Pulte Homes, Inc. 401(k) Plan

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for plan benefits of the Pulte Homes, Inc. 401(k) Plan (formerly known as Pulte Home Corporation Investment Savings Plus, the Plan) as of December 31, 2002, December 30, 2002 and 2001, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for plan benefits for the year ended December 30, 2002 and the one-day period ended December 31, 2002. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for plan benefits of the Pulte Homes, Inc. 401(k) Plan as of December 31, 2002, December 30, 2002 and 2001, and the changes in its net assets available for plan benefits for the year ended December 30, 2002 and the one-day period ended December 31, 2002, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Our audits were performed for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying supplemental schedules of assets (held at end of year) as of December 31, 2002 and December 30, 2002 are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The supplemental schedules are the responsibility of the Plan's management. The supplemental schedules have been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audits of the financial statements and, in our opinion, are fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

Pulte Homes, Inc. 401(k) Plan
(Formerly known as Pulte Home Corporation Investment Savings Plus)

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Description of Plan

Effective December 31, 2002, the Pulte Home Corporation Investment Savings Plus was amended and restated, and renamed the Pulte Homes, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the Plan). The year-end for the Plan was also changed from December 30 to December 31. These financial statements include information as of and for the one-day period ended December 31, 2002, reflecting the new year-end for the Plan. The following brief description of the Plan is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Plan documents for more complete information.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution profit sharing plan for eligible employees of Pulte Homes, Inc. (the Company) and affiliated subsidiaries, which have adopted the Plan. The Plan is administered by the 401(k) Committee (the Committee) appointed by the Board of Directors of the Company and is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Effective December 31, 2002, the Plan assets are held and investment transactions are executed by Fidelity Management Trust Company (Fidelity), as Trustee and Recordkeeper. Prior to this, U.S. Bank, N.A. was the Trustee and Recordkeeper. As a result of this change, the Company was required to liquidate a majority of the Plan investments and transfer those assets to Fidelity. On December 31, 2002, accounts were established at Fidelity for the in-kind asset transfers. The liquidated assets were transferred and then allocated to the investment mediums selected at Fidelity.

During 2002, the employees of Del Webb Mortgage Corporation, a subsidiary of Del Webb Corporation, became employees of Pulte Mortgage LLC, a subsidiary of the Company. In connection with this merger, Del Webb Mortgage Corporation became a participating employer under the Pulte Homes, Inc. 401(k) Plan and a trustee-to-trustee transfer of $485,632 of assets into the Pulte Homes, Inc. 401(k) Plan was executed for the Del Webb Mortgage Corporation employees.

Eligibility

All nonunion, regular salaried, sales and hourly employees of the Company and its subsidiaries, which have adopted the Plan, are eligible to participate on the first day of the month coincident with or following the completion of six months of employment. Temporary employees are not eligible to participate in the Plan. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's account.

1. Description of Plan (continued)

Participant Loans

Generally, participants may borrow up to 50% of their account balance subject to a minimum loan of $1,000 and a maximum loan of $50,000 reduced by the highest outstanding loan balance during the preceding 12 months. The loans are secured by the balances in the participant's account and bear interest at a rate commensurate with local prevailing rates as determined by the Committee. Principal and interest are paid through payroll deductions.

Contributions

Contributions to participants' accounts are effected through voluntary withholdings from their compensation (employee deferrals). At the discretion of the Board of Directors, the Company and its subsidiaries may match an amount on behalf of each participant for their employee deferrals, based on the participant's length of service with the Company in accordance with the following schedule:

- A.) Less than one year of service: 100% of the first $300 of participant's contributions.
- B.) 1-2 years of service: 100% of the first $600 of participant's contributions.
- C.) 2-3 years of service: 100% of the first $900 of participant's contributions.
- D.) 3-4 years of service: 100% of the first $1,200 of participant's contributions.
- E.) 4 or more years of service: 100% of the first $1,500 of participant's contributions.

Annual contributions for each participant are subject to participation and discrimination standards of the Internal Revenue Code Section 401(k)(3).

Common Stock Fund. Participants may change their investment directives and contribution amounts on a daily basis via an interactive voice response system or interactive website.

At the discretion of the Board of Directors, the Company and its subsidiaries may make special contributions, which are to be allocated to eligible participants' Special Contributions Account. These contributions are invested solely in the Pulte Homes, Inc. Common Stock Fund and are not available for investment direction. The allocation of the special contribution excludes highly compensated employees covered under a stock option plan. There were no special contributions for the year ended December 30, 2002 or the one-day period ended December 31, 2002.

Allocations

Contributions to the Plan are allocated to participants' individual accounts on the date of receipt by the Trustee.

Further, the Committee may permit a participant who experiences a qualified financial hardship to receive a distribution of all or a portion of the participant's account balance. Such distributions are generally made in a lump sum.

Vesting

A participant's account balance is fully vested and nonforfeitable as of their first day of eligibility.

Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of plan termination, participants will remain fully vested.

Administrative Expenses

Other than loan origination fees, administrative expenses of the Plan are paid directly by the Company.

Reclassifications

Certain prior year amounts were reclassified to conform to the 2002 presentation.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The following are significant accounting policies followed by the Plan:

Investment Valuation Investments in money market instruments are carried at cost which approximates fair value. Investments in mutual funds and Company common stock are carried at fair value based on quoted market prices. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded when declared.

Management Estimates The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and additions and deductions during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

6. Subsequent Events

Effective January 1, 2003, the Company merged the Retirement Savings Plan for the Employees of Del Webb Corporation (Del Webb Plan) with the Plan and spun-off the assets and liabilities for the non-field group employees of the DiVosta & Company, Inc. 401(k) Plan (DiVosta Plan) into the Plan. Subsequently, all participant accounts from the Del Webb Plan and for the non-field group employees of the DiVosta Plan were transferred to the Plan. The remaining field group employees of DiVosta & Company continue to be covered under the amended DiVosta Plan, which was renamed the Pulte Homes Affiliates 401(k) Plan. These activities have significantly increased the number of covered employees in the Plan. There were also other changes made to the Plan in order to align the three previous plans, including changes to the eligibility requirements, investment options and matching contributions.
