29.8% of Telica preferred stock, on an as-converted basis. See "Information Concerning Telica -- Principal Stockholders Prior to the Merger." The holders of a majority in interest of the assets held in the escrow fund may replace the stockholders' representative upon not less than 10 days' prior written notice to Lucent. The stockholders' representative will not be required to provide a bond and will not receive any compensation for his services. Notices of communications to or from the stockholders' representative will constitute notice to or from each of the Telica stockholders who have stock deposited in the escrow fund. If Mr. Dalton is no longer able or willing to serve as the stockholders' representative, a new stockholders' representative will be chosen by stockholders holding a majority of the assets held in the escrow fund.

The stockholders' representative will not be liable for any act done or omitted in that capacity while acting in good faith and in the exercise of reasonable judgment, and any act done or omitted pursuant to the advice of counsel will be conclusive evidence of such good faith. Telica stockholders will severally indemnify the stockholders' representative and hold him harmless against any loss, liability or expense incurred without gross negligence or bad faith on his part and arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of his duties as stockholders' representative.

Any decision, act, consent or instruction of the stockholders' representative will constitute a decision of all Telica stockholders and will be final, binding and conclusive upon each of these stockholders, and the escrow agent and Lucent may rely upon any decision, act, consent or instruction of the stockholders' representative. The escrow agent and Lucent are relieved from any liability to any person for acts done by them in accordance with such decision, act, consent or instruction of the stockholders' representative.

EXCHANGE OF STOCK CERTIFICATES

Surrender of shares of Telica common stock and Telica preferred stock. From and after the effective time of the merger, each holder of a certificate that represented, prior to the effective time, shares of Telica capital stock will have the right to surrender each certificate to Lucent and receive certificates representing the number of shares of Lucent common stock, other than the shares placed in the escrow fund, cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Lucent common stock and any dividends or distributions to which they are entitled. The surrendered certificates will be cancelled.

EXCHANGE PROCEDURES

As soon as practicable after the consummation of the merger, our exchange agent will mail to each holder of record of a Telica stock certificate a letter of transmittal and instructions for exchanging the holder's Telica stock certificates for the merger consideration. After receipt of the transmittal forms, each holder of a Telica stock certificate will be able to surrender his, her or its Telica stock certificate to the exchange agent, and the holder of a Telica stock certificate will receive in exchange a certificate representing the number of whole shares of Lucent common stock to which the holder of the Telica stock certificate is entitled, excluding shares to be deposited in escrow, together with any cash which is payable instead of fractional shares of Lucent common stock. The consideration to be issued in the merger will be delivered by the exchange agent as promptly as practicable following surrender of a Telica stock certificate and any other required documents. No interest will be payable on the merger consideration, regardless of any delay in making payments.

Fractional shares. Lucent will not issue any fractional shares of Lucent common stock pursuant to the merger. Instead, each holder of shares of Telica common stock or Telica preferred stock exchanged pursuant to the merger who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Lucent common stock will be entitled to receive cash (without interest) in an amount rounded to the nearest whole cent equal to the product of such fractional part of Lucent common stock multiplied by the closing price for a share of Lucent common stock on the New York Stock Exchange Composite Transactions Tape on the last trading date prior to the effective date of the merger.

No further registration or transfer of Telica common stock and Telica preferred stock. At the effective time of the merger, the stock transfer books of Telica will be closed and there will be no further transfers of shares of Telica common stock or Telica preferred stock on the records of Telica. After the effective time of the merger, the holders of Telica stock certificates will cease to have any rights with respect to such shares of Telica common stock and Telica preferred stock except as otherwise provided for in the merger agreement or by applicable law.

Dissenting shares. Dissenting Telica shares will not be converted into or represent the right to receive Lucent common stock. If the holder of the dissenting shares forfeits his, her or its right to appraisal under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or has properly withdrawn his, her or its right to appraisal:

- these shares will no longer be dissenting shares and will be converted into and represent the right to receive shares of Lucent common stock in connection with the merger; and
- Lucent will deliver to the holder of these shares a certificate representing 90% of the shares issued to the stockholder in connection with the merger, and will deliver to the escrow agent a certificate representing the remaining 10% of the shares of Lucent common stock issued to the stockholder in connection with the merger.

Lost certificates. If any Telica certificates are lost, stolen or destroyed, a Telica stockholder must provide an appropriate affidavit of that fact. Lucent may require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed Telica certificates to deliver a bond as indemnity against any claim that may be made against Lucent with respect to the Telica certificates alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

INFORMATION CONCERNING TELICA

BUSINESS

OVERVIEW

Telica provides voice over Internet Protocol, or VoIP, communications switching equipment that enables service providers to deliver enhanced and traditional voice services over Internet Protocol, or IP, and legacy networks. Telica's product portfolio includes elements of a VoIP switching solution, including media gateway, media gateway controller and signaling gateway, in an integrated and standards-based platform. Its products, which are marketed under the PLUS brand name, enable service providers to introduce revenue-generating enhanced services and reduce capital expenditures and operating costs, while maintaining the level of service reliability associated with the traditional public switched telephone network. Telica sells its products to incumbent and emerging communications service providers including local, long distance, international and wireless telephone companies, wholesale network operators, cable operators and enhanced voice services providers. Telica's products have been installed in service provider networks in a range of applications, including circuit and packet switching at both the core and edge of wireline and wireless networks.

CUSTOMERS

Telica sells its products to local, long distance, international and wireless telephone companies, cable and wholesale network operators, and enhanced voice service providers. As of December 31, 2003, Telica had recognized revenue from sales of one or more of its products to more than 50 customers. To date, Telica has derived substantially all of its revenues from sales to customers located in North America. In 2001 and 2002, Telica derived a substantial portion of its total revenues from a limited number of customers, as a result of the nature of its target market and the early stage of its development. In 2003, Telica nearly doubled the number of customers from which it derived revenues. Verizon Communications accounted for 45% and Alcatel for 40% of Telica's total revenues in 2001. KMC Telecom accounted for 44% and Alcatel for 17% of Telica's total revenues in 2002. Telica provided consulting services to Alcatel during 2001 and 2002, but did not continue to provide such services after 2002. Rogers Wireless accounted for 31% of Telica's total revenues in 2003. No other customer accounted for more than 10% of Telica's total revenues in 2001, 2002 or 2003.

SALES AND MARKETING

Telica sells its products using a direct sales force to customers in North America, the Asia Pacific region, and Central and Latin America. Telica has sales representatives located in Australia, Canada and throughout the United States. Telica's sales force is supported by a group of sales engineers who provide technical sales support to one or more salespeople. As of March 31, 2004, Telica employed 17 salespeople, 11 sales engineers and two marketing personnel.

Telica's domestic sales effort is divided into two components. Telica maintains a group of regional vice presidents dedicated exclusively to major North American service providers. Telica also has several account directors located in different areas of the United States who are responsible for sales to smaller and emerging service providers. As a stand-alone company, Telica intended to increase the size of its direct sales force in order to address international market opportunities.

Telica's marketing personnel are located at its corporate headquarters in Marlborough, Massachusetts. Telica's marketing department is responsible for product literature, presentations, applications and other support materials. The marketing department also coordinates its participation in domestic and international trade shows and technical panels, public and media relations, and industry analyst contacts.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

Telica's team of engineers has experience in wireline, wireless, and cable network switching and routing technologies, including IP, asynchronous transfer mode, or ATM, and time division multiplexing, or TDM. As of March 31, 2004, Telica employed 148 engineers, of whom 134 were software and quality assurance engineers and 14 were hardware engineers. Telica's research and development expense totaled $23.0 million in 2001, $23.3 million in 2002 and $22.7 million in 2003. As a stand-alone company, Telica expected to continue to make substantial investments in research and development in order to enhance its existing products, maintain its technological competitiveness and develop new products that would meet its customers' evolving needs.

CUSTOMER SUPPORT AND PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

As of March 31, 2004, Telica had 18 employees providing customer support and 10 employees providing professional services to its customers. Telica operates a technical assistance center that is open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, capable of supporting its customers in aspects of their use of its products, including configuration and provisioning assistance, assistance with network design, deployment, implementation and trouble shooting.

Telica's professional services department offers customer assistance through a variety of activities ranging from initial planning to final commissioning and service cut-over. Telica's professional services offering includes the following key areas:

- Engineering, furnishing and installation. Telica provides a range of services to help customers design and install their networks, including facility preparation, installation, provisioning, turn-up, engineering drawings, as-built records, and turn-key applications. Telica installs its own equipment as well as auxiliary equipment from other vendors, and provide complete integration of both.
- Training. Telica provides customers with various training services, including training of additional staff not covered by the services included with the initial order, additional focused training in a particular area, or on-site training.
- On-going support. Telica's professional services team is also available to provide on-going operational support involving areas such as provisioning numbering and routing plans, billing record customization and on-going traffic load and performance evaluation.

COMPETITION

The market for voice infrastructure products is intensely competitive and characterized by rapid technological change and frequent new product introductions. Telica expects competition to continue to increase in the future.

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

Telica believes that its PLUS line of products competes favorably with competing products and technologies on the basis of product quality and reliability, product functionality and application support, customer service, and price.

Telica's primary sources of competition to date have included vendors of traditional service provider circuit switches, such as Alcatel, Ericsson, Nortel Networks and Siemens, and other vendors of service provider switching equipment that focus primarily on the service provider VoIP switch market, such as Sonus Networks and Tekelec. Cisco Systems also provides service provider VoIP switching equipment. Telica also competes with numerous private companies that provide products that compete with an element of its product line.

It is likely that equipment suppliers without competitive solutions today will introduce solutions in the future, either through internal development or acquisition. These new entrants are likely to devote significant sales and marketing resources to establish their position in the VoIP switching market and may be willing to price their products at a discount or bundle their products with other equipment or services in an attempt to rapidly gain market share. New product introductions or new market entrants could cause service providers to delay purchase decisions or reopen bidding processes.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Telica relies on a combination of patents, trademarks, copyrights and trade secret laws in the United States and other jurisdictions, as well as contractual provisions and licenses, to protect its proprietary rights and brands. Telica cannot, however, be sure that steps it takes to protect its proprietary rights will prevent misappropriation of its intellectual property.

As of March 31, 2004, Telica held three U.S. issued patents, three pending U.S. patent applications and one pending European patent application. These issued patents and pending patent applications relate to various systems and methods, including Switching System and Method, Fault Tolerant Mastership System and Method, Midplane Apparatus, Maintenance Link System and Method, Chassis Support Member, and Cable Guide System. The patents Telica owns will expire in 2021.

Telica seeks to protect its source code for its software, documentation and other written materials under trade secret and copyright laws. Telica also pursues foreign copyrights, trademarks and service marks where applicable and necessary. As of March 31, 2004, Telica held four registered U.S. trademarks.

Telica may not receive competitive advantages from the rights granted under its patents and other intellectual property rights. Others may develop technologies that are similar or superior to its proprietary technologies, duplicate its proprietary technologies or design around the patents owned or licensed by Telica. Telica's existing and future patents may be circumvented, blocked, licensed to others or challenged as to inventorship, ownership, scope, validity or enforceability. It is possible that literature Telica may be advised of by third parties in the future could negatively affect the scope or enforceability of either its present or future patents. Furthermore, its pending and future patent applications may not issue with the scope of claims sought by us, if at all, or the scope of claims Telica is seeking may not be sufficiently broad to protect its proprietary technologies. Moreover, Telica has adopted a strategy of seeking limited patent protection both in the United States and in foreign countries with respect to the technologies used in or relating to its products.

If its products, patents or patent applications are found to conflict with any patents held by third parties, Telica could be prevented from selling its products, its patents may be declared invalid or its patent applications may not result in issued patents. Telica may be required to initiate litigation in order to enforce any patents issued to Telica, or to determine the scope or validity of a third party's patent or other proprietary rights. In addition, Telica may in the future be subject to lawsuits by third parties seeking to enforce their own intellectual property rights.

Telica licenses its software pursuant to agreements that impose restrictions on customers' ability to use the software, such as prohibiting reverse engineering and limiting the use of copies. Telica also seeks to avoid disclosure of its intellectual property by requiring employees and consultants with access to its proprietary information to execute nondisclosure and assignment of intellectual property agreements. Other parties may not comply with the terms of their agreements with Telica, and Telica may not be able to enforce its rights adequately against these parties.

Telica has incorporated third-party licensed technology into its current product offerings. Some of this licensed technology is integral to its products and is critical to enabling its products to operate and interoperate with selected protocols and standards associated with its customers' existing networks and equipment. If these technology providers were to decline to continue to allow Telica to use these technologies for any reason, Telica would be required to (a) identify, license and integrate equivalent technology from another source, (b) rewrite the technology ourselves or (c) rewrite portions of its software to accommodate the change or no longer use the technology. Any one of these outcomes could prevent further sales or the implementation of its products, impair the functionality of its products, delay new product introductions, result in its substituting inferior or more costly technologies into its products, and/or injure its reputation.

MANUFACTURING AND SUPPLY

Telica outsources most of the manufacturing activities associated with its products to third-party contractors. The manufacturing process for Telica's products encompasses the fabrication and assembly of line cards, the midplane, the fabrication of the steel chassis that houses its products and the integration of the midplane, and the final assembly, system integration and testing of the finished product. Through its arrangement with Sanmina-SCI Corporation, a leading provider of comprehensive manufacturing services, the first stage of the manufacturing process is performed at four different locations in the United States at facilities operated by Sanmina. The second stage of the manufacturing process is performed by a different contract manufacturer located in Massachusetts, and Telica is currently seeking to develop a second source for these activities. The third stage of the manufacturing process, final testing and assembly of its products, is performed by Telica at its corporate headquarters. As of March 31, 2004, Telica had 12 employees in manufacturing and operations.

Telica obtains products from both of its contract manufacturers on a purchase order basis. Telica has not entered into, and, were Telica to remain a stand-alone entity, does not currently intend to enter into, long-term contracts with its outside manufacturers.

Telica purchases many of its standard components from a number of different suppliers. Telica purchases various key components from sole and limited source suppliers.

Telica obtains some components directly from suppliers and others through Sanmina. Telica believes that its arrangement with Sanmina provides Telica with a number of benefits, including reduced cost for some components and the ability to increase the volume of its orders on short notice. Telica does not maintain long-term agreements with any of its suppliers of components, including Sanmina, and conducts its business with such suppliers on a purchase order basis.

EMPLOYEES

As of April 20, 2004, Telica had a total of 250 employees, consisting of 148 engaged in research and development, 49 in sales, marketing and customer support, 14 in general and administrative activities, 12 in manufacturing and operations, 10 in professional services, seven in product line management, six in documentation and four in strategy and business development. None of Telica's employees are subject to collective bargaining agreements. Telica believes that its relations with its employees are good.

PROPERTIES

Telica leases its corporate headquarters of approximately 41,000 square feet in Marlborough, Massachusetts pursuant to a lease agreement that expires in 2007.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

On August 14, 2003, Tekelec, which owns 7,407,407 shares of Telica Series C Preferred Convertible Stock, filed an action in United States District Court for the Central District of California against Telica alleging that Telica breached its stockholder's agreement among Telica and certain of its stockholders. Tekelec subsequently amended its complaint to add claims for fraud and negligent misrepresentation against Telica, and breach of fiduciary duties against five members of Telica's board of directors. Tekelec is seeking specific performance of the stockholder's agreement and monetary damages in excess of $5 million. Telica and the director defendants filed answers denying the allegations. Telica also filed a counterclaim against Tekelec asserting claims for fraud, breach of contract, breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, and intentional interference with prospective economic advantage. On June 16, 2004, the Court vacated all trial and pre-trial dates.

The parties entered into a tolling agreement and contingent mutual releases as of June 8, 2004 in which they agreed that: (i) the statute of limitations and other defenses relating to the passage of time will be tolled from June 8, 2004 until October 15, 2004 unless extended by the parties, (ii) neither party will re-file any lawsuits based on the same claims and allegations until October 15, 2004 unless extended by the parties, and (iii) effective upon receipt by Tekelec of the shares of Lucent common stock (and any cash in lieu of any fractional share) to which it is entitled upon the closing of the merger, all parties will release the other parties from any and all claims based on or relating to any allegations asserted in the current lawsuit. This agreement, however, is contingent upon the Court's approval of the dismissal without prejudice of the current lawsuit. On July 13, 2004, the parties filed a stipulation seeking Court approval of the dismissals without prejudice. The Court has not approved or disapproved the stipulations.

If the action is not dismissed pursuant to the agreement described above, then this action will proceed to the discovery stage and Telica cannot predict when the action will be finally resolved. Telica disagrees with the allegations in the complaint and intends to continue to defend this action vigorously. Telica cannot predict the outcome of this action. An unfavorable outcome could have a material adverse effect on Telica's consolidated operating results and

The beneficial ownership information in the table does not give effect to the acceleration of vesting of certain options that would occur upon consummation of the merger. The number of shares of preferred stock included in the table below and the related footnotes are presented as if converted into common stock, in order to give effect to the different conversion ratios applicable to Telica's separate series of preferred stock outstanding as of May 21, 2004. DESCRIPTION OF LUCENT CAPITAL STOCK

The following summary of the capital stock of Lucent is subject in all respects to applicable Delaware corporate law and Lucent's charter, by-laws and rights agreement. See "Comparison of Rights of Common Stockholders of Lucent and Stockholders of Telica" below.

