(1) Mr. Chouinard became an employee and executive officer of the Company in 2002.

Employment Agreements

The Company has entered into an employment agreement with Dr. Paul A. Brown to serve as Chairman of the Board for a term ending in 2008. The Company has entered into a substantially similar employment agreement with Stephen J. Hansbrough to serve as Chief Executive Officer for a term ending in 2008. Each of the employment agreements provides that the executive will be entitled to receive base compensation and performance bonuses and to participate in and receive benefits under the Company's welfare benefit and similar employee benefit plans generally made available by the Company to other key employees. Dr. Brown's base compensation for the first year of the agreement was $300,000 per year, and Mr. Hansbrough's base compensation for the first year of the agreement was $275,000 per year. Such annual compensation is subject to review annually by the Board. In 2002 and for all of 2003, Dr. Brown and Mr. Hansbrough voluntarily reduced their salaries to $240,000 and $250,000 per year, respectively. In respect of annual bonuses, if in any calendar year the Company achieves the net income targets approved by the Board, the Company has agreed to pay the executive a bonus equal to at least 50% of the executive's base salary. In addition, if in any calendar year the Company achieves the target net income approved by the Board for such year, the executive is entitled to receive a cash bonus equal to 1% of such net income for such year. Each executive is entitled to reimbursement of his reasonable and necessary business expenses in connection with the performance of his duties consistent with guidelines established by the Company's Board of Directors. Concurrent with the execution of the employment agreements in 1999, and pursuant to the terms of the agreements, each executive was granted an option to purchase shares of the Company's Common Stock. Dr. Brown was granted an option to acquire 100,000 shares and Mr. Hansbrough was granted an option to acquire 113,246 shares. Each option was granted with an exercise price equal to the market value of the common stock on the date of grant and is now vested.

Each of the employment agreements contains termination and change in control provisions. If the executive is terminated with cause or if the executive terminates without good reason before or after a change in control, the Company will be required to pay only amounts earned through the date of termination. If the executive terminates because the Company has breached the employment agreement or if the Company terminates the executive without cause (before a change in control), the Company must pay the executive an amount equal to the base salary in effect for the duration of the term as in effect immediately before the date of termination or, if more than three years of the term have elapsed on the date of such termination, an amount equal to one year's salary. In addition, the executive is entitled to payment of a bonus equal to one times the average of all bonus and other incentive payments made by the Company to the executive over the then prior two years plus the pro rata portion of the bonus payable for the year of the termination. In such circumstances, the Company will be obligated to continue the executive's medical, dental, life and other insurance and benefit program coverage for 18 months, and the executive shall be fully vested in all options and similar rights previously granted to him and shall have a period of two years within which to exercise such rights.

Each of the employment agreements provides that in the event the executive is terminated by the Company without cause on or after a change in control or if the executive terminates with good reason after a change in control, the Company must pay the executive a minimum of three times the executive's base salary plus an amount equal to three times the average of all bonus and other incentive payments made by the Company to the executive over the then preceding two years. All options and other rights will then be fully vested and the executive will have three years within which to exercise such rights. The Company also will be responsible for maintaining the executive's medical, dental, life and other insurance and benefit program coverage for a three year period.

In the event of the executive's death or termination because of disability, all then outstanding options and similar rights shall become fully vested and the executive or his legal representatives may exercise such rights for a one year period following the executive's death or termination for disability.

The agreements provide for gross up payments to the executive to cover the executive's incremental tax liabilities in the event payments made under the agreements are subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Report of the Compensation Committee

The Company's executive compensation program is administered by the Compensation Committee, which was formed on March 26, 2003. Prior to that time, the Board of Directors administered the Company's executive compensation program. In addition to base salary, compensation for the Company's executive officers may include annual performance bonuses and stock options and stock grants pursuant to the Company's stock incentive plan. It is the intention of the Compensation Committee to use salary and bonuses as compensation for current and past performance, while using stock options and restricted stock grants to provide incentives for superior long-term performance.

To establish compensation for the Company's executive officers for 2003, the Board of Directors and then the Compensation Committee used subjective performance evaluations, compensation statistics of other similar size health care organizations and, with respect to executive officers other than Mr. Hansbrough, the salary recommendations of Mr. Hansbrough. Each of Dr. Brown and Mr. Hansbrough's salary was set at a level below that of their respective employment agreements as a result of their agreement to a voluntary reduction in annual salary. In respect of the bonus opportunity for the Company's executive officers, the Board set certain performance criteria, the attainment of which could entitle the executive officer to earn a cash bonus equal to one half of his base salary. The performance criteria were not met in 2003.
