PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why the Form 10-K, 11-K, 20-F 10-Q, N-SAR or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra sheets if needed.)

The Registrant has experienced significant delays in preparing its Form 10-Q for the period ended September 29, 2002, which could not have been avoided without unreasonable effort or expense due to the following factors:

- (i) After the end of the third quarter, the Company determined that a significant charge against earnings was necessary relating to the impairment of the Company's investment in an unconsolidated subsidiary and the Company encountered significant difficulty and delays in the calculation of the specific amount of such impairment; and
- (ii) The Company engaged a new independent accounting firm at the end of the third quarter and encountered unusual delays in the process of preparing the Form 10-Q resulting from familiarizing such accounting firm with the Company's personnel, accounting systems, historical transactions, and contractual arrangements.