The total authorized shares of capital stock of Lucent consist of (1) 10 billion shares of common stock, $.01 par value per share, and (2) 250 million shares of preferred stock, $1.00 par value per share. At the close of business on May 21, 2004, approximately 4.3 billion shares of Lucent common stock were issued and outstanding and no shares of Lucent preferred stock were issued and outstanding.

The Lucent board of directors is authorized to provide for the issuance from time to time of Lucent preferred stock in series and, as to each series, to fix the designation, the dividend rate and the preferences, if any, which dividends on each series will have compared to any other class or series of capital stock of Lucent, the voting rights, if any, the voluntary and involuntary liquidation prices, the conversion or exchange privileges, if any, and the terms of redemption, if any, including the redemption price. Cumulative dividends, dividend preferences and conversion, exchange and redemption provisions, to the extent that some or all of these features may be present when shares of Lucent preferred stock are issued, could have an adverse effect on the availability of earnings for distribution to the holders of Lucent common stock or for other corporate purposes.

For a description of the rights to acquire Lucent junior preferred stock that are attached to shares of Lucent common stock, see "Comparison of Rights of Common Stockholders of Lucent and Stockholders of Telica -- Rights Plan" below.

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF COMMON STOCKHOLDERS OF LUCENT AND STOCKHOLDERS OF TELICA

The rights of Lucent and Telica stockholders are currently governed by Delaware corporate law and the respective charters and by-laws of Lucent and Telica. As a result of the merger, Telica stockholders will be entitled to become holders of Lucent common stock and the rights of the former Telica stockholders will thereafter be governed by Lucent's charter and by-laws, and Delaware corporate law.

The following summary sets forth certain differences that may affect the rights of stockholders of Lucent and stockholders of Telica but does not purport to be a complete statement of all those differences, or a complete description of the specific provisions referred to in this summary. The identification of specific differences is not intended to indicate that other equally or more significant differences do not exist. Stockholders should read carefully the relevant provisions of Delaware corporate law, Lucent's charter and by-laws, and Telica's charter and by-laws.

CAPITALIZATION

Lucent. Lucent's authorized capital stock is described above under "Description of Lucent Capital Stock."

Telica. The total authorized shares of capital stock of Telica consist of 140,000,000 shares of common stock, $.01 par value per share, and 128,937,999 shares of preferred stock, $.01 par value per share. At the close of business on May 21, 2004, Telica had issued and outstanding:

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

stock may be increased or decreased, but not below the numbers then outstanding, by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock entitled to vote, irrespective of the provisions of Section 242(b)(2) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

VOTING RIGHTS

Lucent. Each holder of Lucent common stock is entitled to one vote for each share held of record and may not cumulate votes for the election of directors.

Telica. Each holder of Telica common stock is entitled to vote on all matters and is entitled to one vote for each share. Each holder of Telica preferred stock is entitled to vote on all matters and is entitled to the number of votes equal to the whole number of shares of common stock into which the shares of preferred stock are convertible. Except as provided by law or in Telica's charter, holders of Telica preferred stock vote together with the holders of common stock as a single class on all matters.

NUMBER, ELECTION, VACANCY AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

Lucent. Lucent's board of directors has 11 members. Lucent's charter provides that the Lucent board of directors will consist of at least three directors and that the number of directors may be changed from time to time by a resolution adopted by a majority of the total number of directors that Lucent would have if there were no vacancies. All directors are elected for one-year terms at each annual meeting and, from and after the election of directors at the 2005 annual meeting of Lucent stockholders, holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Lucent common stock will be entitled to remove directors with or without cause.

Lucent's charter and by-laws provide that if there is a vacancy on the Lucent board of directors or if the number of directors is increased, those vacancies will be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors then in office, even though less than a quorum, and not by the stockholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy or newly created directorship will serve until the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders following his election by the directors. No decrease in the number of directors will shorten the term of any incumbent director.

Telica. Telica's board of directors has six members, and Telica's by-laws provide that the total number of directors on the board must not be less than three or more than seven. Telica's by-laws provide that the number of directors may be decreased at any time either by the stockholders or by a majority of the directors then in office, except that any decrease by a vote of directors may only be made to eliminate vacancies existing by reason of death, resignation or removal of one or more directors. The number of directors may be increased at any time by the stockholders or by a majority of the directors then in office. Directors are elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders and need not be stockholders of Telica. Each director holds office until the next annual meeting and until a successor is elected and qualified, or until his earlier death, resignation, removal or disqualification.

Telica's by-laws provide that vacancies and any newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors may be filled by vote of the stockholders at a meeting called for that purpose, or by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director. When one or more directors resigns from the board, effective at a future date, a majority of the directors then in office, including those who have resigned, will have power to fill such vacancy or vacancies by vote or written action. The vote or written action will take effect when the resignation or resignations become effective. Directors may resign by delivering a written resignation to Telica's president or secretary or to a meeting of the board of directors.

Telica's by-laws also provide that, except as otherwise provided by law or by Telica's charter, any number or all of the directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors.

AMENDMENTS TO CHARTER

Lucent. Lucent's charter provides that the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the voting stock then outstanding, voting together as a single class, will be required to alter, amend, adopt any provision inconsistent with or repeal Articles V, VII and VIII of Lucent's charter, which relate to stockholder action, the Lucent board of directors and Lucent's by-laws, respectively. All other charter amendments require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the voting stock then outstanding.

Telica. Telica's charter provides that Telica may not amend its charter without the approval, by vote or written consent, of the holders of shares of preferred stock constituting at least two-thirds of the voting power of the shares of preferred stock then outstanding, so long as at least 4,000,000 shares of preferred stock (subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of any dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization affecting such shares) are outstanding.

AMENDMENTS TO BY-LAWS

Lucent. Lucent's charter and by-laws provide that Lucent's by-laws may be altered or repealed and new by-laws may be adopted:

- at any annual or special meeting of stockholders, by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at that meeting, provided that, any proposed alteration or repeal of, or the adoption of, any by-law inconsistent with Section 2.2, 2.7 or 2.10 of Article II of Lucent's by-laws, which relate to special meetings of stockholders, notice of stockholder business and nominations and actions by written consent of stockholders, respectively, or with Section 3.2, 3.9 or 3.11 of Article III of Lucent's by-laws, which relate to the number and tenure of the directors, vacancies on the Lucent board of directors and removal of directors, respectively, by the stockholders requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the voting stock then outstanding, voting together as a single class; or
- by a majority of the total number of directors Lucent would have if there were no vacancies.

Telica. Telica's charter provides that Telica may not amend its by-laws without the approval, by vote or written consent, of the holders of shares of preferred stock constituting at least two-thirds of the voting power of the shares of preferred stock then outstanding, so long as at least 4,000,000 shares of preferred stock (subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of any dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization affecting such shares) are outstanding.

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

Telica's by-laws provide that its stockholders or its board of directors, when such power is conferred upon the board of directors by the charter, may alter, amend, repeal or adopt new by-laws at any regular meeting of the stockholders or of the board of directors or at any special meeting of the stockholders or of the board of directors.

STOCKHOLDER ACTION

Lucent. Lucent's charter provides that any action required or permitted to be taken by the Lucent stockholders must be effected at a duly called annual or special meeting and may not be effected by written consent.

Telica. Telica's by-laws provide that unless otherwise provided in the charter, any action that may be taken at a meeting of stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

NOTICE OF CERTAIN STOCKHOLDER ACTIONS

Lucent. Lucent's charter provides that a stockholder must give advance written notice of nominations for election of directors and to properly bring business before an annual meeting of stockholders. Under Lucent's by-laws, a stockholder's written notice must generally be delivered to the Secretary of Lucent not later than 45 days nor earlier than the 75 days prior to the first anniversary of the record date for determining stockholders entitled to vote at the preceding year's annual meeting.

If Lucent calls a special meeting of stockholders for the purpose of electing one or more directors to the Lucent board of directors, any stockholder may nominate a director or directors, provided that written notice must be delivered not earlier than 120 days prior to the special meeting and not later than (1) 90 days prior to that special meeting or (2) 10 days following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Lucent board of directors to be elected at that meeting.

Telica. Telica does not have any comparable notice requirement.

SPECIAL STOCKHOLDER MEETINGS

Lucent. Lucent's charter and by-laws provide that a special meeting of Lucent's stockholders may be called only by the Lucent board of directors by a resolution stating the purposes of the special meeting and approved by a majority of the total number of directors Lucent would have if there were no vacancies or by the chairman of the Lucent board of directors. Any power of the stockholders to call a special meeting is specifically denied in Lucent's charter.

Telica. Telica's by-laws provide that special meetings of the stockholders may be called at any time by the president of Telica and must be called by the president or secretary of Telica at the written request of a majority of the board of directors, or at the written request of the holders of at least ten percent of all capital stock entitled to vote at such meeting.

LIMITATION OF PERSONAL LIABILITY OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS AND INDEMNIFICATION

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

Lucent. Lucent's charter provides that a director will not be liable to Lucent or to its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except, if required by law, for liability:

- for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Lucent or its stockholders;
- for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
- under Section 174 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware regarding unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions; and
- for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Lucent's charter provides a right to indemnification to directors and officers of Lucent subject to the limitations under Delaware corporate law.

In addition, Lucent must indemnify any present or former director or officer of a corporation who has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any claim or proceeding for expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred.

Telica. Telica's charter provides that a director will not be liable to Telica or its stockholders for monetary damages resulting from a breach of his or her fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent that Delaware corporate law does not permit the elimination or limitation of such liability.

Telica's charter provides that Telica must indemnify anyone who is or was a Telica officer or director and who is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of Telica, or is or was serving at the request of Telica as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement incurred in connection with any action, suit or proceeding, to the maximum extent permitted by Delaware corporate law.

The indemnification rights provided in Telica's charter are not exclusive of any other rights of indemnification to which any director or officer may be entitled, under any by-law, agreement, vote of directors or stockholders or otherwise.

Pursuant to its by-laws, Telica will indemnify its officers and directors to the full extent Telica is permitted or required to do so by Delaware corporate law. Telica will advance expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by an officer or director of Telica in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of a director or officer to repay the advances if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by Telica. Telica has the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation has the power to indemnify such person under Delaware corporate law.

DIVIDENDS

Lucent. Lucent's by-laws provide that the Lucent board of directors may from time to time declare, and Lucent may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares in the manner and upon the terms and conditions provided by law and in Lucent's charter.

Telica. Telica's by-laws provide that Telica's board of directors may declare, and Telica may pay, dividends on its capital stock, subject to the provisions of Telica's charter.

Telica's charter provides that Telica may pay dividends or make distributions of common stock only if the holders of the preferred stock then outstanding receive a like distribution on each outstanding share of preferred stock, in an amount equal to the product of the per share amount, if any, of the dividends or distributions to be declared, paid or set aside for the common stock, multiplied by the number of shares of common stock into which the share of preferred stock is convertible as of the record date of the dividend or distribution.

Telica's charter provides that Telica may not declare or pay any dividends on common stock without the approval, by vote or written consent, of the holders of shares of preferred stock constituting at least two-thirds of the voting power of the shares of preferred stock then outstanding, so long as at least 4,000,000 shares of preferred stock (subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of any dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization affecting such shares) are outstanding.

LIQUIDATION

Lucent. Holders of Lucent common stock have no preferential rights with respect to liquidation.

Telica. Telica's charter provides that in the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Telica, holders of Telica preferred stock will be entitled to be paid out of Telica's assets legally available for distribution to its stockholders in the following order, subject to the maximum amounts specified below:

- The holders of shares of series C preferred stock will be entitled to receive an amount payable in cash or securities equal to $1.35 per outstanding share of series C preferred stock (subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of any stock dividend, stock split, combination or other such similar recapitalization of such shares), plus any declared and unpaid dividends. If upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Telica the remaining Telica assets available for distribution to its stockholders are insufficient to pay the holders of shares of series C preferred stock the full amount to which they are entitled, the holders of shares of series C preferred stock will share ratably in any distribution of the remaining assets of Telica in proportion to the respective amounts that would otherwise be payable in respect of the shares held by them upon distribution if all amounts payable with respect to such shares were paid in full.
- The holders of shares of series A preferred stock and series B preferred stock will be entitled to receive (i) in the case of the series A preferred stock, an amount equal to $1.00 per outstanding share of series

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

If upon any such liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Telica the remaining assets of Telica available for distribution to its stockholders are insufficient to pay the holders of shares of series A preferred stock and series B preferred stock, the full amount to which they are entitled, the holders of shares of series A preferred stock and series B preferred stock and any class or series of stock ranking on liquidation on a parity with the series A preferred stock and the series B preferred stock will share ratably in any distribution of the remaining Telica assets in proportion to the respective amounts that would otherwise be payable in respect of the shares held by them upon distribution if all amounts payable (prior to any distribution to holders of series B-1 preferred stock and common stock) with respect to such shares were paid in full.

- The remaining assets available for distribution will be distributed ratably among the holders of the series C preferred stock, series A preferred stock, series B preferred stock, series B-1 preferred stock and common stock on the basis of the holders of record of series C preferred stock, series A preferred stock, series B preferred stock and series B-1 preferred stock being entitled to the amount of distribution per outstanding share of preferred stock as would be payable on the largest number of whole shares of common stock into which each share of preferred stock could be converted.
- After the payment of all preferential amounts required to be paid to the holders of all series of preferred stock, except series B-1, any remaining assets of Telica available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of series B-1 preferred stock and common stock.

Under Telica's charter, distributions to the holders of Telica preferred stock upon a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Telica may not exceed:

- in the case of series C preferred stock, $4.05 per share;
- in the case of series A preferred stock, $3.00 per share; and
- in the case of series B preferred stock, $11.20 per share.

Pursuant to the amendment to Telica's certificate of incorporation, the form of which is included as Annex C to this prospectus, the merger described in this prospectus will not be deemed to be a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Telica. The proceeds of the merger will be distributed to Telica's stockholders pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement and the amendment to Telica's certificate of incorporation.

REDEMPTION RIGHTS

Lucent. Holders of Lucent common stock have no redemption rights.

Telica. Telica's charter provides that upon receipt of a written request for redemption from either (1) the holders of at least two-thirds of the voting power of the shares of series A preferred stock and series B preferred stock then outstanding, voting as a single class, or (2) the holders of at least two-thirds of the voting power of the shares of series C preferred stock then outstanding, voting as a separate class, Telica will redeem from each holder of shares of series A preferred stock, series B preferred stock and series C preferred stock the shares of series A preferred stock, series B preferred stock and series C preferred stock owned by such holder at a price equal to: $1.00 per share (in the case of series A convertible preferred stock), $3.733333 per share (in the case of series B convertible preferred stock) and $1.35 per share (in the case of series C convertible preferred stock) (in each case subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of any dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization affecting such shares) plus, in each case, any declared but unpaid dividends thereon and a dividend calculated according to a formula provided in Telica's charter.

The redemptions will be made in three installments beginning on the date set forth in the redemption request (which may not be less than 60 days after the redemption request) and continuing on the first and second anniversaries of this date. On each mandatory redemption date, Telica will redeem from each holder of preferred stock the following respective portions of the number of shares of preferred stock held:

- 33 1/3% on the first mandatory redemption date, which may not be earlier than May 1, 2005;
- 50% on the second mandatory redemption date; and
- 100% on the third mandatory redemption date.

Telica's charter provides that Telica must provide notice of any redemption request, specifying the time and place of redemption and the redemption price, to each holder of record of the series of preferred stock requesting the redemption, not less than 20 days before the applicable mandatory redemption date.

If Telica's funds legally available for redemption of any shares of preferred stock on any mandatory redemption date are insufficient to redeem the number of shares of preferred stock required to be redeemed, those funds that are legally available for redemption will be used to redeem the maximum possible number of shares of preferred stock, with the series C preferred stock having priority over the series A preferred stock and the series B preferred stock, and pari passu as among the series A preferred stock and the series B preferred stock based on relative mandatory redemption prices according to the respective amounts that would be payable to them if the full number of shares to be redeemed on such mandatory redemption date were actually redeemed. For so long as any shares of preferred stock that are required to have been redeemed but were not redeemed remain outstanding, the holders of such shares will be entitled to special voting rights. At any time thereafter when additional funds of Telica become legally available for redemption of preferred stock, such funds will be used, at the end of the next succeeding fiscal quarter, to redeem, to the extent of the available funds, the balance of the shares of which Telica was obligated to redeem.

Telica's charter further provides that any preferred stock redeemed by Telica will not be reissued, sold or transferred.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

Lucent. Lucent is a Delaware corporation. Under Delaware corporate law, appraisal rights are available to a stockholder of a corporation only in connection with certain mergers or consolidations involving that corporation. Appraisal rights are not available under Delaware corporate law if the corporation's stock is either:

- listed on a national securities exchange, as the Lucent common stock is, or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.; or
- held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders;

provided that appraisal rights will be available if the merger or consolidation requires stockholders to exchange their shares of Lucent common stock for anything other than:

- shares of the surviving corporation;
- shares of another corporation that will be listed on a national securities exchange, designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders;
- a combination of the foregoing; or
- cash in lieu of fractional shares.

Additionally, no appraisal rights are available if the corporation is the surviving corporation, and no vote of its stockholders is required for the merger.

Telica. Telica also is a Delaware corporation, and appraisal rights are available for shares of Telica common stock and preferred stock in connection with certain mergers or consolidations involving Telica.

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

RIGHTS PLAN

Lucent. Lucent has a rights agreement with The Bank of New York as rights agent. The following description of the rights agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms and conditions of the rights agreement. Stockholders should read carefully the rights agreement. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 38.

Under the rights agreement, rights attach to each share of Lucent common stock outstanding and, when exercisable, entitle the registered holder to purchase from Lucent one four-hundredth of a share of junior preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share, at a purchase price of $22.50 per one four-hundredth of a share, subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments.

The rights will not be exercisable until the earlier of:

- 10 days following a public announcement that a person or group has acquired beneficial ownership of 10% or more of the outstanding shares of Lucent common stock; or
- 10 business days, or that later date as may be determined by the Lucent board of directors, following the commencement of, or announcement of an intention to make, a tender offer or exchange offer, the consummation of which would result in a person or group acquiring beneficial ownership of 10% or more of the outstanding shares of Lucent common stock.

The rights will expire on March 31, 2006, unless that date is extended or unless the rights are earlier redeemed or exchanged by Lucent, in each case as summarized below.

If a person or group acquires beneficial ownership of 10% or more of the outstanding shares of Lucent common stock, each holder of a right, other than rights beneficially owned by that person or group, which become void, will have the right to receive upon exercise that number of shares of Lucent common stock having a market value of two times the purchase price provided for in the right. If Lucent is acquired in a merger or other business combination transaction or 50% or more of its consolidated assets or earning power are sold after a person or group acquires beneficial ownership of 10% or more of the outstanding shares of Lucent common stock, each holder of a right will have the right to receive upon exercise that number of shares of common stock of the acquiring company that at the time of that transaction will have a market value of two times the purchase price provided for in the right.

At any time after a person or group acquires beneficial ownership of 10% or more of the outstanding shares of Lucent common stock and prior to the acquisition by that person or group of 50% or more of the then outstanding shares of Lucent common stock, the Lucent board of directors may exchange the rights, other than rights owned by that person or group that have become void, in whole or in part, for Lucent common stock or junior preferred stock.

At any time prior to a person or group acquiring beneficial ownership of 10% or more of the outstanding shares of Lucent common stock, the Lucent board of directors may redeem the rights in whole, but not in part, at a redemption price of $0.0025 per right, subject to customary anti-dilution provisions, or may amend the terms of the rights, in each case, without the consent of the holders of the rights, at the time, on the basis and upon the conditions that the Lucent board of directors may establish.

Junior preferred shares purchasable upon exercise of the rights will not be redeemable. The junior preferred shares have dividend, voting and liquidation rights that are intended to result in the value of the one four-hundredth interest in a junior preferred share purchasable upon exercise of each right approximating the value of one share of Lucent common stock.

The rights may have antitakeover effects. The rights will cause substantial dilution to a person or group of persons that attempts to acquire Lucent on terms not approved by the Lucent board of directors. The rights should not interfere with any merger or other business combination approved by the Lucent board of directors prior to the time that a person or group has acquired such 10% beneficial ownership since the rights may be redeemed or amended by Lucent until such time.

Telica. Telica does not have a rights plan.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of Telica, Inc.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated balance sheets and the related consolidated statements of operations, redeemable convertible preferred stock and stockholders' deficit and cash flows present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Telica, Inc. and its subsidiary (collectively, the "Company") at December 31, 2002 and 2003, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of three years in the period ending December 31, 2003, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Company's losses from operations and limited capital resources raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in

Note 1. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

TELICA, INC.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2001, 2002 AND 2003

1. NATURE OF THE BUSINESS AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

Telica, Inc. designs, develops, manufactures, markets and sells carrier-class, multi-service broadband switching systems to ILECs ("Incumbent Local Exchange Carriers"), CLECs ("Competitive Local Exchange Carriers"), ISPs ("Internet Service Providers") and other communication carriers.

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Telica Australia Pty Ltd. (collectively, the "Company"). All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

LIQUIDITY AND OPERATIONS

The Company is subject to a number of risks similar to other companies in the industry including, but not limited to, new technological innovations, dependence on key personnel, protection of proprietary technology, compliance with government regulations, uncertainty of market acceptance of products and the potential need to obtain additional financing.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern, which contemplates continuity of operations, the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. The Company has accumulated a deficit of approximately $98.3 million through December 31, 2003, recorded a net loss of approximately $19.7 million during 2003 and used approximately $10.2 million of cash for operations during 2003. As of December 31, 2003, the Company had approximately $17.5 million in cash and cash equivalents and working capital of approximately $13.8 million. In the event the Company's operations are not profitable or do not generate sufficient cash to fund the business, or if the Company fails to obtain additional financing (Note 18), if required, management will have to substantially reduce its level of operations. These circumstances raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. These financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

UNAUDITED INTERIM FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Company for the three months ended March 31, 2004 are unaudited. In the opinion of management, the accompanying consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows at the date and for the period indicated, which adjustments, consist only of adjustments of a normal, recurring nature.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with remaining maturities of three months or less at the date of purchase to be cash equivalents. The Company invests excess cash primarily in money market funds of major financial institutions. Accordingly, these investments are subject to minimal credit risk and are reported at cost plus accrued interest, which approximates fair value. Cash equivalents as of December 31, 2002 and 2003 were $30,865,590 and $13,222,981, respectively.

FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The carrying amounts of the Company's financial instruments, which include cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable, capital lease obligations, and notes payable, approximate their fair values due to their short maturities.

TELICA, INC.

DERIVATIVES

During fiscal 2003, the Company entered into sales contracts outside of the United States with those transactions denominated in local currency. The Company entered into foreign currency forward contracts to hedge currency exposures associated with monetary assets denominated in local currency. The terms of currency instruments used for hedging purposes are consistent with the timing of the transactions being hedged. The Company does not use derivative financial instruments for trading or speculative purposes.

These contracts were used to reduce the Company's risk associated with exchange rate movements, as gains and losses on these contracts are intended to offset exchange losses and gains on underlying exposures. Changes in the fair value of these derivatives are recorded immediately in earnings, which are used to offset the changes in the underlying monetary position being hedged.

The Company had no outstanding contracts at December 31, 2003. Realized losses related to forward contracts hedging monetary positions were $49,585 for 2003. The contract losses on the items being hedged were included in product revenue. The Company did not enter into any foreign currency forward contracts during fiscal 2001 or 2002.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE, CONCENTRATION OF RISK AND SIGNIFICANT CUSTOMERS

Financial instruments which potentially expose the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash, cash equivalents and accounts receivable. The Company places its temporary cash in highly rated financial institutions. To minimize credit risk, ongoing credit evaluations of customers' financial condition are performed, although collateral generally is not required.

At December 31, 2002, four customers accounted for 54% of the Company's receivables. At December 31, 2003, four customers accounted for 46% of the Company's receivables.

The following table summarizes those customers who accounted for greater than 10% of the Company's revenues for the year ended December 31:

	2001	2002	2003
	----	----	----
Customer A.....	40%	17%	--
Customer B.....	45%	9%	1%
Customer C.....	3%	44%	5%
Customer D.....	--	--	31%

The Company currently outsources most of the manufacturing activities associated with its products to third party contractors. Although there are a limited number of manufacturers of the Company's product, management believes that other manufacturers could provide similar products on comparable terms. A change in manufacturers, however, could cause a delay in manufacturing and a possible loss of sales, which would affect operating results adversely.

INVENTORIES

Inventories, consisting of raw materials, work in process and finished goods, are stated at the lower of cost or market using the first-in, first-out ("FIFO") method. The Company regularly reviews inventory quantities on hand and records a provision to write down excess and obsolete inventory to its estimated net realizable value, based primarily on its estimated forecast of product demand.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment are recorded at cost and depreciated over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method. Property and equipment held under capital leases, which involve a transfer of ownership, are amortized over the estimated useful life of the asset. Other property and equipment held under capital leases and leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of the lease term or the estimated useful life of the related asset. Upon retirement or sale, the cost of assets disposed of and the related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is included in results of operations. Repairs and maintenance costs are charged to expense as incurred.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company derives revenues principally from product sales. Revenues are recognized in accordance with American Institute of Certified Public Accountant's Statement of Position 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition, and related interpretations and guidance. Revenue from product sales is recognized upon shipment provided evidence of an arrangement exists, no significant obligation remains with regard to installation or implementation, fees are fixed and determinable, collection of the resulting receivable is probable and no customer acceptance clauses exist. If customer acceptance clauses exist, revenue is deferred until customer acceptance.

For arrangements where multiple products or services are sold together under one contract, the Company uses the residual method to recognize revenues when an arrangement includes one or more elements to be delivered at a future date and evidence of the fair value of all the elements does not exist. Under the residual method, the fair value of the undelivered elements are deferred and the remaining portion of the arrangement fee is allocated to the delivered elements and recognized as revenue.

Maintenance and support revenue is recognized ratably over the term of the related arrangement, which is typically one year.

The Company also derives revenue from nonrecurring engineering and development services. The Company's services are performed under both time and material and fixed price arrangements. The Company recognizes service revenue on time and material contracts as the services are being provided. Revenue on fixed price contracts is recognized using the percentage of completion accounting method. Percentage of completion is determined by comparing the actual cost of work performed to date to the estimated total cost at completion for each contract. If estimates indicate a loss on a particular contract, a provision is made for the entire estimated loss when known.

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

Deferred revenues represent cash received from customers for products and services in advance of revenue recognition.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT AND SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT COSTS

Costs incurred in the research and development of the Company's products are expensed as incurred. Costs associated with the development of computer software are expensed prior to establishment of technological feasibility and capitalized thereafter until the product is available for general release to customers. Software development costs subject to capitalization through December 31, 2003 have been immaterial.

ADVERTISING COSTS

Costs related to advertising are charged to expense when incurred. Advertising costs were $205,161, $219,640 and $254,327 for the years ended December 31, 2001, 2002 and 2003, respectively.

COMPREHENSIVE INCOME (LOSS)

Comprehensive income (loss) is defined as the change in equity of a business enterprise during a period from transactions and other events and circumstances from nonowner sources, including foreign currency translation adjustments. For the year ended December 31, 2003, comprehensive income (loss) was not materially different from net income (loss).

ACCOUNTING FOR STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

The Company accounts for stock-based awards to employees using the intrinsic value method prescribed in Accounting Principles Board Opinion ("APB") No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations. Under this method, no stock-based compensation is recognized as long as the exercise price equals or exceeds the fair value of the underlying stock on the date of grant. The Company has adopted the disclosure only provisions permitted under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation and SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation -- Transition and Disclosure for Fixed Stock-Based Awards to Employees. Stock-based awards to nonemployees are accounted for under the provisions of SFAS No. 123 at fair value.

The following table illustrates the effect on net loss if the Company had applied the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, to stock-based employee compensation.

For purposes of the pro forma disclosure, the fair value of each option grant was estimated on the date of grant using the minimum value method with the following assumptions:

REDEEMABLE PREFERRED STOCK

The carrying value of redeemable convertible preferred stock is increased by periodic accretions so that the carrying amount will equal the redemption amount at the redemption date. Such accretions are recorded as redemption dividends, a separate component of stockholders' deficit.

INCOME TAXES

Deferred taxes are determined based on the difference between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect in the years in which the differences are expected to reverse. Valuation allowances are provided if, based upon the weight of available evidence, it is more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized.

USE OF ESTIMATES

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

The preparation of these consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The most significant estimates relate to revenue recognition, the realizability of accounts receivable and inventories, useful lives of assets, warranty and income tax liabilities, and the fair value of the Company's common stock. Actual results could differ from the estimates and assumptions.

FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSLATION

The functional currency of the Company's foreign operations are the applicable local currency. Foreign currency accounts are translated using the exchange rates prevailing at year-end for assets and liabilities and the average exchange rates during the year for results of operations. Translation adjustments are reported in other comprehensive income, a separate component of stockholder's deficit. For the year ended December 31, 2003, foreign currency translation was immaterial.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform with the current year's presentation.

3. RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In April 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued SFAS No. 149 ("SFAS 149"), Amendment of Statement 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. This statement amends SFAS 133 to provide clarification on the financial accounting and reporting of derivative instruments and hedging activities and requires contracts with similar characteristics to be accounted for on a comparable basis. This statement was effective for contracts entered into or modified after June 30, 2003 and for hedging relationships designated after June 30, 2003. The Company adopted SFAS 149 on July 1, 2003 and the adoption did not have a material effect on its consolidated financial position or results of operations.

In May 2003, FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards 150 ("SFAS 150"), Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of Both Liabilities and Equity. SFAS 150 establishes standards for how an issuer classifies and measures certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. It requires that an issuer classify a financial instrument that is within its scope as a liability. For all financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003, SFAS 150 is effective immediately. For all other instruments, SFAS 150 goes into effect at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003, except for mandatorily redeemable financial instruments of nonpublic entities which are subject to the provisions of this Statement for the first fiscal period beginning after December 15, 2003. The adoption of SFAS 150 is not expected to have any impact on our financial position or results of operations.

In January 2003, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 46, as amended by

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

FIN 46R, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, an Interpretation of ARB 51 ("FIN 46"). The primary objectives of FIN 46 are to provide guidance on the identification of entities for which control is achieved through means other than through voting rights ("variable interest entities" or "VIEs") and how to determine when and which business enterprise should consolidate the VIE. This new model for consolidation applies to an entity which either: (a) the equity investors (if any) do not have a controlling financial interest; or (b) the equity investment at risk is insufficient to finance that entity's activities without receiving additional subordinated financial support from other parties. In addition, FIN 46 requires that both the primary beneficiary and all other enterprises with a significant variable interest in a VIE make additional disclosures. FIN 46 is effective for all new VIEs created or acquired after January 31, 2003. For VIEs created or acquired prior to February 1, 2003, the provisions of FIN 46 must be applied for the first interim or annual period ending after March 15, 2004. The Company has not created or acquired any VIEs after January 31, 2003. The Company does not expect the adoption of FIN 46 to have a material impact on its financial position or results of operations.

6. NOTES PAYABLE

In October 2000, the Company entered into an agreement with a lender to establish an equipment line under which the Company could borrow up to $7,500,000 to finance fixed asset purchases through September 28, 2001. During 2001, the lender required the Company to restrict $7,233,866 of cash as the Company was in process of refinancing the note. During April 2002, the Company finalized a refinancing agreement with a new lender by entering into a new equipment line of credit with the new lender and as a result the cash was no longer restricted. The Company may borrow up to $7,500,000 to finance fixed asset purchases. Advances under this agreement are payable in 36 equal consecutive monthly installments commencing upon the draw down date. The Company used the sum of the proceeds to pay off the remaining balance on its prior equipment line. As of December 31, 2003, the Company had borrowed $7,500,000 under the facility and $3,350,980 was outstanding. No amounts are available for future borrowings under this agreement.

Borrowings under the facility are collateralized by substantially all of the assets of the Company and bear interest at the greater of 6.0% or the bank's prime rate plus 1.5% (6.0% at December 31, 2003). The agreement requires the Company to maintain certain financial, including a quick ratio of 1.75, and nonfinancial covenant. As of December 31, 2003, the Company was in compliance with all financial covenants.

Future minimum payments under the note payable are as follows:

YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31,

2004.....	$2,500,000
2005.....	850,980

8. PREFERRED STOCK

In July 1999, the Company authorized and issued 6,500,000 shares of redeemable Series A convertible preferred stock ("Series A preferred stock") for $1.00 per share, which resulted in proceeds of $6,428,606, net of issuance costs of $71,394.

In April 2000, the Company authorized 13,392,858 shares of redeemable Series B convertible preferred stock ("Series B preferred stock"), of which 12,723,216 shares were issued for $3.73 per share, which resulted in proceeds of $47,430,444, net of issuance costs of $69,558.

In October 2001, the Company amended its Articles of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of preferred stock from 19,892,858 to 128,937,999. The Company designated 44,444,444 shares as redeemable Series C convertible preferred stock ("Series C preferred stock"), 12,723,216 shares as redeemable Series B convertible preferred stock ("Series B preferred stock") 8,102,679 shares as Series B-1 Convertible Preferred Stock ("Series B-1 preferred stock"), and 49,760,253 shares remained undesignated ("undesignated preferred stock").

In October 2001, the Company issued 22,407,407 shares of Series C preferred stock to existing investors at a price of $1.35 per share and issued these investors 8,102,679 shares of Series B-1 preferred stock at no cost. As the shares of common stock were deemed to have minimal value at the time of the Series C financing round and the characteristics of B-1 preferred stock are essentially identical to the common stock, only par value was allocated to the Series B-1 preferred stock. In November and December 2001, the Company issued an additional 20,555,556 shares of Series C preferred stock for $1.35 per share. Total proceeds from the issuance of Series C preferred stock was $57,885,773, net of issuance costs of $114,228.

In March 2002, the Company issued 1,481,481 shares of Series C preferred stock for $1.35 per share which resulted in proceeds of $1,977,431, net of issuance costs of $22,568.

The Series A, B, B-1 and C preferred stock has the following characteristics:

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

VOTING

The holders of the Series A, B, B-1 and C preferred stock are entitled to vote, together with the holders of common stock, on all matters submitted to stockholders for a vote. Each preferred stockholder is entitled to the number of votes equal to the number of shares of common stock into which each Series A and B preferred stock is convertible at the time of such vote.

DIVIDENDS

The holders of the Series A, B, B-1 and C preferred stock are entitled to receive, when and as declared by the Board of Directors, out of funds legally available, noncumulative dividends at the rate of 8% per annum, payable in preference and priority to any payment of any dividend on common stock. No dividends or other distributions shall be made with respect to the common stock, until all declared dividends on the Series A, B, B-1 and C preferred stock have been paid. Through December 31, 2003, no dividends have been declared or paid by the Company.

LIQUIDATION PREFERENCE

In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the affairs of the Company, the holders of the then outstanding Series A, B, and C preferred stock shall receive for each share an amount equal to the sum of $1.00 per share of Series A preferred stock, $3.73 per share of Series B preferred stock and $1.35 per share of Series C preferred stock, plus all declared but unpaid dividends, payable in preference and priority to any payments made to the holders of the then outstanding common stock. The Series B-1 preferred stock has no liquidation preference.

If the assets of the Company available for distribution to the Company's stockholders exceed the aggregate amounts payable to the holders of the preferred stock pursuant to the liquidation price then such assets shall be distributed equally, on a per share basis, among the holders of the preferred stock (on an as-converted basis) and the holders of the common stock provided, however, that the holders of the Series A preferred stock shall receive no more than an aggregate of $3.00 per share, that the holders of the Series B preferred stock shall receive no more than an aggregate of $11.20 per share, and that the holders of the Series C preferred stock shall receive no more than an aggregate of $4.05 per share.

Any remaining assets shall be distributed equally, on a per share basis, among the holders of the common stock, and the holders of the preferred stock shall be entitled to no further distributions.

CONVERSION

Each share of preferred stock, at the option of the holder, is convertible into a number of fully paid shares of common stock as determined by dividing the respective preferred stock conversion price by the conversion value in effect at the time. At December 31, 2003, one share of Series A, B, B-1 and C preferred stock converts into three, one, 2.765, and one share(s) of common stock, respectively, subject to adjustment in accordance with antidilution provisions contained in the Company's Articles of Incorporation. Conversion is automatic immediately upon the closing of a firm commitment underwritten public offering in which the public offering price equals or exceeds $4.05 per share (adjusted to reflect subsequent stock dividends, stock splits or recapitalization) and the aggregate proceeds raised exceed $50,000,000.

REDEMPTION

The holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Series A, B, and C preferred stock may, by written request delivered after May 1, 2005, require the Company to redeem the preferred stock by paying in cash a sum equal to the original purchase price of the preferred stock plus any accrued but unpaid dividends, plus a dividend calculated at a rate of 8%, compounded annually, payable in three installments. The Series B-1 preferred stock has no redemption rights.

If the Company does not have sufficient funds legally available to redeem all shares of Series A, B, and C preferred stock at the date of redemption, then the Company shall redeem such shares ratably to the extent possible and shall redeem the remaining shares as soon as sufficient funds are legally available.

9. COMMON STOCK

Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote. The holders of common stock are also entitled to receive dividends whenever funds are legally available and when declared by the Board of Directors, subject to the prior rights of holders of all classes of stock outstanding.

The Company has entered into stock restriction agreements with certain stockholders. The agreements provide that, in the event these individuals cease to be a director or an employee of the Company, the Company has the right to repurchase any or all unvested shares at their original issuance price. Shares subject to the restriction vest over a four-year period (Note 11).

On March 30, 2000, the Company repurchased 1,365,633 such shares of unvested restricted common stock for cash of $4,552. In 2001, the Company repurchased 25,000 shares of common stock for cash of $11,250. At December 31, 2003, 5,209,688 shares of common stock were subject to repurchase by the Company at prices ranging from $0.03 to $0.05 per share.

At December 31, 2003, 106,297,421 shares of common stock have been reserved for issuance upon conversion of the outstanding preferred stock and exercise of stock options.

10. WARRANT

In September 1999, the Company issued a warrant to purchase 120,000 shares of common stock, at an exercise price of $0.03 per share, in consideration for consultation services. The warrant vested over a two-year period and fully vests upon a merger or consolidation of the Company with another entity, or the sale of all, or substantially all, of its assets. The warrant expires on September 15, 2009, and the value of the warrant determined using the Black-Scholes model was immaterial and recorded to additional paid-in capital.

In January 2001, the Company ended the aforementioned agreement for consultation services. In connection with the termination of the agreement, the

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

Company terminated the warrant to purchase 120,000 shares of common stock.

11. STOCK OPTION PLAN

In 1998, the Company adopted the 1998 Incentive and Nonqualified Stock Option Plan (the "Plan") under which 15,044,594 shares of the Company's common stock are authorized for issuance to employees, directors and consultants. On January 23, 2002, the Company amended the Plan to increase the number of shares of common stock reserved for issuance from 15,044,594 to 18,044,594. On September 12, 2003, the Company amended the Plan to increase the number of shares of common stock reserved for issuance from 18,044,594 to 18,844,594. On December 11, 2003, the Company amended the Plan to increase the number of shares of common stock reserved for issuance from 18,844,594 to 19,144,594.

Grants under the Plan may be incentive stock options, restricted stock or nonstatutory stock options. The Board of Directors determines the period over which options become exercisable; however, except in the case of options granted to officers, directors and consultants, options shall become exercisable at a rate of not less than 25% per year over four years from the date of employment or, in the case of nonemployee, the date granted. The exercise price of incentive stock options shall be no less than 100% of the fair value per share of the Company's common stock on the grant date. If an individual owns stock representing more than 10% of the outstanding shares, the price of each share shall be at least 110% of fair market value, as determined by the Board of Directors. The term of the options is ten years, or five years, in the case of a greater-than-10% stockholder.

During 2001, 2002 and 2003, the Company granted 4,437,188, 2,245,000 and 0 shares of restricted stock (Note 9) and options to purchase 1,833,950, 630,900 and 295,750 shares, respectively, to employees at exercise prices ranging from $0.01 to $0.15, which were below the estimated fair market value of the common stock at the date of grant. Deferred compensation of $1,369,773, $615,311 and $130,130 was recorded in accordance with APB No. 25 for 2001, 2002 and 2003, respectively. Deferred compensation will be amortized over the four-year vesting period of both the restricted common stock and the stock options granted. Compensation expense of $0, $486,663 and $467,888 were recognized for the years ended December 31, 2001, 2002 and 2003, respectively.

At December 31, 2003, the Company had federal and state net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $92,100,000 and $90,152,000, respectively, available to reduce future taxable income and which expire at various dates through 2023. The Company also has federal and state research and development credit carryforwards of approximately $3,457,000 and $2,624,000, respectively, available to reduce future tax liabilities which expire at various dates beginning in 2014 through 2022.

Under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, certain substantial changes in the Company's ownership may limit the amount of net operating loss and tax credit carryforwards which may be utilized, on an annual basis, to offset future taxable income and taxes liabilities.

Management of the Company has evaluated the positive and negative evidence bearing upon the realizability of its deferred tax assets. As required under the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, Accounting for income Taxes ("SFAS 109"), management has determined that it is more likely than not that the Company will not recognize the benefits of its deferred tax assets and, as a result, a full valuation allowance has been applied at December 31, 2003.

13. EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN

During 1999, the Company established a defined contribution savings plan under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Plan"). This plan covers substantially all employees who meet minimum age and service requirements and allows participants to defer a portion of their annual compensation on a pre-tax basis. Company contributions to the Plan may be made at the discretion of the Board of Directors. Through December 31, 2003, there were no contributions made to the Plan by the Company.

15. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

On August 14, 2003, Tekelec, which holds preferred stock representing approximately 6% of Telica's capital stock (on an as-converted basis), filed an action in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California against Telica, alleging that Telica was in breach of the stockholders' agreement between it and some of its stockholders. Tekelec alleges that, under the terms of the stockholders' agreement, Telica was required to provide Tekelec with financial information regarding Telica, and that Telica improperly amended that agreement to avoid any requirement to provide such information to Tekelec. Tekelec contends that, because it was denied information to be provided under the stockholders' agreement, it was unable to monitor the value of its investment and therefore was unable to discover a purported diminution in value. The complaint seeks specific performance of the stockholders' agreement (i.e., an order requiring Telica to provide the information sought by Tekelec) and damages for the purported breach of that agreement.

On September 15, 2003, Tekelec filed a first amended complaint adding claims that Telica breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing and that each of Telica's directors breached his fiduciary duty. On November 7, 2003, Telica filed an answer denying Tekelec's allegations and a counterclaim against Tekelec for breach of the stockholders' agreement by acquiring a controlling interest in a competitor of Telica, breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, fraud, and intentional interference with Telica's prospective economic advantage. Telica's directors also filed their answer on November 7, 2003. On December 5, 2003, Tekelec filed an answer denying the allegations of Telica's counterclaim.

TELICA, INC.

On April 13, 2004, Tekelec filed an ex parte application for leave to file a second amended complaint as well as a proposed second amended complaint. The proposed second amended complaint added new causes of action for fraud and deceit, and negligent misrepresentation. Tekelec alleged that Telica falsely represented that the value of Tekelec's investment in Telica had not declined from its initial value. On April 14, 2004, Telica filed an opposition to Tekelec's ex parte application. On May 11, 2004, the court, among other things, granted Tekelec's ex parte application filed on April 13, 2004 and set a trial date of September 14, 2004.

This action is in the discovery stage and Telica cannot predict when this action will be finally resolved. Telica disagrees with the allegations in the complaint and intends to continue to defend this action vigorously. Telica cannot predict the outcome of this action, however, and an unfavorable outcome could have a material adverse effect on Telica's consolidated operating results and cash flows in the period in which this action is resolved. In addition, defending this action may be costly and may divert Telica's management's attention (Note 17).

The Company is not a party to any other material litigation and is not aware of any other pending or threatened litigation against the Company that could have a material adverse effect upon the business, operating results or financial condition.

LEASES

The Company leases its office space and certain office and computer equipment under noncancelable operating leases which expire on December 31, 2007. Total rent expense under these operating leases was $570,737, $694,815 and $650,364 for the years ended December 31, 2001, 2002 and 2003, respectively.

GUARANTOR ARRANGEMENTS

In November 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued FASB Interpretation No. 45 Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others an Interpretation of FASB Statements No. 5, 57, and 107 and Rescission of FASB Interpretation No. 34 ("FIN 45"). The Interpretation requires that a guarantor recognize, at the inception of a guarantee, a liability for the fair value of the obligation undertaken by issuing the guarantee. The Interpretation also requires additional disclosures to be made by a guarantor in its financial statements about its obligations under certain guarantees it has issued. The accounting requirements for the initial recognition of guarantees are applicable on a prospective basis to guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002. The disclosure requirements are effective for financial statements ending after December 15, 2002. The following is a summary of agreements that the Company has within the scope of FIN No. 45.

F-20

TELICA, INC.

As permitted under Delaware law, the Company has agreements whereby officers and directors are indemnified for certain events or occurrences while the officer or director is, or was serving, at the Company's request in such capacity. The term of the indemnification period is for the officer's or director's lifetime. The maximum potential amount of future payments the Company could be required to make under these indemnification agreements is unlimited; however, the Company has a Director and Officer insurance policy that limits exposure and enables it to recover a portion of any future amounts paid. As a result of the Company's insurance policy coverage, the Company believes the estimated fair value of these indemnification agreements is minimal.

The Company enters into standard indemnification agreements in the ordinary course of business. Pursuant to these agreements, the Company will indemnify, hold harmless, and agree to reimburse the indemnified party for losses suffered or incurred by the indemnified party, generally business partners or customers, in connection with any U.S. patent, or any copyright or other intellectual property infringement claim by any third party with respect to the Company's products. The term of these indemnification agreements is generally perpetual any time after execution of the agreement. The maximum potential amount of future payments the Company could be required to make under these indemnification agreements is unlimited. The Company has never incurred costs to defend lawsuits or settle claims related to these indemnification agreements. As a result, the Company believes the estimated cost of these agreements is minimal.

16. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

In fiscal 2002, the Company entered into two note receivable agreements with two executives of the Company for $45,312 and $9,204. The notes accrue interest at 4.75% and are due in installments beginning December 2005 or upon a liquidation event. The notes are collateralized by common stock of the Company owned by the executives.

17. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On January 26, 2004, the Company granted 534,000 shares of Common Stock below fair value, to a new member of the Board of Directors and certain of the Company's employees at an exercise price of $0.15 per share.

On April 1, 2004, the Company amended the 1998 Incentive and Nonqualified Stock Option Plan to increase the number the shares of common stock reserved for issuance from 19,144,594 to 21,569,594. During April and May of 2004 the company also granted 2,598,185 shares of Common Stock below fair value, to certain of the Company's employees at an exercise price of $0.25 per share.

On May 21, 2004, the Company forgave notes receivable of $54,516 from two executives of the Company.

On June 16, 2004, Tekelec and Telica represented to the Court that they intend to dismiss the action without prejudice. The Court has vacated all trial and pre-trial dates.

18. LUCENT ACQUISITION (UNAUDITED)

On May 21, 2004, Lucent Technologies Inc. ("Lucent") and the Company entered into a merger agreement under which Telica will merge with a newly formed subsidiary of Lucent and thereby become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lucent. The merger received all requisite corporate approvals of Telica's board and stockholders, and is expected to be completed during the third quarter of calendar year 2004. Lucent will issue 92,747,629 shares of its common stock to the stockholders of Telica and to the holders of Telica stock options upon exercise of those options pursuant to the merger agreement. Telica stockholders will be entitled to receive shares of Lucent common stock in exchange for their shares of Telica preferred stock and common stock. The number of shares of Lucent common stock issuable to each Telica stockholder will be determined based on specified conversion ratios.

SECTION 262 OF THE GENERAL CORPORATION LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE (APPRAISAL RIGHTS)

SECTION 262. Appraisal rights.

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to sec. 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to sec. 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to sec. 251(g) of this title), sec. 252, sec. 254, sec.257, sec. 258, sec. 263 or sec. 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of sec. 251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to sec.sec. 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof:

b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders:

c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or

d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under sec. 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to sec. 228 or sec. 253 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(1) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.

D. The Board of Directors of each of Acquiror, Acquisition and the Company has determined that the merger of Acquisition with and into the Company (the "Merger") in accordance with the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, as amended (the "DGCL"), and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, is advisable and in the best interests of Acquiror, Acquisition and the Company and their respective stockholders.

E. The Board of Directors of each of Acquiror, Acquisition and the Company has approved this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

F. The parties intend that, for federal income Tax purposes, the Merger shall qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and that this Agreement shall constitute a plan of reorganization.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto intending to be legally bound do hereby agree as follows:

B-1

(b) The Merger shall become effective at the time of filing of a Certificate of Merger, substantially in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto (the "Certificate of Merger"), with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware in accordance with the provisions of Section 251 of the DGCL, or at such later time as may be stated in the Certificate of Merger or such later date as the parties may mutually agree (the "Effective Time"). The closing of the Merger (the "Closing") shall take place at the offices of Lowenstein Sandler PC, 65 Livingston Avenue, Roseland, New Jersey at 10:00 A.M. two Business Days after the date on which the last of the conditions set forth in Section 6 shall have been satisfied or waived, or on such other date, time and place as the parties may mutually agree (the "Closing Date").

(c) At the Effective Time, the effect of the Merger shall be as provided in the applicable provisions of the DGCL. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject thereto, at the Effective Time, all of the property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises of the Company and Acquisition shall vest in the Surviving Corporation, and all of the debts, liabilities, obligations, restrictions, disabilities and duties of the Company and Acquisition shall become the debts, liabilities, obligations, restrictions, disabilities and duties of the Surviving Corporation.

1.2 Certificate of Incorporation. The certificate of incorporation of the Company shall be amended in the Merger to read in its entirety as set forth on Annex A to the Certificate of Merger that is attached hereto as Exhibit A and as so amended shall be the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as provided therein and by law.

1.3 By-Laws. The by-laws of Acquisition, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the by-laws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as provided therein and by law.

1.4 Directors and Officers. From and after the Effective Time, (a) the directors of Acquisition at the Effective Time shall be the initial directors of the Surviving Corporation, each to hold office in accordance with the certificate of incorporation and by-laws of the Surviving Corporation, and (b) the officers of Acquisition at the Effective Time shall be the initial officers of the Surviving Corporation, in each case, until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified.

1.5 Conversion of Securities. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Acquisition, the Company or the holders of any of the following securities:

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

be made with respect thereto; and

(c) subject to the provisions of Sections 1.6 and 1.8, each share of Company Capital Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than (i) shares canceled in accordance with Section 1.5(b) and (ii) Dissenting Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive (A) in the case of each share of Company Common Stock, 0.45901058 (such number as adjusted in accordance with Section 1.6, the "Common Stock Exchange Ratio"), (B) in the case of each share of Series A Preferred Stock, 1.37703185 (such number as adjusted in accordance with Section 1.6, the "Series A Exchange Ratio"), (C) in the case of each share of Series B Preferred Stock, 1.58872601 (such number as adjusted in accordance with Section 1.6, the "Series B Exchange Ratio"), (D) in the case of each share of Series B-1 Preferred Stock, 1.26936264 (such number as adjusted in accordance with Section 1.6, the "Series B-1 Exchange Ratio") and (E) in the case of each share of Series C Preferred Stock, 0.86752380 (such number as adjusted in accordance with Section 1.6, the "Series C Exchange Ratio"; each of the Common Stock Exchange Ratio, the Series A Exchange Ratio, the Series B Exchange Ratio, the Series B-1 Exchange Ratio and the Series C Exchange Ratio is referred to as an "Exchange Ratio" and collectively referred to as the "Exchange Ratios"), of a validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of Acquiror Common Stock including the corresponding percentage right (the "Right") to purchase shares of junior preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share, pursuant to the Rights Agreement, dated as of April 4, 1996, between Acquiror and The Bank of New York (successor to First Chicago Trust Company of New York), as Rights Agent. All references in this Agreement to Acquiror Common Stock to be received in accordance with the Merger shall be deemed, from and after the Effective Time, to include the Rights. As of the Effective Time and subject to Section 1.7, each share of Company Capital Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled, and each holder of a certificate representing any shares of Company Capital Stock shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto other than the right to receive (i) shares of Acquiror Common Stock to be issued in consideration therefor upon the surrender of such certificate, (ii) any dividends and other distributions in accordance with Section 1.9(c) and (iii) any cash, without interest, to be paid in lieu of any fractional share of Acquiror Common Stock in accordance with Section 1.8.

1.6 Adjustment of the Exchange Ratios. In the event that, prior to the Effective Time, any stock split, combination, reclassification or stock dividend with respect to the Acquiror Common Stock, any change or conversion of Acquiror Common Stock into other securities or any other dividend or distribution with respect to the Acquiror Common Stock (other than regular quarterly dividends) should occur or, if a record date with respect to any of the foregoing should occur, appropriate and proportionate adjustments shall be made to each Exchange Ratio, and thereafter all references to an Exchange Ratio shall be deemed to be to such Exchange Ratio as so adjusted.

1.7 Dissenting Shares.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, shares of Company Capital Stock that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and which are held by stockholders who shall not have consented to the Merger in writing and who shall have demanded properly in writing appraisal for such shares in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL (collectively, the "Dissenting Shares") shall not be converted into or represent the right to receive the consideration set forth in Section 1.5(c). Such stockholders shall be entitled to receive such consideration as is determined to be due with respect to such Dissenting Shares in accordance with the provisions of Section

The shares of Acquiror Common Stock so delivered to the Escrow Agent shall be delivered in exchange for Company Capital Stock pursuant to the Merger and shall be registered in the name of the Escrow Agent as nominee for the holders of Certificates canceled pursuant to this Section 1.9. Such shares shall be beneficially owned by such holders, shall be held in escrow and shall be available to compensate Acquiror as provided in Section 8. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by Acquiror, the Escrow Agent or the Exchange Agent, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the shares of Company Capital Stock in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by Acquiror, the Escrow Agent or the Exchange Agent. (f) At the close of business on the day on which the Effective Time occurs, the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed and thereafter there shall be no further registration of transfers of shares of Company Capital Stock on the records of the Company. Any portion of the Exchange Fund which remains undistributed to the former holders of Company Capital Stock for six (6) months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Acquiror, upon its request, and any such former holders who have not theretofore surrendered to the Exchange Agent their Certificates in compliance herewith shall thereafter look only to Acquiror for payment of their claim for shares of Acquiror Common Stock, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Acquiror Common Stock and any dividends or distributions with respect to such shares of Acquiror Common Stock. None of Acquiror, Acquisition, the Exchange Agent, the Escrow Agent or the Company shall be liable to any former holder of Company Capital Stock for any such shares of Acquiror Common Stock held in the Exchange Fund or in escrow hereunder (and any cash, dividends and distributions payable in respect thereof) which are delivered to a public official pursuant to an official request under any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

any of its Affiliates to (a) solicit, initiate, or encourage the submission of, any Acquisition Proposal (as hereinafter defined), (b) enter into any agreement or understanding with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or (c) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any Person any information for the purpose of facilitating the making of, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of, any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal. Without limiting the foregoing, it is understood that any violation, of which the Company or any of its Affiliates had knowledge at the time of such violation, of the restrictions set forth in the immediately preceding sentence by any officer, director, employee, investment banker, attorney, employee, or other adviser or representative of the Company or any of its Affiliates, whether or not such Person is purporting to act on behalf of the Company or any of its Affiliates or otherwise, shall be deemed to be a breach of this Section 5.4 by the Company and its Affiliates. 5.5 Filings; Other Actions.

(a) As promptly as reasonably practicable after the date hereof, Acquiror shall prepare and file the Registration Statement with the SEC. The Registration Statement shall include an information statement/ prospectus or a proxy statement/prospectus, as Acquiror shall reasonably determine (in either case, the "Prospectus"). Acquiror acknowledges that the Company and its counsel may participate in the preparation of the Registration Statement, provided that the final determination of any issues related thereto (other than with respect to the information in the Company S-4 Disclosure) shall be made by Acquiror. Acquiror shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as reasonably practicable after such filing. The Acquiror will advise the Company, promptly after it receives notice thereof, of the issuance by the SEC of any stop order or of any order preventing or suspending the use of the Prospectus, of the suspension of the qualification of the Acquiror Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, of the initiation or threat of any proceeding for any such purpose, or of any request by the SEC for the amending or supplementing of the Registration Statement or for additional information. In the event of the issuance of any stop order or of any order preventing or suspending the use of the Prospectus or suspending any such qualification, the Acquiror will promptly use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the withdrawal of such order. Acquiror shall also take such actions (other than qualifying to do business in any jurisdiction in which Acquiror is now not so qualified) as may be required to be taken under any applicable state securities laws in connection with the issuance of Acquiror Common Stock in the Merger and upon the exercise of the Adjusted Options. The Company shall furnish all information concerning the Company and the holders of Company Capital Stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any of the foregoing. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Prospectus to be mailed to its stockholders as promptly as practicable after the Registration Statement becomes effective.

5.6 Company Stock Options.

(a) As soon as practicable following the date of this Agreement, the Board of Directors of the Company (or, if appropriate, any committee administering the Company's Restated 1998 Incentive and Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan (the "Company Stock Plan")) shall adopt such resolutions or take such other actions as may be required to effect the following:

(i) adjust the terms of all outstanding options to purchase shares of Company Capital Stock under the Company Stock Plan (the "Company Stock Options"), whether vested or unvested, as necessary to provide that, at the Effective Time, each Company Stock Option outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be amended and converted into an option to acquire, on substantially the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such Company Stock Option, the number of shares of Acquiror Common Stock (rounded down to the nearest whole share) equal to (A) the number of shares of Company Capital Stock subject to such Company Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by (B) the Exchange Ratio which corresponds with the class or series of Company Capital Stock covered by such Company Stock Option (the "Applicable Exchange Ratio"), at an exercise price per share of Acquiror Common Stock (rounded up to the nearest 1/100th of a whole cent) equal to (x) the exercise price per share

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, Acquiror shall deliver to the holders of Company Stock Options appropriate notices (the "Company Stock Option Notices") setting forth (i) such holders' rights pursuant to the Company Stock Plan and the agreements evidencing the grants of such Company Stock Options and that such Company Stock Options and agreements shall be assumed by Acquiror and shall continue in effect on the same terms and conditions (subject to the adjustments required by this Section 5.6 after giving effect to the Merger) and (ii) the procedures for the exercise of the Adjusted Options. Subject to Section 5.16, the term, exercisability, vesting schedule (including acceleration) and other material terms of the Company Stock Options shall otherwise remain unchanged.

(c) A holder of an Adjusted Option may exercise such Adjusted Option in whole or in part by (i) following the exercise procedures to be delivered by Acquiror as set forth in the Company Stock Option Notice and (ii) concurrently delivering to Acquiror the consideration therefor and the federal withholding Tax information, if any, required in accordance with the related Company Stock Plan.

(d) Except as otherwise contemplated by this Section 5.6 and except to the extent required under the respective terms of the Company Stock Options, all restrictions or limitations on transfer and vesting with respect to Company Stock Options awarded under the Company Stock Plan or any other plan, program or arrangement of the Company or its Subsidiary, to the extent that such restrictions or limitations shall not have already lapsed, shall remain in full force and effect with respect to such options after giving effect to the Merger and the assumption by Acquiror as set forth above.

(e) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, each restricted stock purchase agreement (each such agreement, as such agreement may be modified pursuant to Section 5.16, a "Restricted Stock Agreement") set forth on Schedule 5.6 shall be assumed by Acquiror and each share of restricted Company Capital Stock which is outstanding and unvested thereunder at or immediately prior to the Effective Time pursuant to the Company Stock Plan or any other plan, program or arrangement of the Company or its Subsidiary shall be converted into the right to receive a fraction (such fraction to equal the Applicable Exchange Ratio as adjusted in accordance with Section 1.6) of a validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of Acquiror Common Stock including the corresponding percentage Right, subject to the same restrictions and vesting as set forth in each such Restricted Stock Agreement (the "Substitute Restricted Stock").

B-29

(f) No later than twenty (20) days after the Effective Time, Acquiror shall prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-8 (or another appropriate form) registering the number of shares subject to the Adjusted Options. Such registration statement shall be kept effective (and the current status of the prospectus required thereby shall be maintained in accordance with the relevant requirements of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act) at least for so long as any Adjusted Options remain outstanding.

5.7 Company Stock Plans. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger,

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

the Company Stock Plan and the Company Stock Options granted thereunder shall be assumed by Acquiror, with the result that all obligations of the Company under the Company Stock Plan, including with respect to awards outstanding at the Effective Time under each Company Stock Plan, shall be obligations of Acquiror following the Effective Time; provided, that in the case of any Company Stock Option to which Section 421 of the Code applies by reason of its qualification under Section 422 of the Code, the option price, number of shares purchasable pursuant to such Company Stock Option and the terms and conditions of exercise of such Company Stock Option shall be determined in order to comply with Section 424 of the Code.

5.8 Employee Benefit Plans; Existing Agreement.

(a) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time (the "Benefits Date"), Acquiror shall provide, or cause to be provided, employee benefit plans, programs and arrangements to employees of the Company that are the same as those made generally available to similarly situated employees of Acquiror who are hired by Acquiror after December 31, 2003 and are not represented by any union. From the Effective Time to the Benefits Date (which the parties acknowledge may occur on different dates with respect to different plans, programs or arrangements of the Company) (the "Continuation Period"), Acquiror shall provide, or cause to be provided, the employee benefit plans, programs and arrangements of the Company provided to employees of the Company as of the date hereof.

(b) With respect to each benefit plan, program practice, policy or arrangement maintained by Acquiror (the "Acquiror Plans") in which employees of the Company subsequently participate, for purposes of determining vesting and entitlement to benefits, including for severance benefits and vacation entitlement (but not for accrual of pension benefits), service with the Company (or predecessor employers to the extent the Company provides past service credit) shall be treated as service with Acquiror; provided, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits. Such service also shall apply for purposes of satisfying any waiting periods, evidence of insurability requirements, or the application of any pre-existing condition limitations. Each Acquiror Plan shall waive pre-existing condition limitations to the same extent waived under the applicable Company Benefit Plan. Company Employees shall be given credit for amounts paid under a corresponding benefit plan during the same period for purposes of applying deductibles, co-payments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Acquiror Plan.

5.9 Indemnification.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, Acquiror shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, fulfill and honor in all respects the obligations of the Company to indemnify each Person who is or was a director or officer (an "Indemnified Party") of the Company or its Subsidiary pursuant to any indemnification provision of the Company's certificate of incorporation or by-laws as each is in effect on the date hereof.

(b) Prior to the Closing, the Company shall have the right to purchase, for an aggregate price not to exceed 375% of the current annual premium paid by the Company for its officers' and directors' liability insurance, a so-called "tail" policy enabling the Surviving Corporation to maintain in effect, for a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time, the current officers' and directors' liability insurance maintained by the Company with respect to its directors and officers, such "tail" policy to cover acts or omissions occurring prior to the Effective Time.

B-30

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no provision of this Section 5.9 shall obligate Acquiror to indemnify, or to cause the Surviving Corporation to indemnify, any Person for civil penalties, disgorgement or prejudgment interest if such Person is found liable for fraud, in any action brought by the SEC, unless such indemnification is required by the DGCL.

5.10 Comfort Letters.

(a) At Acquiror's request, the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause to be delivered to Acquiror a "comfort" letter of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Company's independent public accountants, dated the date on which the Registration Statement shall become effective and as of the Effective Time, and addressed to Acquiror and the Company, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Acquiror and reasonably customary in scope and substance for letters delivered by independent public accounts in connection with transactions such as those contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) If Acquiror makes the request contemplated by Section 5.10, then Acquiror shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause to be delivered to the Company a "comfort" letter of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Acquiror's independent public accountants, dated the date on which the Registration Statement shall become effective, addressed to the Company and Acquiror, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company and reasonably customary in scope and substance for letters delivered by independent public accountants in connection with transactions such as those contemplated by this Agreement.

5.11 Stock Exchange Listing. Acquiror shall use its reasonable best efforts to list on the NYSE, upon official notice of issuance, the shares of Acquiror Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Merger and upon exercise of Adjusted Options.

5.12 Affiliates. As soon as practicable after the date hereof, the Company shall deliver to Acquiror a letter identifying all Persons who are, at the time this Agreement is submitted for adoption by the stockholders of the Company, "affiliates" of the Company for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause each such Person, and any other Person reasonably determined by Acquiror to be an "affiliate" of the Company to deliver to Acquiror, as of the Closing Date, a written agreement substantially in the form attached as Exhibit D hereto (a "Rule 145 Letter").

5.13 Notification of Certain Matters. The Company shall give prompt notice to Acquiror, and Acquiror shall give prompt notice to the Company, of (a) the occurrence, or non-occurrence, of any event which would be likely to cause (i) any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement to be untrue or inaccurate in any material respect or (ii) any covenant, condition or agreement contained in this Agreement not to be complied with or satisfied; and (ii) any failure of the Company, Acquiror or Acquisition, as the case may be, to comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it hereunder; provided that the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 5.13 shall not limit or otherwise affect the remedies available to the party receiving such notice.

5.14 Reorganization. Neither Acquiror, Acquisition, the Company or its Subsidiary will take any action or fail to take any action between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time which action or failure would reasonably be expected to jeopardize the qualification of the Merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

5.15 Actions by the Parties. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, each of the parties hereto will use its reasonable best efforts to take or cause to be taken all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable law and regulations to consummate and make effective in the most expeditious manner practicable, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement including (a) the obtaining of all necessary actions and non-actions, waivers and consents, if any, from any governmental agency or authority and the making of all necessary registrations and filings and the taking of all reasonable steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval or waiver from, or to avoid an action or proceeding by, any governmental agency or authority; (b) the obtaining of all necessary consents, approvals or waivers from any other Person; (c) the defending of any claim, investigation, action, suit or other legal proceeding, whether judicial or administrative, challenging this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; and (d) the execution of additional instruments necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each party will promptly consult with the other and provide necessary information (including copies thereof) with respect to all filings made by such party with any agency or authority in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

5.16 Performance Bonus Pool. Subsequent to the Effective Time, Acquiror shall cause the Surviving Corporation to establish a cash performance bonus pool for Designated Employees in the aggregate amount of $6,500,000 (the "Performance Bonus Pool") in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) The Acquiror and John St. Amand, so long as he is an employee of the Surviving Corporation, as representative of the Designated Employees (the "Designated Employee Representative," subject to Section 5.16(g)), shall negotiate in good faith prior to the Closing Date with the objective of determining mutually agreed upon post-closing objectives with respect to the Company's products (the "Product Deliverables"). The Product Deliverables shall be divided into the first Product Deliverable (the "First Product Deliverable") and the second Product Deliverable (the "Second Product Deliverable"). No changes may be made to the Product Deliverables without the mutual written agreement of both the Acquiror and the Designated Employee Representative.

(b) Subject to a mutual written determination by Acquiror and the Designated Employee Representative that the First Product Deliverable has been satisfied on or before the first anniversary of the Effective Time, thirty percent (30%) of the Performance Bonus Pool shall be distributed to the Designated Employees promptly following the first anniversary of the Effective Time. Subject to a mutual written determination by Acquiror and the Designated Employee Representative that the Second Product Deliverable has been satisfied on or before the second anniversary of the Effective Time, seventy percent (70%) of the Performance Bonus Pool shall be distributed to the Designated Employees promptly following the second anniversary of the Effective Time. Any portion of the Performance Bonus Pool that is not paid to the Designated Employees as a result of the applicable Product Deliverables not being satisfied shall belong to the Surviving Corporation and shall be utilized in such manner as shall be determined by Acquiror in its sole discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the First Product Deliverable or the Second Product Deliverable is satisfied prior to the first or second anniversary of the Effective Time, as the case may be, Acquiror and the Designated Employee Representative may mutually agree in writing to accelerate the payment of that portion of the Performance Bonus Pool to be paid to Designated Employees in respect of such Product Deliverable.

(c) Acquiror and the Designated Employee Representative, subject to Sections 5.16(e) and 5.16(g), shall negotiate in good faith prior to the Closing Date with the objective of identifying the mutually agreed upon employees of the Company who shall be "Designated Employees" hereunder. An individual shall cease to be a Designated Employee in the event that such individual's employment with the Acquiror or the Surviving Corporation is terminated by the Acquiror or the Surviving Corporation for any reason prior to the date on which the Performance Bonus Pool is payable. In the event that any individual ceases to be a Designated Employee, the Acquiror and the Designated Employee Representative may mutually agree to designate another individual or other individuals who, on the date of such designation, are considered to be critical to the delivery of the Product Deliverables. In addition, Acquiror and the Designated Employee Representative may, subsequent to the Effective Time, mutually agree to name additional Designated Employees to the extent additional resources or skills are reasonably necessary to achieve the Product Deliverables.

(d) The allocation of the Performance Bonus Pool among the Designated Employees shall be mutually determined by the Designated Employee Representative and the Acquiror at the time that distributions are to be made to Designated Employees. Any portion of the Performance Bonus Pool allocated to a particular Designated Employee who is no longer a Designated Employee at the time of any distribution of the Performance Bonus Pool, shall remain part of the Performance Bonus Pool and shall be allocated and distributed pursuant to this Section 5.16(d). It is acknowledged that no current or former employee of the Company or the Surviving Corporation is intended to be a third party beneficiary of the provisions of this Section 5.16.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no individual shall be a Designated Employee unless such individual delivers to Acquiror, prior to the Effective Time in the case of the original Designated Employees, and prior to becoming a Designated Employee in the case of persons who are designated as Designated Employees after the Effective Time as provided in Section 5.16(c), an amendment to such Designated Employee's Option Agreement and/or Restricted Stock Agreement, as the case may be, in form and substance satisfactory to Acquiror, that to the extent that such individual owns unvested Company Stock Options or unvested restricted shares of Company Capital Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time, such individual's right to exercise the equivalent Adjusted Options or to dispose of the equivalent Substitute Restricted Stock shall be conditioned on (i) as to 30% of the unvested Adjusted Options and shares of Substitute Restricted Stock, the satisfaction of the First Product Deliverable, in which case such unvested Adjusted Option and shares of Substitute Restricted Stock shall vest on the date of attainment of the First Product Deliverable and (ii) as to 70% of the unvested Adjusted Options and shares of Substitute Restricted Stock, the satisfaction of the Second Product Deliverable, in which case such unvested Adjusted Option and shares of Substitute Restricted Stock shall vest on the date of attainment of the Second Product Deliverable. Any equivalent Adjusted Option or equivalent Substitute Restricted Stock that does not vest as a result of the applicable Product Deliverable not being satisfied by the first or second anniversary of the Effective Time, as the case may be, shall vest on the third anniversary of the Effective Time or immediately in the event that the subject Designated Employee is terminated by the Surviving Corporation without Cause.

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

(f) Acquiror and the Designated Employee Representative shall have the right to implement such rules and regulations, consistent with the foregoing, as shall be mutually determined by Acquiror and the Designated Employee Representative to be appropriate for the administration of the provisions set forth in this Section 5.16.

(g) If for any reason John St. Amand is no longer an employee of the Surviving Corporation, then Joseph Quinlivan shall become, so long as he is an employee of the Surviving Corporation, the Designated Employee Representative. If neither John St. Amand nor Joseph Quinlivan is available to serve as the Designated Employee Representative, then a successor Designated Employee Representative shall be mutually selected by Acquiror and the departing Designated Employee Representative (or, if the departing Designated Employee Representative is deceased, then by Acquiror and the highest ranking remaining Designated Employee). Any Designated Employee Representative appointed pursuant to this Section 5.16(g) must be a Designated Employee. Any Designated Employee Representative appointed pursuant to this Section 5.16(g) shall have all of the rights and powers of his or her predecessor Designated Employee Representative.

5.17 Employee Retention Bonuses. As soon as administratively practicable following the Effective Time, Acquiror shall cause the Surviving Corporation to pay cash retention bonuses in the aggregate amount of $7,000,000 to the Surviving Corporation's employees who are employed by the Company on the date hereof and remain employed by the Company through the Effective Time. The allocation of the foregoing bonuses shall be determined in accordance with Schedule 5.17, and the payment of such bonuses shall be made in accordance with all applicable Laws and withholding requirements.

5.18 Antitrust Laws. As promptly as practicable, the Company, Acquiror and Acquisition shall make all filings and submissions under the HSR Act as may be reasonably required to be made in connection with this Agreement, which filings shall comply as to form with all requirements applicable thereto and all of the information reported therein shall be true, correct and complete in all material respects. Subject to all applicable confidentiality requirements and all applicable laws, (a) the Company will furnish to Acquiror and Acquisition, and Acquiror and Acquisition will furnish to the Company, such information and assistance as shall be reasonably required in connection with the preparation of any such filings or submissions and (b) the Company will provide Acquiror and Acquisition, and Acquiror and Acquisition will provide the Company, with copies of all correspondence, filings or communications (or memoranda setting forth the substance thereof) between such party or any of its representatives, on the one hand, and any Governmental Authority or members of their respective staffs, on the other hand, with respect to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereunder; provided, however, that neither Acquiror and Acquisition on the one hand, nor the Company on the other, shall be required to provide the other party with copies of confidential documents or information included in its filings and submissions under the HSR Act, and provided, further that a party hereto may request entry into a joint defense agreement as a condition to providing any such materials and that, upon receipt of that request, the parties shall work in good faith to enter into a joint defense agreement to create and preserve attorney-client privilege in a form and substance mutually acceptable to the parties. Each of the parties shall promptly comply with all requests, if any, for additional information or documentation in connection with any such filings under the HSR Act.

5.19 Notification of Certain Matters. Each party shall give prompt notice to the others of (a) any event, condition, change, occurrence, act or omission which causes any of its representations hereunder to cease to be true in all material respects (or, with respect to Section 3.14 or any representation which is qualified as to materiality, causes such representation to cease to be true in all respects); and (b) any event, condition, change, occurrence, act or omission which individually or in the aggregate has, or which, so far as reasonably can be foreseen at the time of its occurrence, is reasonably likely to have, a Material Adverse Effect on such party. Each of the Company and Acquiror shall give prompt notice to the other party of any notice or other communication from any third party alleging that the consent of such third party is or may be required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

5.20 FIRPTA. Pursuant to Treas. Reg. Sec. 1.897-2(h) and Treas. Reg. Sec. 1.1445-2(c)(3)(i), at the Closing the Company shall furnish to Acquiror a statement certifying that each of the Company and its Subsidiary is not, and has never been during the applicable period specified in Section 897(c)(1)(A)(ii) of the Code, a United States real property holding corporation within the meaning of Section 897(c)(2) of the Code.

5.21 Representation Letters. Each of the Company (on the one hand) and Acquiror and Acquisition (on the other hand) shall execute and deliver to both Hale and Dorr LLP and Lowenstein Sandler PC a letter (each, a "Tax Representation Letter") making reasonable and customary representations relating to certain Tax matters. The Tax Representation Letters shall be sufficient to enable each such counsel to render a Tax opinion to be filed as an exhibit to the Registration Statement and the tax opinion described in Section 6.3(b) and shall be executed (and, if necessary, re-executed) and delivered at such time or times as reasonably requested by Acquiror including, without limitation, at Closing.

5.22 ERISA Compliance. Each of Acquiror and Acquisition shall use their reasonable best efforts to obtain such agreements, consents and approvals necessary to comply with Section 6.2(k).

5.23 S-4 Disclosure. Each of the Company and Acquiror shall work together in good faith prior to the effective date of the Registration Statement to determine with reasonable specificity the information supplied by the Company and Acquiror, respectively, for inclusion in the Registration Statement. Provided that full agreement is reached with respect to such determination, Acquiror and the Company shall execute and deliver to each other a certificate prior to such effective date, which certificate shall describe (x) the information which the parties agree has been supplied by the Company for inclusion in the Registration Statement (the "Updated Company S-4 Disclosure") and (y) the information which the parties agree has been supplied by Acquiror for inclusion in the Registration Statement (the "Updated Acquiror S-4 Disclosure"). If such certificate is executed and delivered, then the term "Company S-4 Disclosure" shall thereafter mean the "Updated Company S-4 Disclosure" and the term "Acquiror S-4 Disclosure" shall thereafter mean the "Updated Acquiror S-4 Disclosure".

(c) No Litigation. No judgment, order, decree, statute, law, ordinance, rule or regulation, entered, enacted, promulgated, enforced or issued by any court or other Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition (collectively, "Restraints") shall be in effect, and there shall not be pending any suit, action or proceeding by any Governmental Entity (i) preventing the consummation of the Merger or (ii) which otherwise is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or Acquiror, as applicable; provided, that each of the parties shall have used its reasonable best efforts to prevent the entry of any such Restraints and to appeal as promptly as possible any such Restraints that may be entered.

(a) Performance of Obligations; Representations and Warranties. Acquisition and Acquiror shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all agreements and conditions contained in this Agreement that are required to be performed or complied with by them prior to or at the Closing. Each of the representations and warranties of Acquisition and Acquiror contained in Section 4 of this Agreement to the extent it is qualified by Material Adverse Effect or materiality shall be true and correct in all respects and each of the representations and warranties of Acquisition and Acquiror to the extent it is not so qualified by Material Adverse Effect or materiality shall be true and correct in all material respects, in each case, on and as of the Closing with the same effect as though such representations and warranties were made on and as of the Closing except for changes permitted by this Agreement and except to the extent that such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date, in which case such representations and warranties shall be evaluated as of such earlier date. 6.4 Frustration of Closing Conditions. None of the Company, Acquiror or Acquisition may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in Sections 6.1, 6.2 or 6.3, as the case may be, to be satisfied if such failure was caused by such party's failure to use reasonable efforts to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, as required by and subject to Section 5.15.

7. Survival of Representation and Warranties. The representations and warranties of the Company contained in this Agreement (including the schedules to the Agreement which are hereby incorporated by reference) or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall survive for eighteen (18) months following the Effective Time, regardless of any investigation performed prior to the Effective Time. This Section 7 shall not limit any claim for fraud or any covenant or agreement by the parties which contemplates performance after the Effective Time.

8. Indemnification.

8.1 Escrow Shares. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Closing Date, Acquiror shall cause to be deposited with The Bank of New York (or another institution selected by Acquiror and the Company prior to the Effective Time), as escrow agent (the "Escrow Agent"), certificates representing, for each Company Stockholder other than Company Stockholders who hold Dissenting Shares, 10% of the shares of Acquiror Common Stock to be issued to such Stockholder pursuant to Section 1.5(c) and Section 1.7(a), rounded down to the nearest whole number of such shares of Acquiror Common Stock (the "Escrow Fund"), such deposit to be governed by the terms set forth herein and in the Escrow Agreement. The Escrow Fund shall be the sole and exclusive source available to compensate Acquiror for the indemnification obligations of each Person who or which, immediately prior to the Effective Time, is a holder of Company Capital Stock (each, a "Company Stockholder" and collectively, the "Company Stockholders") under Section 8.2 and any and all other claims relating, in connection with or arising out of this Agreement, except that Acquiror may elect not to have recourse to the Escrow Fund for any claim of fraud.

8.2 General Indemnification. Subject to the limitations set forth in this Section 8, the Company Stockholders will jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless on a net after-tax basis Acquiror and each Person, if any, who controls, may control or is Controlled by Acquiror within the meaning of the Securities Act and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents and advisors (each such indemnitee being referred to herein as an "Acquiror Indemnified Person"), from and against any and all losses, costs, damages, liabilities, obligations, impositions, inspections, assessments, fines, deficiencies and expenses arising from claims, demands, actions, causes of action, including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees and net of the after-tax benefit of any cash, property or other amounts actually received from any third party with respect to any of the foregoing (collectively, "Damages"), arising out of (i) any inaccuracy in any representation or warranty made by the Company in this Agreement or in any exhibit or schedule to this Agreement, (ii) any breach or default by the Company, the Company Stockholders or the Company Stockholders' Representative of any of the covenants or agreements given or made by any of them in this Agreement, the Escrow Agreement or any other exhibit or schedule to this Agreement, (iii) the dollar amount of the Company Expenses exceeding $2,000,000, (iv) the proceedings described in Schedule 3.12; and (v) any claim with respect to Taxes imposed on or relating to the Company or its Subsidiary (including, without limitation, any liability for Taxes of any other Person under Treas. Reg. Sec. 1.1502-6 or any comparable provision of state, local or foreign law, as a transferee or successor, by contract, or otherwise) for any Pre-Closing Tax Period other than Taxes accrued on the Unaudited Balance Sheet and any Taxes that would be recognized to be and have been accrued between the date of the Unaudited Balance Sheet and the Closing Date.

8.3 Damage Threshold.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, solely with respect to any claim by Acquiror for indemnification under Section

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

8.2(a) (i) (other than (i) any claim by Acquiror also covered by the Tax indemnity set forth in Section 8.2(a)(v) and (ii) any claim for any inaccuracy in any of Sections 3.2(a), 3.2(b), 3.2(c), 3.3 and 3.14), Acquiror may not seek indemnification with respect to any claim for Damages until the aggregate amount of all Damages for which Acquiror is seeking indemnification under Section 8.2(a) (i) equals or exceeds $1,500,000 (the "Threshold"), whereupon Acquiror shall be entitled to seek indemnification with respect to all such Damages including the Threshold.

(b) In determining the amount of any Damage for which Acquiror may seek indemnification under Section 8.2(a) (i) or Section 8.2(a) (ii), any materiality standard contained in a representation, warranty or covenant shall be disregarded.

(c) The liability of the Company Stockholders to Acquiror for all Damages for which indemnification is provided hereunder shall not exceed the Escrow Fund, except for any claims of fraud.

8.4 Escrow Period; Release of Escrow Fund. The Escrow Fund shall commence on the date hereof and terminate on the date (the "Termination Date") which is eighteen (18) months after the Closing Date (the "Escrow Period"). On the Termination Date, all assets then remaining in the Escrow Fund shall be released to the Company Stockholders; provided that assets representing the amount of any claim made pursuant to Section 8.5 during the Escrow Period shall be withheld and remain in the Escrow Fund pending resolution of such claim; provided, further, that the assets in the Escrow Fund which are necessary to satisfy any unsatisfied claims specified in any Acquiror Notice theretofore delivered to the Escrow Agent prior to the termination of the Escrow Period with respect to facts and circumstances existing prior to the expiration of the Escrow Period, shall remain in the Escrow Fund until such claims have been resolved. Any portion of the Escrow Fund at the Termination Date for which there is no claim pursuant to this Section 8 shall be promptly delivered by the Escrow Agent to the Company Stockholders' Representative and shall be distributed to the Company Stockholders in accordance with each Company Stockholder's percentage of the Escrow Fund as set forth in the Escrow Agreement.

8.5 Claims Upon Escrow Fund. Subject to the provisions of this Section 8, Acquiror shall make claims upon the Escrow Fund by delivering to the Escrow Agent on or before the last day of the Escrow Period of a notice signed by a representative of Acquiror (an "Acquiror Notice") specifying in reasonable detail the individual items of Damages for which indemnification is being sought, the date each such item was paid, or properly accrued or arose, and the nature of the misrepresentation, breach of warranty or claim to which such item is related. Upon receipt by the Escrow Agent of an Acquiror Notice, the Escrow Agent shall, subject to the provisions of Section 8.7, deliver to Acquiror, as promptly as practicable, the number of Shares held in the Escrow Fund having a "Fair Market Value" on the Closing Date equal to such Damages or cash in an amount equal to such Damages. Acquiror shall, concurrent with the sending of any Acquiror Notice to the Escrow Agent, provide a copy of such Acquiror Notice to the Company Stockholders' Representative. For purposes of this Agreement and the Escrow Agreement, the "Fair Market Value" of one share of Acquiror Common Stock shall equal the average per share closing price on the NYSE of Acquiror Common Stock (as reported on the NYSE Composite Transactions Tape as such Tape is reported in The Wall Street Journal or another recognized business publication) for the last ten (10) trading days prior to the Closing Date. Any payments made to an Acquiror Indemnified Person pursuant to this Section 8 or the Escrow Agreement shall be treated as an adjustment to the merger consideration being paid hereunder for Tax purposes.

8.6 Apportionment of Taxes.

(a) The Company Stockholders' Representative and Acquiror will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, elect with the relevant Taxing Authority to close the Taxable year of the Company and its Subsidiary on the Closing Date. In any case where applicable law does not permit the Company to close its Taxable year on the Closing Date, in the case of any Taxes that are imposed on a periodic basis and that are payable for a Taxable period that begins before the Closing Date and ends after the Closing Date, the portion of such Tax that is payable for the Pre-Closing Tax Period shall (i) in the case of any such Taxes not based upon or related to income or receipts, be deemed to be the amount of such Taxes for the entire Taxable period multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the period ending on the Closing Date and the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire Taxable period; and (ii) in the case of any such Taxes based upon or related to income or receipts, be determined on the basis of an interim closing of the books of the Company at the close of business on the Closing Date in accordance with Section 8.6(c).

B-39

(b) For purposes of clause (i) of Section 8.6(a), any credits against any Tax (other than credits for payments of estimated Taxes and foreign Tax credits or credits carried forward from prior Tax Periods) shall be prorated based on the fraction employed in such clause (i) of Section 8.6(a).

(c) For purposes of clause (ii) of Section 8.6(a), a liability for any Tax with respect to a Pre-Closing Tax Period shall be the product derived by multiplying (i) the Tax for the entire Taxable period by (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the hypothetical Tax for the Pre-Closing Tax Period (determined on the basis of an interim closing of the books, without annualization) and the denominator of which is the sum of such numerator plus the hypothetical Tax for the balance of the Taxable period (determined on the basis of such interim closing of the books, without annualization). The hypothetical Tax for any period shall in no case be less than zero.

8.7 Objections to Claims.

(a) If the Company Stockholders' Representative shall deliver a written objection to an Acquiror Notice to Acquiror and the Escrow Agent within the fifteen (15) day period after Acquiror's delivery thereof, then Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative shall use their good faith efforts to resolve such dispute. If Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative resolve such dispute, the parties shall deliver a written notice to the Escrow Agent directing the delivery of the applicable portion of the Escrow Fund based upon such resolution. In the event that no objection is made by the Company Stockholders' Representative as provided herein, the Company Stockholders' Representative and the Company Stockholders shall have irrevocably waived any right to object to such Acquiror Notice.

(b) If timely notice of such an objection is given and Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative are unable to resolve the applicable dispute within thirty (30) days after the Company Stockholders' Representative objects to such Acquiror Notice, either Acquiror or the Company Stockholders' Representative may, by written notice to the other and the Escrow Agent, demand arbitration of such dispute. Any such arbitration shall be conducted by JAMS/Endispute, Inc. or such other alternative dispute service ("Arbitration Service") as shall be reasonably acceptable to Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative. The Arbitration Service shall select one (1) arbitrator reasonably acceptable to both Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative who shall be expert in the area in dispute. The decision by the arbitrator shall be binding and conclusive and, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Section 8, the Escrow Agent shall be entitled to act in accordance with such decision and make delivery of the Escrow Fund in accordance therewith.

(c) The arbitration shall be held in New York, New York. The costs of any such arbitration shall be borne one-half for the account of Acquiror and one-half by the Company Stockholders (out of the Escrow Fund to the extent available after all claims have been satisfied and shares released; provided that the Company Stockholders' Representative may request and Acquiror, in the exercise of its reasonable judgment (based upon such factors and considerations as it determines to be relevant), may permit such expenses to be paid from the Escrow Fund as incurred). Judgment upon any award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

8.8 Third-Party Claims. In the event Acquiror becomes aware of a third-party claim which Acquiror believes may result in a demand pursuant to this Section 8, Acquiror shall promptly notify the Company Stockholders' Representative of such claim, and the Company Stockholders' Representative shall be entitled, at the Company Stockholders' expense (but not out of the Escrow Fund), to participate in any defense of such claim; provided that, except as expressly set forth in the next sentence, Acquiror shall control such defense. In the event that (i) a claim involves only a claim for monetary damages, (ii) such claim does not involve the business reputation of Acquiror or its Affiliates, or the possible criminal culpability of Acquiror or its Affiliates or any of their respective officers, directors or employees, (iii) such claim seeks a liquidated amount of monetary damages which amount is less than the value of assets remaining in escrow (excluding from such assets the aggregate amount sought with respect to any other then pending claims) and (iv) the Company Stockholders' Representative acknowledges in writing that such claim is subject to indemnification hereunder, then the Company Stockholders' Representative shall be entitled, at the Company Stockholders' expense (but not out of the Escrow Fund), to assume control of the defense of such claim; provided that (a) Acquiror shall have the right at its expense to participate in such defense and (b) the Company Stockholders' Representative shall notify Acquiror of its intention to assume control of such defense and shall provide such acknowledgment within ten (10) days after the Company Stockholders' Representative is first notified of such claim. With respect to any third-party claim, Acquiror shall have the right (regardless of which party is controlling the defense of such claim) with the consent of the Company Stockholders' Representative (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) to settle any such claim (it being understood that no such consent of the Company Stockholders' Representative shall be required where the third-party claim, which Acquiror proposes to settle, involves the business reputation of Acquiror or its Affiliates, or the possible criminal culpability of Acquiror or its Affiliates or any of their respective officers, directors or employees). In the event that the Company Stockholders' Representative has consented to any such settlement, the Company Stockholders shall have no power or authority to object under any provision of this Section 8 to the amount of any claim by Acquiror for indemnity with respect to such settlement.

8.9 Company Stockholders' Representative.

(a) Sean Dalton is hereby appointed as representative (the "Company Stockholders' Representative") for and on behalf of the Company Stockholders to take all actions necessary or appropriate in the judgment of the Company Stockholders' Representative for the accomplishment of the terms of this Agreement. The holders of a majority in interest of the assets held in the

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

Escrow Fund may replace the Company Stockholders' Representative upon not less than ten (10) days' prior written notice to Acquiror. No bond shall be required of the Company Stockholders' Representative and the Company Stockholders' Representative shall receive no compensation for his or her services. Notices of communications to or from the Company Stockholders' Representative shall constitute notice to or from each of the Company Stockholders.

(b) The Company Stockholders' Representative shall not be liable for any act done or omitted in such capacity while acting in good faith and in the exercise of reasonable judgment, and any act done or omitted pursuant to the advise of counsel shall be conclusive evidence of such good faith. The Company Stockholders shall severally indemnify the Company Stockholders' Representative and hold him or her harmless against any loss, liability or expense incurred without gross negligence or bad faith on the part of the Company Stockholders' Representative and arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of his or her duties hereunder.

(c) Any decision, act, consent or instruction of the Company Stockholders' Representative shall constitute a decision of all of the Company Stockholders and shall be final, binding and conclusive upon every Company Stockholder and the Escrow Agent and Acquiror may rely upon any decision, act, consent or instruction of the Company Stockholders' Representative as a decision, act, consent or instruction of each and every Company Stockholder. The Escrow Agent and Acquiror are hereby relieved from any liability to any Person for acts done by them in accordance with such decision, act, consent or instruction of the Company Stockholders' Representative.

The Company agrees that if the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are not consummated (other than as a result of a breach or default by Acquiror or Acquisition), it shall indemnify and hold Acquisition and Acquiror harmless against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, costs or expenses which may be asserted against them as a result of the Company's or any of its Affiliates' dealings, arrangements or agreements with any such Person.

Each party hereto shall pay its own expenses incidental to the preparation of this Agreement, the carrying out of the provisions of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, whether or not the Merger is consummated, except that each of Acquiror and the Company shall bear and pay one-half of the costs and expenses incurred in connection

11. Press Releases. Except as, in the opinion of Acquiror's counsel, is required by law or Acquiror's listing agreement with the NYSE or as contemplated hereunder with respect to the Registration Statement, Acquiror, Acquisition and the Company shall not issue any press release or otherwise make public any information with respect to this Agreement nor the transactions contemplated hereby, prior to the Effective Time, without the prior written consent of the other parties to this Agreement.

12. Contents of Agreement; Parties in Interest; etc. This Agreement and the agreements, letters, schedules and exhibits referred to or contemplated herein and the letter agreement dated April 12, 2004 concerning confidentiality (the "Confidentiality Agreement") set forth the entire understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby, and, except as set forth in this Agreement, such other agreements, such letters and the Exhibits and Schedules hereto and the Confidentiality Agreement, there are no representations or warranties, express or implied, made by any party to this Agreement with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and the Confidentiality Agreement. 13. Assignment and Binding Effect. This Agreement may not be assigned by any party hereto without the prior written consent of the other parties; provided, that Acquisition may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement to any directly or indirectly wholly-owned Subsidiary of Acquiror, upon written notice to the Company, if the assignee shall assume the obligations of Acquisition hereunder and Acquiror shall remain liable for its obligations hereunder. All the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the respective successors and assigns of the parties hereto.

covenants contained herein, and intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

1. Escrow. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Acquiror shall deposit with the Escrow Agent, as escrow agent, as soon as practicable after the Effective Time, 10% of the total number of shares of Acquiror Common Stock to be issued to each Escrow Stockholder pursuant to Section 1.5(c) of the Merger Agreement and rounded to the nearest whole number (such amount to be computed by Acquiror separately for each series and class of Company Capital Stock held by the Escrow Stockholders; the shares so deposited, as adjusted for stock splits, combinations, stock dividends and distributions, and any other property (other than regular quarterly cash dividends) issued in respect of such Acquiror Common Stock as a result of any of the foregoing, the "Escrow Shares"). The Escrow Shares shall be registered in the name of a nominee of the Escrow Agent as nominee for the Company Stockholders' Representative on behalf of the Escrow Stockholders. The Escrow Fund shall be held and distributed by the Escrow Agent for the purposes and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Escrow Agreement and Section 8 of the Merger Agreement. As soon as practicable after the Escrow Shares have been delivered to the Escrow Agent, Acquiror will direct the Exchange Agent to deliver to Acquiror, the Company Stockholders' Representative and the Escrow Agent a statement showing the number of Escrow Shares delivered to the Escrow Agent on behalf of each Escrow Stockholder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company Stockholders' Representative may, at any time, instruct the Escrow Agent to sell all, but not less than all, of the Escrow Shares pursuant to a sale notice, and upon delivery of such a sale notice, a copy of which shall be delivered to Acquiror, the Escrow Agent shall promptly effect the sale of such Escrow Shares in the manner provided for in the sale notice, and upon consummation of such sale, the net proceeds thereof, shall become part of the Escrow Fund and shall be subject to the terms hereof. The parties agree that Acquiror will not be responsible for any tax, including capital gain, arising from any sale of Escrow Shares pursuant to this Section 1.

2. Escrow Period; Release of Escrow Fund. The Escrow Fund shall commence as of the Effective Time and terminate eighteen (18) months after the Effective Time (the "Escrow Period"). On the first Business Day following the end of the Escrow Period, all Escrow Shares or other assets, as the case may be, then remaining in the Escrow Fund shall be released; provided that the number of Escrow Shares or other assets, as the case may be, in the Escrow Fund which are necessary to satisfy any unsatisfied claims specified in any Acquiror Notice theretofore delivered to the Escrow Agent prior to the termination of the Escrow Period with respect to facts and circumstances existing prior to the expiration of the Escrow Period, shall remain in the Escrow Fund until such claims have been resolved. Any portion of the Escrow Fund for which there is no claim pursuant to Section 8 of the Merger Agreement outstanding on the last day of the Escrow Period shall be promptly distributed by the Escrow Agent to the Company Stockholders' Representative for distribution by the Escrow Agent to the Escrow Stockholders in accordance with each Escrow Stockholder's percentage of the Escrow Fund. No Escrow Shares or assets, as the case may be, distributable to any Escrow Stockholder under this Section 2 shall be deemed to be part of such Escrow Stockholder's salary or other compensation for purposes of calculating any employee or other benefits which may be owed to such Escrow Stockholder, such as severance pay, insurance policy payments, pension payments or any similar social or employee or compensation benefits.

3. Duties of Escrow Agent. In addition to the duties set forth in Section 8 of the Merger Agreement, the duties of the Escrow Agent shall include the following:

- (a) The Escrow Agent shall hold and safeguard the Escrow Fund in accordance with the terms of this Escrow Agreement and Section 8 of the Merger Agreement and not as the property of Acquiror or the Escrow Stockholders, and shall hold and dispose of the Escrow Fund only in accordance with the terms hereof.

(b) As set forth below, at each meeting of Acquiror stockholders, each Escrow Stockholder shall be entitled to direct the vote of such number of Escrow Shares as are held in the Escrow Fund on behalf of such Escrow Stockholder on the record date for such meeting. Upon receipt of proxy materials in connection with any such meeting, the Escrow Agent shall promptly forward copies of such materials to each Escrow Stockholder. The Company Stockholders' Representative shall, in accordance with the instructions received from the Escrow Stockholders, direct the Escrow Agent in writing as to the exercise of any voting rights pertaining to the Escrow Shares, and the Escrow Agent shall comply with any such written instructions. In the absence of such instructions, the Escrow Agent shall not vote any of the Escrow Shares. The Company Stockholders' Representative shall have no obligation to solicit consents or proxies from the Escrow Stockholders for purposes of any such vote.

(c) Within ten (10) Business Days after receiving the list referred to in Section 3(d), the Escrow Agent shall distribute the Escrow Shares and any other property and cash then remaining in the Escrow Fund to the Escrow Stockholders in accordance with Section 3(d), after satisfying the obligation, if any, to deliver any portion of the Escrow Fund to Acquiror, as provided in Section 8 of the Merger Agreement. Subject to the preceding sentence, as soon as all such claims are resolved pursuant to Section 8 of the Merger Agreement and all deliveries and payments have been made to Acquiror with respect to such claims, the Escrow Agent shall deliver such assets then remaining in the Escrow Fund as provided in Section 3(d). Before any distribution is made to the Company Stockholders' Representative, the Company Stockholders' Representative shall furnish to the Escrow Agent, on behalf of each Escrow Stockholder, an IRS Form W-9 or IRS Form W-8BEN or any other documentation the Escrow Agent may reasonably require.

(d) At such times as Escrow Shares or other assets are to be released by the Escrow Agent, the Company Stockholders' Representative shall provide a list to the Escrow Agent which sets forth the amount of shares and cash (if any) being distributed to each Escrow Stockholder, provided that such list will be subject to Acquiror's approval. Whenever the Escrow Agent delivers Escrow Shares to the Escrow Stockholders pursuant to Section 3(c), it shall deliver to each Escrow Stockholder a certificate registered in such Escrow Stockholder's name for the number of shares of Acquiror Common Stock such Escrow Stockholder is entitled to hereunder, if any.

(e) Notwithstanding anything in Section 3(c) or 3(d), no Escrow Shares or other assets shall be released from the Escrow Fund to any Escrow Stockholder until Acquiror has notified the Escrow Agent that such holder's Certificates have been surrendered to the Exchange Agent in accordance with Section 1.9 of the Merger Agreement.

(f) The Escrow Agent shall invest any cash in the Escrow Fund in The Bank of New York Cash Reserve.

4. Distribution. Any regular cash dividend received by the Escrow Agent with respect to the Escrow Shares before delivery to the Escrow Agent of an Acquiror Notice shall, as promptly as practicable, be distributed to the Escrow

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 424B3

Stockholders. Each Escrow Stockholder shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the product of the number of shares of Acquiror Common Stock held in the Escrow Fund on behalf of such Escrow Stockholder on the record date for such cash dividend multiplied by the per share amount of such dividend. Before any distribution is made to the Escrow Stockholders, each Escrow Stockholder shall furnish to the Escrow Agent an IRS Form W-9 or IRS Form W-8BEN or any other documentation the Escrow Agent may reasonably require. All income earned on the Escrow Fund shall be allocable to the applicable Escrow Stockholder. Any shares of Acquiror Common Stock received by the Escrow Agent upon a stock split or stock dividend made in respect of any securities in the Escrow Fund shall be added to the Escrow Fund and become part thereof, and any provisions hereof shall be appropriately adjusted to reflect any such stock split or reverse stock split.

5. Exculpatory Provisions. (a) The Escrow Agent shall be obligated only for the performance of such duties as are specifically set forth herein, in Section 8 of the Merger Agreement and as required by law and may rely and shall be protected in relying or refraining from acting on any instrument reasonably believed to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. The Escrow Agent shall not be subject to, nor required to comply with, any other agreement between or among any or all of the parties hereto, even though reference thereto may be made herein, or to comply with any direction or instruction from any party hereto or any entity acting on its behalf (other than the agreements, directions and instructions contained herein or in Section 8 of the Merger Agreement or the directions and instructions delivered in accordance with this Escrow Agreement). The Escrow Agent shall not be required to, and shall not, expend or risk any of its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder. The Escrow Agent shall not be liable for any act done or omitted hereunder as escrow agent except for acts or omissions which constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct. The Escrow Agent shall in no case or event be liable for any representations or warranties of the Company or Acquiror. Any act done or omitted pursuant to the advice or opinion of counsel shall be conclusive evidence of the good faith of the Escrow Agent.

(b) The Escrow Agent shall not be liable in any respect on account of the identity, authority or rights of the parties executing or delivering or purporting to execute or deliver this Escrow Agreement or any documents or papers deposited or called for thereunder.

6. Alteration of Duties. The duties of the Escrow Agent may be altered, amended, modified or revoked only by a writing signed by all the parties hereto.

7. Resignation and Removal of the Escrow Agent.

(a) The Escrow Agent may resign as Escrow Agent at any time with or without cause by giving prior written notice to each of Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative, such resignation to be effective at the time specified in the notice, which may not be sooner than thirty (30) days following the date such notice is given. In addition, Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative may jointly remove the Escrow Agent as escrow agent at any time with or without cause, by an instrument (which may be executed in counterparts) given to the Escrow Agent, which instrument shall designate the effective date of such removal. In the event of any such resignation or removal, a successor escrow agent, which shall be a bank or trust company organized under the laws of the United States of America having (or if such bank or trust company is a member of a bank holding company, its bank holding company has) a combined capital and surplus of not less than One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000), shall be appointed by Acquiror with the approval of the Company Stockholders' Representative, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any such successor escrow agent shall deliver to Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative a written instrument accepting such appointment, duties and responsibilities of the Escrow Agent and thereupon it shall succeed to all the rights and duties of the escrow agent hereunder and shall be entitled to receive the Escrow Fund.

(b) If a successor escrow agent has not accepted such appointment by the end of such thirty (30)-day period, the Escrow Agent may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor escrow agent or for other appropriate relief. The costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred by the Escrow Agent in connection with such proceeding shall be paid by, and be deemed a joint and several obligation of, the other parties hereto.

(c) Upon receipt of the identity of the successor escrow agent, the Escrow Agent shall deliver the Escrow Fund then held hereunder to the successor escrow agent, and upon delivery thereof, the Escrow Agent shall have no further duties, responsibilities or obligations hereunder.

8. Further Instruments. If the Escrow Agent reasonably requires other or further instruments in connection with the performance of its duties, the necessary parties hereto shall join in furnishing such instruments.

9. Disputes. It is understood and agreed that should any dispute arise with respect to the delivery and/or ownership or right of possession of the Escrow Fund or securities held by the Escrow Agent hereunder, the Escrow Agent is authorized and directed to act in accordance with, and in reliance upon, the terms hereof and of Section 8 of the Merger Agreement.

10. Escrow Fees and Expenses. Acquiror shall pay the fees of the Escrow Agent established by the Fee Schedule attached hereto as Annex C.

11. Indemnification. In consideration of the Escrow Agent's acceptance of this appointment, Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative, on behalf of the Escrow Stockholders and not individually, jointly and severally, agree to indemnify and hold the Escrow Agent harmless as to any liability incurred by it to any person, firm or corporation by reason of its having accepted such appointment or in carrying out the terms hereof and Section 8 of the Merger Agreement, and to reimburse the Escrow Agent for all its costs and expenses, including, among other things, counsel fees and expenses, reasonably incurred by reason of any matter as to which an indemnity is paid; provided, that no indemnity need be paid in case of the Escrow Agent's gross negligence, willful misconduct or breach of this Escrow Agreement.

12. Additional Rights of the Escrow Agent.

(a) In the event of any ambiguity or uncertainty hereunder or in any notice, instruction or other communication received by the Escrow Agent hereunder, the Escrow Agent may, in its sole discretion, refrain from taking any action other than retaining possession of the property in the Escrow Fund, unless the Escrow Agent received written instructions, signed by Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative, which eliminates such ambiguity or uncertainty.

(b) In the event of any dispute between or conflicting claims by or among the parties and/or any other person or entity with respect to any property in the Escrow Fund, the Escrow Agent shall be entitled, in its sole discretion, to refuse to comply with any and all claims, demands or instructions with respect to such property so long as such dispute or conflict shall continue, and the Escrow Agent shall not be or become liable in any way to the parties for failure or refusal to comply with such conflicting claims, demands or instructions. The Escrow Agent shall be entitled to refuse to act until, in its sole discretion, either (i) such conflicting or adverse claims or demands shall have been determined by a final order, judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, which order, judgment or decree is not subject to appeal, or settled by agreement between the conflicting parties as evidenced in a writing satisfactory to the Escrow Agent or (ii) the Escrow Agent shall have received security or an indemnity satisfactory to it sufficient to hold it harmless from and against any and all losses which it may incur by reason of so acting. The Escrow Agent may, in addition, elect, in its sole discretion, to commence an interpleader action or seek other judicial relief or orders as it may deem, in its sole discretion, necessary. The costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred in connection with such proceeding shall be paid by, and shall be deemed a joint and several obligation of, Acquiror and the Escrow Stockholders.

13. GENERAL.

SECTION 8 OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

8. Indemnification.

8.1 Escrow Shares. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Closing Date, Acquiror shall cause to be deposited with The Bank of New York (or another institution selected by Acquiror and the Company prior to the Effective Time), as escrow agent (the "Escrow Agent"), certificates representing, for each Company Stockholder other than Company Stockholders who hold Dissenting Shares, 10% of the shares of Acquiror Common Stock to be issued to such Stockholder pursuant to Section 1.5(c) and Section 1.7(a), rounded down to the nearest whole number of such shares of Acquiror Common Stock (the "Escrow Fund"), such deposit to be governed by the terms set forth herein and in the Escrow Agreement. The Escrow Fund shall be the sole and exclusive source available to compensate Acquiror for the indemnification obligations of each Person who or which, immediately prior to the Effective Time, is a holder of Company Capital Stock (each, a "Company Stockholder" and collectively, the "Company Stockholders") under Section 8.2 and any and all other claims relating, in connection with or arising out of this Agreement, except that Acquiror may elect not to have recourse to the Escrow Fund for any claim of fraud.

8.2 General Indemnification. Subject to the limitations set forth in this Section 8, the Company Stockholders will jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless on a net after-tax basis Acquiror and each Person, if any, who controls, may control or is Controlled by Acquiror within the meaning of the Securities Act and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents and advisors (each such indemnitee being referred to herein as an "Acquiror Indemnified Person"), from and against any and all losses, costs, damages, liabilities, obligations, impositions, inspections, assessments, fines, deficiencies and expenses arising from claims, demands, actions, causes of action, including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees and net of the after-tax benefit of any cash, property or other amounts actually received from any third party with respect to any of the foregoing (collectively, "Damages"), arising out of (i) any inaccuracy in any representation or warranty made by the Company in this Agreement or in any exhibit or schedule to this Agreement, (ii) any breach or default by the Company, the Company Stockholders or the Company Stockholders' Representative of any of the covenants or agreements given or made by any of them in this Agreement, the Escrow Agreement or any other exhibit or schedule to this Agreement, (iii) the dollar amount of the Company Expenses exceeding $2,000,000, (iv) the proceedings described in Schedule 3.12; and (v) any claim with respect to Taxes imposed on or relating to the Company or its Subsidiary (including, without limitation, any liability for Taxes of any other Person under Treas. Reg. Sec. 1.1502-6 or any comparable provision of state, local or foreign law, as a transferee or successor, by contract, or otherwise) for any Pre-Closing Tax Period other than Taxes accrued on the Unaudited Balance Sheet and any Taxes that would be recognized to be and have been accrued between the date of the Unaudited Balance Sheet and the Closing Date.

8.3 Damage Threshold.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, solely with respect to any claim by Acquiror for indemnification under Section 8.2(a)(i) (other than (i) any claim by Acquiror also covered by the Tax indemnity set forth in Section 8.2(a)(v) and (ii) any claim for any inaccuracy in any of Sections 3.2(a), 3.2(b), 3.2(c), 3.3 and 3.14), Acquiror may not seek indemnification with respect to any claim for Damages until the aggregate amount of all Damages for which Acquiror is seeking indemnification under Section 8.2(a)(i) equals or exceeds $1,500,000 (the "Threshold"), whereupon Acquiror shall be entitled to seek indemnification with respect to all such Damages including the Threshold.

(b) In determining the amount of any Damage for which Acquiror may seek indemnification under Section 8.2(a)(i) or Section 8.2(a)(ii), any materiality standard contained in a representation, warranty or covenant shall be disregarded.

D-9

8.4 Escrow Period; Release of Escrow Fund. The Escrow Fund shall commence on the date hereof and terminate on the date (the "Termination Date") which is eighteen (18) months after the Closing Date (the "Escrow Period"). On the Termination Date, all assets then remaining in the Escrow Fund shall be released to the Company Stockholders; provided that assets representing the amount of any claim made pursuant to Section 8.5 during the Escrow Period shall be withheld and remain in the Escrow Fund pending resolution of such claim; provided, further, that the assets in the Escrow Fund which are necessary to satisfy any unsatisfied claims specified in any Acquiror Notice theretofore delivered to the Escrow Agent prior to the termination of the Escrow Period with respect to facts and circumstances existing prior to the expiration of the Escrow Period, shall remain in the Escrow Fund until such claims have been resolved. Any portion of the Escrow Fund at the Termination Date for which there is no claim pursuant to this Section 8 shall be promptly delivered by the Escrow Agent to the Company Stockholders' Representative and shall be distributed to the Company Stockholders in accordance with each Company Stockholder's percentage of the Escrow Fund as set forth in the Escrow Agreement.

8.5 Claims Upon Escrow Fund. Subject to the provisions of this Section 8, Acquiror shall make claims upon the Escrow Fund by delivering to the Escrow Agent on or before the last day of the Escrow Period of a notice signed by a representative of Acquiror (an "Acquiror Notice") specifying in reasonable detail the individual items of Damages for which indemnification is being sought, the date each such item was paid, or properly accrued or arose, and the nature of the misrepresentation, breach of warranty or claim to which such item is related. Upon receipt by the Escrow Agent of an Acquiror Notice, the Escrow Agent shall, subject to the provisions of Section 8.7, deliver to Acquiror, as promptly as practicable, the number of Shares held in the Escrow Fund having a "Fair Market Value" on the Closing Date equal to such Damages or cash in an amount equal to such Damages. Acquiror shall, concurrent with the sending of any Acquiror Notice to the Escrow Agent, provide a copy of such Acquiror Notice to the Company Stockholders' Representative. For purposes of this Agreement and the Escrow Agreement, the "Fair Market Value" of one share of Acquiror Common Stock shall equal the average per share closing price on the NYSE of Acquiror Common Stock (as reported on the NYSE Composite Transactions Tape as such Tape is reported in The Wall Street Journal or another recognized business publication) for the last ten (10) trading days prior to the Closing Date. Any payments made to an Acquiror Indemnified Person pursuant to this Section 8 or the Escrow Agreement shall be treated as an adjustment to the merger consideration being paid hereunder for Tax purposes.

8.6 Apportionment of Taxes.

(a) The Company Stockholders' Representative and Acquiror will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, elect with the relevant Taxing Authority to close the Taxable year of the Company and its Subsidiary on the Closing Date. In any case where applicable law does not permit the Company to close its Taxable year on the Closing Date, in the case of any Taxes that are imposed on a periodic basis and that are payable for a Taxable period that begins before the Closing Date and ends after the Closing Date, the portion of such Tax that is payable for the Pre-Closing Tax Period shall (i) in the case of any such Taxes not based upon or related to income or receipts, be deemed to be the amount of such Taxes for the entire Taxable period multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the period ending on the Closing Date and the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire Taxable period; and (ii) in the case of any such Taxes based upon or related to income or receipts, be determined on the basis of an interim closing of the books of the Company at the close of business on the Closing Date in accordance with Section 8.6(c).

(b) For purposes of clause (i) of Section 8.6(a), any credits against any Tax (other than credits for payments of estimated Taxes and foreign Tax credits or credits carried forward from prior Tax Periods) shall be prorated based on the fraction employed in such clause (i) of Section 8.6(a).

(c) For purposes of clause (ii) of Section 8.6(a), a liability for any Tax with respect to a Pre-Closing Tax Period shall be the product derived by multiplying (i) the Tax for the entire Taxable period by (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the hypothetical Tax for the Pre-Closing Tax Period (determined on the basis of an interim closing of the books, without annualization) and the denominator of which is the sum of such numerator plus the hypothetical Tax for the balance of the Taxable period (determined on the basis of such interim closing of the books, without annualization). The hypothetical Tax for any period shall in no case be less than zero.

8.7 Objections to Claims.

(a) If the Company Stockholders' Representative shall deliver a written objection to an Acquiror Notice to Acquiror and the Escrow Agent within the fifteen (15) day period after Acquiror's delivery thereof, then Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative shall use their good faith efforts to resolve such dispute. If Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative resolve such dispute, the parties shall deliver a written notice to the Escrow Agent directing the delivery of the applicable portion of the Escrow Fund based upon such resolution. In the event that no objection is made by the Company Stockholders' Representative as provided herein, the Company Stockholders' Representative and the Company Stockholders shall have irrevocably waived any right to object to such Acquiror Notice.

(b) If timely notice of such an objection is given and Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative are unable to resolve the applicable dispute within thirty (30) days after the Company Stockholders' Representative objects to such Acquiror Notice, either Acquiror or the Company Stockholders' Representative may, by written notice to the other and the Escrow Agent, demand arbitration of such dispute. Any such arbitration shall be conducted by JAMS/Endispute, Inc. or such other alternative dispute service ("Arbitration Service") as shall be reasonably acceptable to Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative. The Arbitration Service shall select one (1) arbitrator reasonably acceptable to both Acquiror and the Company Stockholders' Representative who shall be expert in the area in dispute. The decision by the arbitrator shall be binding and conclusive and, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Section 8, the Escrow Agent shall be entitled to act in accordance with such decision and make delivery of the Escrow Fund in accordance therewith.

(c) The arbitration shall be held in New York, New York. The costs of any such arbitration shall be borne one-half for the account of Acquiror and one-half by the Company Stockholders (out of the Escrow Fund to the extent available after all claims have been satisfied and shares released; provided that the Company Stockholders' Representative may request and Acquiror, in the exercise of its reasonable judgment (based upon such factors and considerations as it determines to be relevant), may permit such expenses to be paid from the Escrow Fund as incurred). Judgment upon any award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

8.8 Third-Party Claims. In the event Acquiror becomes aware of a third-party claim which Acquiror believes may result in a demand pursuant to this Section 8, Acquiror shall promptly notify the Company Stockholders' Representative of such claim, and the Company Stockholders' Representative shall be entitled, at the Company Stockholders' expense (but not out of the Escrow Fund), to participate in any defense of such claim; provided that, except as expressly set forth in the next sentence, Acquiror shall control such defense. In the event that (i) a claim involves only a claim for monetary damages, (ii) such claim does not involve the business reputation of Acquiror or its Affiliates, or the possible criminal culpability of Acquiror or its Affiliates or any of their respective officers, directors or employees, (iii) such claim seeks a liquidated amount of monetary damages which amount is less than the value of assets remaining in escrow (excluding from such assets the aggregate amount sought with respect to any other then pending claims) and (iv) the Company Stockholders' Representative acknowledges in writing that such claim is subject to indemnification hereunder, then the Company Stockholders' Representative shall be entitled, at the Company Stockholders' expense (but not out of the Escrow Fund), to assume control of the defense of such claim; provided that (a) Acquiror shall have the right at its expense to participate in such defense and (b) the Company Stockholders' Representative shall notify Acquiror of its intention to assume control of such defense and shall provide such acknowledgment within ten (10) days after the Company Stockholders' Representative is first notified of such claim. With respect to any third-party claim, Acquiror shall have the right (regardless of which party is controlling the defense of such claim) with the consent of the Company Stockholders' Representative (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) to settle any such claim (it being understood that no such consent of the Company Stockholders' Representative shall be required where the third-party claim, which Acquiror proposes to settle, involves the business reputation of Acquiror or its Affiliates, or the possible criminal culpability of Acquiror or its Affiliates or any of their respective officers, directors or employees). In the event that the Company Stockholders' Representative has consented to any such settlement, the Company Stockholders shall have no power or authority to object under any provision of this Section 8 to the amount of any claim by Acquiror for indemnity with respect to such settlement.

8.9 Company Stockholders' Representative.

(a) Sean Dalton is hereby appointed as representative (the "Company Stockholders' Representative") for and on behalf of the Company Stockholders to take all actions necessary or appropriate in the judgment of the Company Stockholders' Representative for the accomplishment of the terms of this Agreement. The holders of a majority in interest of the assets held in the Escrow Fund may replace the Company Stockholders' Representative upon not less than ten (10) days' prior written notice to Acquiror. No bond shall be required of the Company Stockholders' Representative and the Company Stockholders' Representative shall receive no compensation for his or her services. Notices of communications to or from the Company Stockholders' Representative shall constitute notice to or from each of the Company Stockholders.

(b) The Company Stockholders' Representative shall not be liable for any act done or omitted in such capacity while acting in good faith and in the exercise of reasonable judgment, and any act done or omitted pursuant to the advise of counsel shall be conclusive evidence of such good faith. The Company Stockholders shall severally indemnify the Company Stockholders' Representative and hold him or her harmless against any loss, liability or expense incurred without gross negligence or bad faith on the part of the Company Stockholders' Representative and arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of his or her duties hereunder.

(c) Any decision, act, consent or instruction of the Company Stockholders' Representative shall constitute a decision of all of the Company Stockholders and shall be final, binding and conclusive upon every Company Stockholder and the Escrow Agent and Acquiror may rely upon any decision, act, consent or instruction of the Company Stockholders' Representative as a decision, act, consent or instruction of each and every Company Stockholder.
